kicked you out of the house for and you were going...(inaudible)

SENATOR LINDSAY: My wife kicked me out of the house?

SENATOR ROBAK: No, what's going to happen...(inaudible)

SENATOR LINDSAY: I can give you a whole list of reasons why she should.

SENATOR ROBAK: In relation to the living will in Section 9.

SENATOR LINDSAY: What I'm saying is that if my wife kicked me out of the house or if we were divorced but the divorce decree had not become final, I still, until the divorce decree becomes final, I still make those decisions for her under Section 9 of the bill.

SENATOR ROBAK: For her. Why doesn't she just have her own living will? Can't she have her own living will?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Sure. Sure.

SENATOR ROBAK: Do you have to think for her every minute of the day and night?

SENATOR LINDSAY: No question about it.

SENATOR ROBAK: If everybody had their own living will you wouldn't have to worry about this.

SENATOR LINDSAY: You bet, 15 percent do.

SENATOR ROBAK: Then...I mean, that's not a valid argument in my case and I know where we're coming from because I vote pro life all the time, I'm Catholic just like you are. We're pushed and we're pressured by the Catholic Conference to support your amendment which I think is misinforming people throughout the state, and I'm sorry to hear that because I don't think, I mean, I really don't think it is valid. That's all I have to say, A, B, C.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Robak. Senator Landis, followed by Senators Wesely, Beutler and Robak. Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Section 9 takes up this situation because it
