

February 4, 1992 LB 291

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...and someone at .02 can't.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So the feeling is that the person who is 20 years,...

SENATOR WARNER PRESIDING

SENATOR WARNER: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...364 days is a greater hazard than one 20 years, 365 days, and the statistics bear that out are you saying?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator, I'm saying is that you need to draw the line and those who are close to the line are always going to wish they were over the line and those that are over the line are going to be glad they are there.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But here's what I'm asking you...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: You must draw the line.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do the statistics show that the one 20 years, 21 years old is less a hazard than the one 20 years, 364 days? Has that been established statistically?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: I'm not aware that you have that one-day statistic because that's irrelevant. That's a distinction without a difference.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's the way Senator Kristensen avoids the argument but he is going to have his feet held to the fire before this day or discussion of this bill is over.

SENATOR WARNER: Senator Schimek. Senator Schimek passes. Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, Mr. Chairman, just noticed it's Senator Warner. I am a sponsor of this bill. I was also a sponsor of a bill that would lower the legal blood alcohol content to .08. Senator Kristensen touched on that, and I have not pushed that bill because I think I agree with Senator Beyer, we need to take things in steps and I think that the ALR bill is certainly a good first step to try to make our laws having to do with DWI, make them work because I disagree with
