was sent down here not to be friends with people but to provide the best representation that I can, and that representation does not exist...

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if I allow these kinds of things to go unchallenged.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Madam President, members of the body, I have a question of Senator Horgan, please.

SENATOR HORGAN: Yes, Senator.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Horgan, is this garbage being collected at the present time?

SENATOR HORGAN: No, Senator, it is not.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Then they are piling it out into the streets?

SENATOR HORGAN: Because the property tax owners in the City of Omaha pay the fee.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Pardon.

SENATOR HORGAN: Because, Senator, the property tax owners in the City of Omaha pay the fee.

SENATOR HABERMAN: No, I asked, is the garbage being collected at the present time?

SENATOR HORGAN: Oh, is it being collected? Yes, it is.

SENATOR HABERMAN: And you are saying it is being paid by the property taxes?

SENATOR HORGAN: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, then, with that remark, I am sure that you will support the amendment that I put up, when it comes up.

SENATOR HORGAN: You have a new amendment?
