

February 21, 1992 LB 1120

name of trying to solve the personal property tax. I don't think that's good policy, I think we'll regret that day for a long, long time, because sooner or later we're going to want to come back to the income tax system and do some of those sorts of things that we've done. With that, Senator Withem, if you'd care to take the rest of my time to close, you may have it, if you don't, Madam... Thank you. Senator Nelson wanted me to make sure that I had the amendment properly explained. This is one amendment that deals with motor vehicles, semis, tractor trailers, and real estate. I mean it's the two policies at the same time that I find to be bad, and the income tax system... Senator Withem, you had indicated you did not want any of the closing. Madam President, that would constitute my closing. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. We will now vote on the Kristensen amendment to the committee amendments. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Senator Hefner.
