LB 1063

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Mr. Speaker and members, as I have said on this floor before, I've always taken a good lesson from LBJ and the advice, as you walk into a room and in 15 minutes you can't tell who's with you and who's against you, you better be out of politics. Well I maybe better be out of politics for another reason, but I can count and I withdraw the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Moore. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have is by Senator Rod Johnson. Senator Johnson, I had a note on this that he wishes...wished to withdraw the amendment, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment to the bill is by Senator Hefner. I have a note on this, Senator. He wished to withdraw.

SPEAKER BAACK: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Lamb would move to amend.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Lamb. Did you wish to withdraw, Senator Lamb? It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Hefner, a second amendment with a note that he wishes to withdraw.

SPEAKER BAACK: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Senator Moore, AM3189, Senator.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: This is the amendment that I believe appropriates a million dollars to the Attorney General? Well, I can probably count on this one, too. But I'm going to run this one, I think it needs to be discussed a little bit. This amendment would appropriate, from this body, a million dollars to the State Attorney General to defend LB 1063. The reason I say that is that we know, given the...we know, given the variety
