

hurting the purpose of the bill if the purpose is what we were told. But if it's to give somebody a club with which to bash one party to all of this, then you shouldn't take the language out because this is a good snare by which you can get this person, whereas ordinarily you might not be able to. In this setting...

PRESIDENT MOUL: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..the person would have spoken against himself or herself and what better evidence can you have against a person than the words that come out of his or her own mouth? Is the purpose of this to try to trap people, or is the purpose to get them to be as open and frank in discussing their problems as possible? If it's to get them to discuss everything that could bear on their shaky relationship, you should strike this language and, Madam President, I will ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. We have a request for call of the house. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 20 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The house is under call. Would all unexcused senators please return to the chamber and record their presence. All unauthorized personnel must leave the floor. Would the senators please check in. The house is under call.
