

this, but he is putting his lawyer mind in abeyance because he's listening to people out there at the lobby who are lay people and have some other agenda. But I want his feet held to the fire and I want him to have to stand on this floor...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..and say that his amendment does not mean what it says and then you will see what is meant by that derogatory statement. Ignorance of the law is no excuse for anybody except a lawyer, and especially a lawyer whose law it is. Now I want him to stand up here and say categorically. Senator Ashford, this is what I want you to do if you will. Senator Ashford, your light is on. Here's what I want you to stand up and do if you will. I want you to say on the record that what I'm saying is incorrect and that this information that is produced during the mediation process can be examined by the court.

SENATOR ASHFORD: Ernie, would you.... How much time do we have left, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Chambers' time is done, but your time is on right now.

SENATOR ASHFORD: All right, thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senator Chambers, could you just walk over to your microphone for a second?

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Chambers, would you respond, please?

SENATOR ASHFORD: Let me try...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Ashford, is it okay if I strolled over here?

SENATOR ASHFORD: All right. Let me try to...let me try to...you're suggesting to me that, well, never mind. I'm not...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, just ask it and I'll answer it.

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, I'll ask it in just a second.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, okay.
