LR 316

a little bit hesitant about, just like in our level when we try and cut things, those affected by those cuts scream and squeal as they often...there's nothing wrong with that, it just happens. Now on the federal level, when they try and balance the budget, when they do anything that affects us, we do the same thing, and represent our people in our state, that's our job, obviously. But it's one of those things all of us have to look at the big picture. I don't know, I agree with Senator Wickersham, this does not fit under the terminology of wasteful or items of pork. But there are some things, in any sort of budget, that we have to look at and...but I will support Senator Wickersham's resolution. I think the body must be cognizant of the fact that the federal level...federal government has the same problem we have, just on a much bigger level, in my opinion, a much more drastic level as they spend more than they take in. They must do what they can to bring the budget under control. And when they do something like this it's...we have to stand up for our constituents, and I understand that. I think we're standing up for the state under this situation. I will support Senator Wickersham's resolution. But, on the other hand, we must understand that if they'd get their house in order, on the budget side, back there, there may be some things that life may change down at the state level. So, with that, I will support Senator Wickersham's resolution.
