

occur, or how it is to occur, or anything else. So who told you they don't respect him? Do you not respect him?

SENATOR BEYER: I don't know the man.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So it is not you saying you...

SENATOR BEYER: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...don't have respect? Who told you they don't respect him?

SENATOR BEYER: Well, basically...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, let me say...

SENATOR BEYER: ...he...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...do you want to retract...

SENATOR BEYER: ...I misspoke, Senator Chambers, it was that he did not know anything about the bill at the time from what he originally set up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you want to retract the statement you made that he is not well respected?

SENATOR BEYER: Yes, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, then that takes care of (interruption)...

SENATOR BEYER: I said I (interruption)...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, that...this is though it wasn't said, but what do you mean, he doesn't know about the bill? Everything there is to know about it is bad. This is one of the worst bills I have ever seen. Who actually drafted this?

SENATOR BEYER: Basically, a lot of it was brought to us by the investigators and through the bill drafter's office.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do they investigate in as sloppy and incompetent a manner as the way that they drafted this bill?
