

as to how often the committee's appointed. The bill, as drafted, could have been read for each session each as a one-year existence. Clarify that these members are selected at the beginning of each Legislature or biennial term and then finally there's a minor clarification again, because the report does provide opportunities for public hearings on the report and it was to make it clear that in this one instance it was on the final report rather than a draft report, but those essentially are the amendments. Oh, yes, one other slight one and it would indicate that the committee would be the custodian of the records or the unit would be the custodian of the records of the unit, which would be appropriate and I move adoption of the amendment and then I'll explain the bill more thoroughly.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Warner. Does anyone wish to address this amendment?

CLERK: Senator Warner, if I may...excuse me, Madam President, this is the first amendment you had printed, Senator, and I understand that it's the second amendment that you really want to offer. Is that...

SENATOR WARNER: Yes.

CLERK: ..right?

SENATOR WARNER: Have I got a second one there?

CLERK: You do, yeah.

SENATOR WARNER: Yes, it was the second one. (Senator Warner's AM3605 appears on page 1527 of the Legislative Journal.)

CLERK: Okay.

SENATOR WARNER: Correction.

CLERK: I just wanted to make sure you and I are.... Thank you.

SENATOR WARNER: Withdraw the first one.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Does anyone wish to speak to this amendment? Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: No, not really, I'd just like to know which one
