

your property from the spot zoning that is always going to be attempted, and that is no particular terrible thing except that those people who are affected by it, who own property by it, should have the ability to have input, not only to the city council, which is the second step, but in the first step with the planning board.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay, thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: I would simply ask that this part of the 369 be advanced.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Hartnett, we still have senators wishing to speak to this.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Oh, okay.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Lynch, followed by Senators Abboud, Bernard-Stevens, and Beutler. Senator Lynch. Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABOUD: Yes, Madam President, would Senator Pirsch yield to a question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Pirsch.

SENATOR ABOUD: Senator Pirsch, I had a question in regard to the penalty provisions. If an individual has a... apparently they give notice by putting up a sign in the neighborhood of the planning change?

SENATOR PIRSCH: No, I don't believe that is in the bill... in the amendment anymore. We did take the sign part out. Lincoln has an ordinance that requires a sign.

SENATOR ABOUD: Senator Pirsch, what exactly is in this bill, then, if it isn't the same as the bill currently amended?

SENATOR PIRSCH: Well, I do not have the committee amendments in front of me. Senator Hartnett might.

SENATOR ABOUD: Is the bill now...

SENATOR PIRSCH: It was my understanding we took the sign out,
