

Lower Platte South, except he and his wife moved out of the district and he couldn't run again. So, we're all going to miss him, I know. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Crosby. Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Whenever I give thought to...to people who have died, who I respect a great deal, for some reason I always think back of a poem I learned a long time ago about, it went something to the effect of, what though the radiance which was once so bright, be now forever taken from our sight. Though nothing can bring back the hour of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower, we will grieve not. And it goes on to say why we will grieve not, and we will grieve not because of the philosophies...the philosophy that is left to us by a particular person. And L.K. Emry is going to be very strong in the minds, I know, of the Lancaster County delegation, for a long, long time to come because of his philosophy of strength through involvement in the public process, and through his concern and love of the common man and woman. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I, too, would add a word of...certainly I would agree with every comment that has been made by others. My acquaintance with L.K. went back to the 1950's. The thing that I always think of is, if one word was to describe with me was his sincerity in everything that he did. He was sincere in his positions. As was said, he was always willing to visit with a variety of viewpoints, but what always came through was his sincerity in everything that he did. And he certainly is an individual that...all of us that knew him will miss him, but many people who did not know him will miss the contributions that he made to...to this state and to society as a whole.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Warner. Any other discussion on LR 421? If not, Senator Wesely, would you like to close.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. Again, Mr. Speaker, I want to express my appreciation to all the senators that spoke, Senator Schimek, Senator Schellpeper, Senator Landis, Senator Crosby, Senator Beutler, and Senator Warner. All of the Lancaster County delegation is cosponsoring this resolution. I thought the comments, recognizing former Senator Emry, were very
