

their own work agenda. I would not presuppose to indicate how often that they would be meeting.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, and this $150...$150,000 a year, would that be used for paying the expenses while they're at the meeting?

SENATOR WITHEM: It would be paid for their expenses and if they chose to utilize the work of a consultant, if they needed to acquire materials to help in their work, that would be used also.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, thank you for the information.

SENATOR WITHEM: Thank you for the questions.

SPEAKER BAACK PRESIDING

SPEAKER BAACK: Any other discussion on the motion to return? Seeing none, Senator Withem, do you wish to close?

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, I would urge that this bill return...be returned to Select File.

SPEAKER BAACK: You've heard the closing on the motion to return. We will now vote on that motion. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return the bill.

SPEAKER BAACK: The bill is returned. Now we are on the amendment. Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, this amendment simply removes the two legislative members from this School Accountability Commission and replaces them with one additional parent and representative postsecondary education. Senator Crosby, thank you very much for asking those questions. This bill has been a bit of a frustration because there are a group of people in the state who are very well intent and care very much about their children and very much concerned about what certain trends in education might mean to their children. But it's been a frustration because getting a hold of what the actual concerns are is very tough. I've...normally, when you
