

is designed to give a break to those who are wealthy. That is what this bill will do when it is in the form that the introducer wants. That is what it does in its current form. This is a bill that George Bush would have blushed to bring to a Legislature like this. This is a bill that would have snapped Ronald Reagan out of his reverie if somebody asked that he have it introduced in the Nebraska Legislature, and he would say, why, those hicks and rubes out there wouldn't even go for this. But, lo and behold, we have it being presented to us. I don't know who on this floor speaks for the Governor, but I am curious to find out whether or not he supports this piece of legislation. I am going to see if I can find a Democrat willing to acknowledge that he or she belongs to that party, and knows the Governor's opinion on this bill. Is there such a Democrat on the floor? Is there a Democrat in the house? Well, I know their fortunes have not been very good lately, but I was unaware that they would not claim to be a member of the party to which they belong. Oh, Jerry Chizek said he is. Senator Chizek, do you know what the Governor's opinion is on this bill?

SENATOR CHIZEK: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hall, do you know what the Governor's opinion is on this bill?

SENATOR HALL: No, Senator Chambers, I don't.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

SENATOR HALL: But if were to...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Go ahead, I don't want to cut you off.

SENATOR HALL: ...if I am able to find out, I would be happy to relay that to you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Do you see this as a bill that is more beneficial to th....

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...people able to purchase the higher-priced cars than it is to those who purchase lower-priced cars and have to keep them for a considerable period of time?
