

CLERK: 5 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. The house is under call. All members, please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. Members, please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. Members, please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. We are looking for Senators Moore and Chambers. We are now looking for Senator Chambers.

SENATOR LABEDZ: We'll take call-in votes.

SPEAKER BAACK: The motion is to cease debate. Call-in votes have been authorized. Roll call vote has been requested by Senator Landis. I think that Senator Labeledz was withdrawing her request. If you wish to make a request, you may do that. Senator Landis requests a roll call vote. Mr. Clerk, call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 1876-77 of the Legislative Journal.) 26 ayes, 8 nays to cease debate.

PRESIDENT MOUL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MOUL: Debate has ceased. And I will recognize Senator Rasmussen for closing.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Madam President, members of the body, this amendment to Senator Bernard-Stevens' amendment says that the Legislature shall work together to find solutions to the circumstances contributing to why women have abortions. I've had several...I've heard several people, both on the microphone and off, saying this is a great amendment. In fact, why don't you amend the bill and then we'll support it. I'm somewhat reminded, and I guess I'm getting a little cynical, but I'm sort of reminded of the debate about teacher pay and the discussion about the Highway Trust Funds, and we had all kinds of offers about how to support teacher pay. And what I fear is that we get all kinds of offers in a debate like this, and then once it's all over we have silence again about addressing the real issues at hand. I'm offering the opportunity for us to take a rather bold step, to move away from all the other agendas, be they political or otherwise, and say that we, as a body, are
