

April 3, 1992

LB 719A, 1063

amendment that will repeal all penalties for improper filing for one year and I hope that it will gather some support as of this time. I'll have a little more to say about the amendment as we proceed, but I think that it's important that we address those issues now and I would hope that there will be additional members who will comment upon the various aspects of the bill. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Schmit. Anyone else wishing to address this motion to suspend the rules? Seeing no one, Senator Warner, do you wish to close? Waives closing. We will now vote on the motion to suspend the germaneness rule. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on the motion to suspend the germaneness rule. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to suspend the rules.

SPEAKER BAACK: The motion is successful. We are now on the amendment. Senator Warner, would you like to open on the amendment?

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, as I indicated in the comments on the suspension of the rule, the bulk of the amendment does deal with technical amendments that are instructions from in LB 1063 for the Revisor of Statute, and to complete that I do want to indicate if you do not have a summary, if there's any of those sections that we have identified to be included other than those revisor's, why I would be very willing to separate those out as a divided question issue. I should point out there are some other amendments that are filed that are not included in this group. There's one filed that deals with the issue of the corporate filing fee which is not in this amendment which was part of the discussion on LB 1063. There is a separate amendment that deals with the issue of the taxation of property that the federal supremacy law directs how the state can tax which is otherwise known as the railroad amendment, but technically as it is drafted, it would be as I had previously described it. And then there are other people who have amendments that may be appropriate to an individual section, but I will move the adoption and am willing to accept any amendment that someone would like...any section that someone would like to have pulled out and then I will move to adopt those amendments that have not