CLERK: The next amendment I have is by Senator Baack, AM3934. (The Baack amendment appears on page 1868 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR WARNER: Senator Baack.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Mr. Chairman and colleagues, the amendment that I am offering now is an amendment that clears up a problem that has developed with the choice legislation, the open enrollment legislation that we passed a number of years ago. Last year, we allowed for choice for students who had attended their resident district for two years and they moved to a different district, we allowed them to continue to attend the school district in their original resident district because we did not want children to have to change districts just because...just because they moved to a different district. This amendment would allow their siblings that would be in either kindergarten and the first grade to also attend. And I...and the reason that I offer this bill is that these students cannot meet the two-year requirement where they have lived in...where
