SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and I'll try to repeat again. Do you think the Governor is unconcerned about the State Patrol's record keeping capability, being in as bad a condition as you indicated? Do you think he's not concerned about that?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Oh, I think he is concerned, sure.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did he ask you to bring this proposal for this 50 cents out of these fees?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: No, he didn't

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then if he didn't ask you to bring this proposal and he told the State Patrol don't ask any money from the General Fund, it would indicate that he's not very concerned about it, wouldn't it?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, he did not ask me to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Wouldn't that indicate he's not concerned about it?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: I think he's worried about the money, if it was going to come from the taxpayers rather than a fee.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Schellpeper, you are saying that the people who pay these fees are not taxpayers?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Oh, they are taxpayers, right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So then it's coming from taxpayers, isn't it?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Right, but you're using a service and when you use that service you should pay whatever that service costs.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And do you mean that with reference to everything?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, I think that when you have a service like this that deals with motor vehicles you should pay...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...approximately what that service cost,
