

years, treatment and ways to get it funded, and treatment is not mandatory in your case, but I'm wondering who is going to pay for that treatment? Are we going to load the jails up or the treatment I know is it in the ballpark figure of a minimum of eight and to eleven and $12,000 for 30 days. Who is going to pay for that?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator, it depends totally on the assessment. At this point, the answer to your question plainly, I can't see you, but somewhere behind Senator Coordsen I know you're there. At this point the person, the defendant or the person found guilty will, in fact, pay for it. But let me stress again, the assessment may not call for treatment. The assessment may say we want you to go to AA for a period of time or we want you to do something else in counselling or something. It may not be the total treatment. That's what the assessment is about and then the judge would look at the assessment and determine whether or not that would be valid in his sentencing.

SENATOR NELSON: Sure, I thought I had it straight, but I did want to get that cost, and I don't know, what works for one doesn't work for another. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Nelson. Senator Crosby, you're next. The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. We will now vote on ceasing debate. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Debate has ceased. To Senator Bernard-Stevens to close on your amendment.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, again I say this also for I guess, if the amendment is agreed to for E & R and/or the Clerk, technically as we have it filed, Mr. Clerk, it talks about page 6 and page 7 and that was our mistake because that was on the bill as it came out of E & R. Technically if it's 3901 it would be page 12 and 13, or excuse me, page 12, striking lines 10 through 15 which would accomplish, it does the same thing. So it would be page 12, striking lines 10 through 15 and inserting the language, on actually the AM3901.
