license?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: The officer would say, give me the license.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I say, no.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: And then you'd probably say, you could be guilty of failing to...to obey a lawful order,...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...because I have the authority to take the license from you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'll say, well I'm not going to give it to you. Then would he say, proceed?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: He could.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is it your intention that...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: He could.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if a person not give up the license, he or she be placed under arrest?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: It does not...I mean that is not in the bill, it does not say that you are automatically arrested. But it's like any other enabling legislation that would allow them the authority to take the license, if they refuse to do it. I mean you can't take them down, tackle them and take it out of their mouth, I suppose, if that's what they choose to do with it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: In Omaha they would bust you upside the head with a stick first. And then they would take it. (Laugh.)

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well, Senator, maybe you ought to move to Minden.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laugh.) Then they'd shoot you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I have a question that I want to pursue
