

more money. Well, what about the money they're getting under 775? That's a revenue gift from our citizens, the same as we're doing here. Fairness, the word fairness, I can't see anything fair when you penalize so many people for the few. Holdrege, for example, loses $48,000, but Lexington makes $421,000. So we're penalizing the many for the few. The rich get richer and the poor get poorer. That's what it boils down to. I'm going to...if you haven't gained from my remarks, I'm going to ask you to oppose the amendment. Look at the sheet. If we're going to penalize these people, if we're going to take this money away from the schools, let's give them some notice and let's do it as far down the road as we can. Let's don't drop this bomb all of a sudden, we're going to take this money from you. I don't think that's fair. I don't think it's right, and I don't think the people can live with it. So down the road one year, two years, whatever, if we have to do this, I'll change. I'll come up and support the issue. But to immediately drop this bomb right now, I don't think it's fair. It isn't right. How are we going to make it up? Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Haberman. Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Speaker, I call the question, please.

SPEAKER BAACK: Do I see five hands? I do see five hands. We will now vote on ceasing debate. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on ceasing debate. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk. Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: (Microphone not activated)...please.

SPEAKER BAACK: We have a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 21 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President, on the motion to go under call.

SPEAKER BAACK: The house is under call. All members, please report to the chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. And we will do a roll call on ceasing debate. The Clerk kind of erased the ballot there. First mistake he's made all year, well, second maybe. Senator Hillman, would you record your presence, please. Senator Pirsch, would you record your presence, please. Senator Wehrbein, would you record your presence, please. Senator Pirsch, would you record your presence, please.
