Senator Beyer, would you check in, please. Senator Rasmussen, would you check in, please. All members who are not excused are now in attendance. We have a roll call vote. Mr. Clerk, call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 2098 of the Legislative Journal.) 22 ayes, 19 nays.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment fails. I will raise the call. Before we proceed to the next item, I would like to introduce a couple of guests of the Legislature today. They are guests of Senator Landis. First, we have John Gradwohl and with Dr. Gradwohl is Dr. Wojtech Cepl, the Dean of Faculty of Law, head of the Department of Civil Law at Charles University of Prague. Would you please stand and be recognized by the Legislature. Thank you for being with us. Mr. Clerk, next item.

CLERK: Mr. President, a priority motion. Senator Withem would move to reconsider the third portion of, I believe, what was the Lamb amendment, which was AM...or FA356, which was adopted earlier today.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Withem.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I'm convinced, I am convinced, Senator Moore and Senator Warner did convince me, that the consistent position of the body is we ought to leave the formula of 1059 as it was intended to be; that we ought not to be making these sorts of adjustments for unique districts; that we ought not to be adjusting the formula for to meet special needs of special categories; that the rapid student growth amendment we adopted this morning is probably a mistake. After all, they do get their money eventually. They will ultimately get their funds. It probably was a mistake to adopt that amendment. I would be very interested in hearing the rationale at this point as to why the rapid student growth idea
