SENATOR CONWAY: Time.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: ...questions instead of just standing there shaking your head when they're explaining them to them. I have got files at home this big on low-level waste...

SENATOR CONWAY: Time.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: ...and if someone would care to read them for a change, I would be more than happy to make them available. They can't...they can't defend any of their arguments.

SENATOR CONWAY: Senator Chizek, you're next. Senator Chizek. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker, I choose stilettos at ten yards and my second will be the Clerk. No, I would like to ask Senator Baack a question or two if I could...if he is anywhere near.

SENATOR CONWAY: Senator Baack, are you available for questioning?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then what I'm going to do Mr. Speak...Mr. Chair, because I want to ask Senator Baack some questions, I'm going to relinquish my time at this point and you can go on with the discussion by those who are scheduled.

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Schmit, you're next. Senator Schmit. Senator Dierks, please. Senator Rod Johnson.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President and members, I...I think some of the points Senator Chambers raised in his initial opening, I thought were somewhat legitimate, at least, relative to the motion of reconsideration. The question I have for the Clerk or the Assistant Clerk, I guess, would be as well, if we reconsider the vote, if it comes to that and we get to a vote and reconsider, are we reconsidering the vote to advance or are we reconsidering the vote...or reconsidering the bill itself and thus begin the debate again? I guess, I would appreciate an answer to that.

SENATOR CONWAY: Mr. Clerk.
