will obviously be next session. I would also like to say that...that...well, maybe that's enough. The parliamentary procedure alone, I think, will keep this bill before us unless this body says, at the last minute, listen, there are one or two things we really do need to do, it is time to move on because of the time. Senator Beutler, you've done a valiant job. Senator Moore and others have done a good job but it's time for the body now to take control, bracket the bill no matter what side you're on and say let's get to those things that we absolutely truly need and then let's go home at some point when...when Final Reading is finished on Tuesday. With that, I yield whatever time I have to Senator Wesely.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Rod Johnson.
