LB 556

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And now they could give 50,000 if they want to.

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, in a legislative race they could give 20...25...25,000 dollars in the aggregate, is what they could do.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, you mean all of the PAC's put together...

SENATOR ASHFORD: Right, right, could give 25,000.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and that doe...that satisfies you.

SENATOR ASHFORD: Yeah, it satisfies me. It's obviously not what I...what I suggested, but it's...I think it's a solid compromise, it's a big improvement over what we have now.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, Senator Horgan...is Senator Horgan here? (Laugh.) He's not here, but I was going to ask him has he started a school of the Teflon principle...people...and Brad is the first student. But anyway, I won't even say that. (Laugh.) But...oh, thanks, Bud Robinson. I thought he had a zipper on, but I should have looked. (Laughter.) But this is a bill...this is a bill which, in reality, however it's amended, I don't feel is going to do much to limit campaign contributions or expenditures, and that is the reason why I really won't be able to support the bill. But I stood up at this point just to find out what that amendment was. And since it's clear, I won't take any further time to discuss that. I'll wait until the bill and...or Senator Lindsay's ridiculous amendment.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Ashford, you're next. Senator Ashford waives off. Senator Abboud, you are next.

SENATOR ABOUD: Senator Baack, I would...Mr. President, would Senator Baack yield to a question?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator Baack, would you yield?

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes.

SENATOR ABOUD: Senator Baack, running for Governor, what would be the largest amount...
