LB 126, 1240A

Select...Select File. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: The time has come for us to stop on this part of the agenda. We are at seven o'clock. And I do have nine lights on yet on this motion to return.

SENATOR HALL: I have a point of...

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: ...and it's for purposes of information, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: There are a number of bills that are currently on Final Reading. Bills that are on Final Reading traditionally have motions to return. Motions to return do not prevent a bill from being read on Final Reading, is that correct?

SPEAKER BAACK: Oh, absolutely not. The ones that we do not get to today, that are sitting on Final Reading, will be on the agenda and will be available for Final Reading, that's absolutely correct. We will now, on the agenda I know it says we'll go to Final Reading, but I have made an agreement with Senator Landis to give him one hour to deal with LB 1240A. And one hour, at eight-oh-one we will go to Final Reading.

CLERK: Mr. President, 1240A is on Select File. The...no E & R amendments. The first amendment I have to the bill, Senator, is Senators Landis and Hall, AM4073, Senator.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Clerk, I'd like to substitute for that amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: No objections? So ordered.

CLERK: Senator, I now have AM4255 in front of me.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature. In a moment I will be making a motion to suspend the rules, because that's the way you handle a nongermane issue when you've got an empty bill. I'll follow every procedural
