

CLERK: ...and 3.

SENATOR HALL: Correct.

CLERK: So the second amendment to be considered by the Legislature would then be item 2, and the first sentence in line 4...in item 4, is that right?

SENATOR HALL: It would be the first because it's the...item 2 and then the first portion of number 4 would be the first thing to be dealt with because it is the noncontroversial portion.

CLERK: I understand that.

SENATOR HALL: Okay. All right, thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Okay, we will deal with it in that order then. We are on the...if my understanding is correct, we are on item 2, on the amendment that you have handed out to you, and also the first lines of item 4, the line that reads "On page 9, strike beginning with 'by' in line 14 through 'Legislature' in line 17." Those are the two pieces that we are dealing with right now. Is there anyone wishing to discuss this as divided? Senator Schimek, did you wish to discuss that? Senator Will. Senator Hall. Senator Kristensen. Senator Warner. Senator Lindsay. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, when your opportunity comes, you have to take it. Senator Landis, I am not going to prolong the discussion on that. There has been none. But what we are doing here today, and I am not going to oppose this particular provision, but I am not going to support LR 1 no matter what form it takes, unless it is converted to a commendation of myself. Abraham Lincoln was running for Congress, Senator Labeledz, and he stumbled into a church and he was thinking about his run for Congress. So the minister was preaching, as they do, and he said, the preacher said, who is going to heaven? Ninety percent of the people stood up, not Lincoln. He said, who is going to hell? The other 10 percent stood up, not including Lincoln. So the preacher said, Lincoln, when I asked who was going to heaven, you didn't stand up; when I asked who was going to hell, you didn't stand up; where are you going, Mr. Lincoln? He said I am going to Congress. When people ask where we are going this session, I say we are going home. I don't believe anything is
