LB 6

SENATOR HABERMAN: That is the way it is now?

SENATOR HALL: That's similar to the way it is now, exactly. It is just that right now we don't tax personal property.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Does the Tax Commissioner get a 3 percent fee now?

PRESIDENT MOUL: Time.

SENATOR HALL: Please.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Does the Tax Commissioner get a 3 percent collection fee at the present time?

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Thank you, Madam President, for being so indulgent.

SENATOR HALL: Oh, Senator Haberman, one of the lobbyist out back says that a band is a small group of sheep. Now I have got to consider the source and I don't know that that is an accurate...

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well, then what are we going to do about goats?

SENATOR HALL: I don't know, maybe they have an orchestra. I have no idea.

SENATOR HABERMAN: That must have come from Pappas.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Haberman. Senator Will.

SENATOR WILL: Thank you, Madam President. Senator Hall, do you need any more time to talk about bands of sheep?

SENATOR HALL: No.

SENATOR WILL: Okay. I would rise in support of the amendment, the reconsideration motion on the amendment that was rejected yesterday. As was discussed somewhat yesterday, this is simply the provisions that were adopted by the Revenue Committee that amend the original LB.6. Now the purpose of the bill,
