

Warner, if you would respond to a question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Warner.

SENATOR HALL: Jerry, now did I understand you to say that the back page goes away because of the court decision?

SENATOR WARNER: Yes.

SENATOR HALL: Okay, and the permissive language is what needs to be used as opposed to the mandatory language in order to comply with that?

SENATOR WARNER: That is what I understand, Senator Hall. I wanted to mandate it for '91 so we had...it was adopted in committee, so we...

SENATOR HALL: Right.

SENATOR WARNER: ...you know, you had something that you could...

SENATOR HALL: A basis from which to work.

SENATOR WARNER: Administratively go back and check.

SENATOR HALL: Right.

SENATOR WARNER: But...

SENATOR HALL: But that's the reason behind the difference.

SENATOR WARNER: I am told that we couldn't mandate it for '91 either but you could have it in here, it would be effective for '91, I guess it becomes a guide but I don't believe we can mandate it.

SENATOR HALL: Okay. So, really, the only thing we mandate in this amendment then is the development of the manual. Is that correct?

SENATOR WARNER: Right, and by the state.

SENATOR HALL: Right, and by the state so that the state Department of Revenue would have to basically oversee and
