LB 6

LR 1

situation that sets aside the proposal of a gubernatorial veto, would this, in fact, be the law of the State of Nebraska? Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: If you could repeat that, Senator...I didn't know. You said down the road, I didn't know how far down the road you were going to ask it.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Well, down the road, okay.

SENATOR HALL: And you talk so slow.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Only, only...I only talk slow so that perhaps...

SENATOR HALL: You agree, you agree.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...someone with slow thought processes might be able to pick it up.

SENATOR HALL: Oh, well, you are right there but I even missed it at that pace.

SENATOR COORDSEN: My question is that given the language through LB 6...

SENATOR HALL: Right.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...if a constitutional amendment amending, et cetera, et cetera, is adopted in 1991...

SENATOR HALL: Right.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...what is the legal effect of LB 6 if, in fact, LR 1 is not proposed to the voters, is not passed by the special session but LB 6 would be?

SENATOR HALL: Well, what would happen...well, with LB 6, so, in other words, if LB 6 is voted on first and passes?

SENATOR COORDSEN: Yes.

SENATOR HALL: Okay, that is what you asked. All right, LB 6 would be law, but I would guess that if that happened and LB 6 were passed by this body, we came to a vote on Friday on LR 1
