

July 31, 1992

LB 1-13
LR 1-2

Mr. President, that's all I that I have at this time.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Peterson, did you wish a point of personal privilege? Just one second, Senator Peterson. Senator Peterson. Senator Peterson, now you're...I know you came up and stated to me your question was about availability of bills, when they will be available. The Clerk will try to answer those questions now. He will give you some information now since we can't seem to get the microphones working out there. If you have bills to be introduced for the special session, I encourage you to get them up here. We're going to leave...we'll leave it open for about 30 minutes for bill introduction.

CLERK: Mr. President, new bills. (Read LB 1-10 by title for the first time. See pages 45-49 of the Legislative Journal.) Mr. President, in addition to those items, resolutions. (Read brief description of LR 1-2CA. See pages 49-54 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER BAACK: If there are other members who do have bills to introduce, I would encourage you to do those...do that right away because the Reference Committee is going to meet in a few minutes and we're going to reference these bills that we have. We'll still leave it open until about four o'clock for bill introduction, but I would encourage you to do it as quickly as possible.

EASE

CLERK: Mr. President, new bills. (Read LB 11-13 by title for the first time. See page 54 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER BAACK: (Microphone not activated)...bills to be brought in, I would like to introduce some guests of the Legislature today. Under the south balcony, we have guests of mine and they are Dr. Nancy Herron and Bonnie Herron. Would you folks please stand and be welcomed by the Legislature. And we also, under the north balcony we have guests of Senator Bernard-Stevens. We have Zsolt Neureth from Hungary and Marcel Haenen from the Netherlands. Would you folks please stand and be welcomed. And, finally, we have a guest of Senator Lamb. Senator Lamb's grandson, Chris Lamb, is under the north balcony. Would you please stand and we welcomed by the Legislature, Chris. Thank you all for being with us.