

PRESIDENT MOUL: A simple majority. Please proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 152-53 of the Legislative Journal.) 3 ayes, 36 nays on the motion to adjourn sine die, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The motion fails. We have heard the final closing on the motion to compel attendance. We will now proceed with that vote. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 14 nays on the motion to compel attendance, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The motion is approved. The house is under call. The members should be in their seats. The Clerk is directed to notify all excused members to return to the Chamber. Sergeant at Arms, would you please request the members to stay in their seats.

SPEAKER BAACK PRESIDING

SENATOR MORRISSEY PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MOUL PRESIDING

CLERK: Madam President, I have a priority motion. Senator Conway would move to reconsider the vote to compel the attendance of the members.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Conway.

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you, Madam President. I offer the motion that the Clerk just read which would be to reconsider the compelling motion that was filed earlier and was voted on by a majority of the body. We are at a point in time where I believe that some of the members that were not able to be present at the original vote have been contacted and are now in our presence or a couple of those that are not in our presence have not been able to be found, and so, therefore, it puts us in a situation where at some point my desire to have the body here from time to time will always come to that point where you may find it impossible to have every single member here. And I think we are in a position now where we have the majority of those people who
