And this Jesus, who you all worship and you all say sets the example for you, praised her far more than he did those who gave all of the money. He said, if ConAgra gives up its personal property exemption on its jets, what is that? Nothing, because ConAgra has so much, that little bit won't even be missed. But when you have this poor woman, struggling to try to bring a child into the world, and you take what little she has from her, that is far more damning and worthy of damnation, because she has so very little. One reason I can't believe anything in the Bible is because those who've had those revelations and say they pray and God gives them messages, turn against it and turn their back on it when time comes to put it into practice. Practice what you preach. And the time to practice it is when it's most difficult. Jesus even told you that if you do good to those who do good to you, what good is that? The hypocrites do it, but you're supposed to bless those who curse you. You're supposed to pray for those who spitefully use you. If somebody forces you to walk one mile, walk with him twain. If he takes your coat by force, give him your cloak also. That's what Jesus said. And you all say you worship him, but you all don't believe any of that. So here we come with this pitiful woman, who may be as pitiful in the eyes of whoever makes the ultimate judgment as Mary was when they told her there's no place for you. She said, I got a baby. So what! Go out there in the barn with the animals, that's what we think of you, that's what we think of your baby,...

SENATOR CONWAY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...those are our family values. Went out there in the barn with the animals. This Jesus that you all worship would have been homeless. He even said the birds have their nests, the foxes have their holes in the ground, but the son of man has no place to lay his head. He's homeless. Spending his time with the poor. Telling you to be kind and compassionate. And what happens? He said, if a father loves his son and he asks him for bread, will he give him a stone? Are you all going to give these poor women crying for bread a stone?

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Moore, you're next.

SENATOR MOORE: Well, Mr. President, members, I rise to support Senator Lindsay's amendment to the committee amendments, because
