your baby? He put it on her, didn't he. And I'm going to tell you all something to show the hypocrisy that I'm talking about in this body,...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and I'll use Marilyn Quayle as an example. She said if her teenage daughter got pregnant, she's make that child carry that pregnancy to term. Let's say Willy Horton was what George Bush said he was, and let's say he got out of prison, and he impregnated Dan...Marilyn Quayle's daughter. Is Marilyn Quayle telling me she's going to be the grandma of Willy Horton's child? We know that's not the case. All this hypocritical posturing. Same thing in here. That's the level you all are operating on. Like the woman who came out of the audience after Lincoln and like Marilyn Quayle. The reality is that words are spoken but they're not meant. And I'm going to hammer on it, and I'm going to hammer on it, and I'm going to hammer on it.

When I was a child I used to think that was impossible. How could even God, if there is a God, be aware of everybody? Even the hairs on your head are numbered, for some of us that wouldn't be too difficult to do, but for others it seems like something impossible. Then they developed computers and the amount of information that can be put on one of these little microchips is staggering. So maybe if there is a God that God could be aware of everybody on the earth. Maybe every time a little sparrow falls that God is aware of it. Maybe every hair on every head is numbered. Maybe all those things are so. And as a child you believe the things or you try to believe the things that those you respect will teach you. So here you are, walking up before the judge, and the judge is going to be very stern. Chambers, you said that you favor women
