

September 29, 1992 LB 20

guess they influence whoever they have influence over to be opposed to this amendment. Somebody had said yesterday a rose by any other name is just as sweet, smells just as sweet. So whatever term we use, we know what we're talking about. Would it make them feel better if I called it quarter horse. I wonder. With the kind of illogic that they use, that would probably make them feel better. But for my part, in spite of people as ignorant as that, I will continue to push for what I think is right because the goal is to help these women who need the assistance, and not to kowtow to fools like that, whoever they are and wherever they may be, and they know who they are. And I wish, as I say, they'd let me know who they are. This amendment is reasonable and it strikes a spot between what the Governor wants, which is to swat these women down absolutely, and what I want, which is to leave the program in place as it stands now without any negative modification to it. But I want to say something else over and over now so you all can get it back to your boss, the Governor, who runs you and give you your orders. He is cowardly to attack these women. This is the only program the little coward is cutting, the only one. And I guess he hired all those women so that would be a shield to hide behind to pretend that he is not against women, but he is against women who are poor, but not the kind that he would hire apparently. He gives them big bonuses at a time when he is telling us cut these poor women altogether, but those who work for me, and they have expenses, they need more money on top of a good salary.

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So he gives it to them. But these, they deserve nothing. That is the kind of man who sits over there in the Governor's chair and that's the kind of man who is not supposed to be criticized. He is just a tinhorn politician to me, and a tinhorn politician is not exempt from criticism and he is going to get it when he brings this kind of mess into the Legislature. And I will oppose it, and the words that I address toward him apply to any of his flunkies, lackeys, running dog boot lickers in here who follow his orders because that is what they are, and we all know that. And if it was Governor Orr sitting over there, I'd say again, as the "Repelicans" were running around doing this same thing because she wanted them to, all these demagogues would be jumping up, whooping and hollering, talking about how cold-hearted and mean the "Repelicans" are. But because it is their boss doing it, the