consequence to me. I don't know what crops are being harvested now and I was trying to get some information from my colleague to the right and he kind of...he kind of says things that make him laugh a lot, so that makes me think he may not really be telling me the way that it is. But one thing he said that I think might be true, that if I say we will stay here till the wheat harvest, then that does mean we are going to be here for a long time. I had thought about...

SENATOR CONWAY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...grapes, but those are being brought in now so that wouldn't keep us here very long, just to let you know the tenor and content of our discussions back here. But on some of these other bills we will have discussions, some will be substantive, others, not so much so, but variety is the spice of life outside the Legislature, it will be the spice of life within the Legislature. But I am hoping that this amendment will be adopted.

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. You have heard the closing. The question is the adoption of the Chambers amendment. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? There has been a request for a call of the house and a roll call vote. The question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SENATOR CONWAY: The house is under call. Will all members please return to the Chamber and record your presence, the house is under call. The house is under call, will all members please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Peterson, Senator Schrock, and Senator Schmit, please. Senator Landis, the house is under call. Senator Beutler, would you check in, please. Senator Schmit and Senator Landis, would you please return to the Chamber and check in. Senator Schmit, Senator Landis, we are still waiting for your check-in. While we are waiting, I would like to call the attention of the Chamber to Senator Paul Hartnett, who is celebrating his 29th birthday. His staff is serving chocolate cake underneath the south balcony which you may partake in following the vote. Would the body please recognize Senator Hartnett for having his birthday today. There is a request for reverse order.
