

September 29, 1992 LB 20

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But I am wondering if we can. Then...oh, I will ask him so it is on the record. And I would like a yes or no, and this is the initial question, are you adamantly opposed to this amendment?

SENATOR WESELY: I am not opposed to the amendment but I will not be voting for it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, now, why will you not vote for it?

SENATOR WESELY: Because at this point to do so will not stop any of the filibustering and the ongoing discussion that we are having, and so there is no point.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How do you know that?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, that seems to be the indication I have gotten.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, it seems...

SENATOR WESELY: Can you tell me otherwise?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It seems to be an indication, but you are not sure. Ask your partner there off the record, is he like you in his position?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Senator, I'd be happy to answer on the record, too. What was your question?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, now you are the introducer of this bill, are you adamantly opposed to this amendment?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yes, I am.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, under any and all circumstances?

SENATOR CONWAY: Time.

SENATOR LINDSAY: To this amendment, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right, thank you.

SENATOR CONWAY: Time is up. Senator Moore, you are next
