PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Mr. Speaker, I will recognize you for some announcements.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Madam President, and colleagues, I would just like to give you kind of a brief sketch of what we're or what the schedule is going to be. Tomorrow morning we will convene at nine, and then the hearings will begin at ten-thirty with the Revenue Committee, and I think the Appropriations Committee is going to have a hearing in the afternoon. Then on Saturday, we will convene at ten o'clock. It is going to be at ten o'clock because we need to...in case we have to do some printing of bills and stuff, so everything is available when we start debate. It is going to begin at ten Saturday morning, and then next week we will, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday we will be coming in, and Thursday, we are coming in at nine o'clock on those days. And, also I might add that we are having some of the bills printed right now. We will try to have at least 60 copies of the bills available by five o'clock today of all the bills that have been introduced, and then more copies will be available tomorrow morning.
