PRESIDENT MOUL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MOUL: (Microphone not activated) ...ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber. Our chaplain today is Chaplain Harland Johnson.

HARLAND JOHNSON: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Chaplain Johnson. I now call to order the third day of the Ninety-Second Legislature, Fourth Special Session. Record your presence.

CLERK: I have a quorum present, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Are there any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: I have no corrections, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The Journal is approved. Are there any messages, reports or announcements?

CLERK: Madam President, I have no messages, reports or announcements at this time.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Then we will proceed with Item 5 on the agenda, legislative resolutions.

CLERK: Madam President, LR 1 offered by Senators Crosby and Landis. (Read brief description of LR 1. See page 16 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Madam Chair, and members, it is a real...it is a personal privilege this morning to offer LR 1, and that pleases me that it is number 1 because, for me, E.J. Faulkner was a number one person. Just to begin with, E.J. Faulkner was a gentleman. He was a friend and he lived by the Golden Rule. He treated others as he would like to be treated, always the soul of courtesy with an intelligence that helped him build up Woodmen Accident, which is right across the street here from the Capitol and one of the strong economic forces in the State of Nebraska and in the City of Lincoln. So I have passed out to you an advertisement, a paid advertisement that was in
