

November 9, 1992 LB 1

today of Senator Lynch is his granddaughter, six-year old Katie Freeman. She is accompanied by her mom, Julia Freeman. Would you please rise and be recognized. Welcome to the Chamber. Thank you, and thank you, Katie, for the special drawing. Would Senators Ashford, Lynch, and Moore, please check in. Senator Chambers, Senator Conway, and Senator Rogers, Senator Hillman, Senator Rod Johnson, and Senator Labedz, please check in. We are looking for Senator Ashford and Chambers. Senator Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Who is missing, Madam President?

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Ashford and Senator Chambers.

SENATOR COORDSEN: I think we can go ahead with the vote.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Okay. We will proceed with roll call vote on the Coordsen amendment to LB 1.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 31-32 of the Legislative Journal.) 20 ayes, 18 nays, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The amendment fails. I will raise the call.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Schmit would move to amend the bill.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Madam President, I would like to defer to Senator Schrock. Are you going to try the amendment again, Senator Schrock? I will pull the amendment then as of now. I have the same amendment as does Senator Schrock, and if he wants to wait until Select File, that is fine with me. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The amendment is withdrawn.

CLERK: I have nothing further pending on the bill, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Madam President, I move to cease debate. We have had a lot of debate on this bill.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Do I see sufficient seconds. I do. We will
