

November 10, 1992 LB 1

for a little bit. It also has a huge impact, multimillion dollar payroll when it comes to agriculture in our area. So I don't know if you decided if that's urban or if that's rural, if it's big or if it's small. I will also tell you that on the international level with the trade agreements that are going on right now, Western Sugar is in an extremely precarious position not knowing where really their future is. This particular issue does not have...has not been something that I will tell you I've had the time to look at in how its impact is. I've been told it will. I would like to see it delayed. I would like to see the reconsideration pass. We do have time again in January if there's something we need to look at that perhaps we can do it again at that time. But, at this point, I sincerely feel there was not enough information, there's just confusion, and I would ask for the body to reconsider.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Hillman. We'll now vote on the motion to reconsider. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Hillman.

SENATOR HILLMAN: I would like a call of the house, please.

PRESIDENT MOUL: We have a request for a call of the house. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 22 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The house is under call. Would all unexcused senators please return to the Chamber and record their presence. All unauthorized personnel must leave the floor. Would the senators please check in. Senator Ashford, Senator Landis, Senator Moore, Senator Robinson, Senator Hartnett, Senator Wehrbein, Senator Rod Johnson, please check in. We're looking for Senator Rod Johnson. Please proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 43 of the Legislative Journal.) 22 ayes, 17 nays, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The motion fails. I will raise the call. Further amendments, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, the next amendment I have is by Senator Baack. (AM67S4 is found on pages 44-45 of the Legislative Journal.)
