the rule. If you don't, don't.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Robak.

SENATOR ROBAK: Thank you, Madam Speaker, and members of the body, I just would like...I know, I would like to ask Senator Chambers a question.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR ROBAK: Mostly for curiosity because I know that you're very sincere in this and this is...you feel very strongly about this situation.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR ROBAK: Have there been any other instances in your long tenure here in the Legislature similar to this?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, there was one and a lady who now works, I think, for the auditor, had pers...and I'm not going to try to remember all the details, had persuaded somebody to do something that would have benefited somebody and I took issue with it. And it was a bill that somehow Senator Schmit was involved in because I think he got irritated with me about it, but beyond that I can't give you all the specifics or details of it.

SENATOR ROBAK: But do you think this is unique then to the Legislature, this situation of which you are speaking?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm criticizing the executive branch, not the Legislature on this.

SENATOR ROBAK: No, I know you are, but, I mean, this is unique, you say, this situation that has come up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Let me say this. Senator Robak, I said what I said and I'm unable to respond to your question. I'm sorry.

SENATOR ROBAK: Then you don't think it's come up before except once, you said.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yeah, a similar situation that I know about
