cometh he to his disciples and sayeth unto them, sleep on now and take your rest. Behold the hour is at hand and the son of man is betrayed into the hand of sinners. Rise, let us be going. Behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came and with him a great multitude with swords and staves from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign saying, whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he. Hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus and said, hail master, and kissed him. Chapter 27, verses 1 through 7. When the morning was come all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. And when they had bound him, they led him away and delivered him to Pontius Pilate, the Governor, delivered him to the Governor. Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself and brought again the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, what is that to us? See thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple and departed and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, it is not lawful for to put them into the treasury because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel and bought with them the potters' field to bury strangers in. There was a betrayal into the hands of the Governor of the interests of the rural and agricultural sector, and the cost was a dollar.

PRESIDENT MOUL: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That money, that dollar will not come out of the treasury because it never went into the treasury. See, they don't have to worry about the price of blood and what they should do with it. But the value that was placed on Jesus was 30 pieces of silver. The value placed on the interests of the rural people one dollar. This bill is unworthy of passage, it should not pass. I am not going to withdraw my motion.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Dierks, followed by Senators Moore and Chambers. Senator Dierks.

SENATOR DIERKS: Thank you, Madam President and members of the body. My purpose this morning is to tell you that I am not supporting this legislation. Some of the reasons are when we put 1063 into effect and then reenacted it in a special session, we put a tremendous onus on the people in my district. I've had
