LEGISLATIVE BILL 137. Placed on Select File as amended.
E & R amendment to LB 137:
AM5500

1. Strike the original sections and all amendments thereto and insert the following new sections:

"Section 1. That section 25-224, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

25-224. (1) For purposes of this section, product liability action shall have the same meaning as in section 25-21,180.

(2) Except as provided otherwise by this section, ~~All~~ product liability actions~~, except one governed by subsection (5) of this section,~~ shall be commenced within four years next after the date on which the death, injury, or damage complained of occurs.

~~(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section or any other statutory provision to the contrary, any product liability action, except one governed by section 2-725, Uniform Commercial Code or by subsection (5) of this section, shall be commenced within~~ but not more than ten years after the date when the product which allegedly caused the personal injury, death, or damage was first sold or leased for use or consumption.

(3) In product liability actions that involve injury, death, or damage more than ten years after the date when the product which allegedly caused the personal injury, death, or damage was first sold or leased for use or consumption, a presumption shall arise that the harm was caused after the useful safe life of the product had expired. Useful safe life shall commence at the time of delivery of a product to its ultimate user who was not engaged in the business of either selling such products or using them as component parts of another product to be sold. The plaintiff may rebut this presumption by a preponderance of the evidence. If the plaintiff rebuts this presumption, the ten-year limitation provided in this section shall not apply. In determining whether a product's useful safe life has expired, the trier of fact may consider, among other factors:

(a) The amount of wear and tear to which the product had been subjected;

(b) The effect of deterioration from natural causes, climate, and other conditions under which the product was used or stored;

(c) The normal practices of the user, similar users, and the product manufacturer with respect to the circumstances, frequency, and purposes of the product's use and with respect to repairs, renewals, and replacements;

(d) Any representations, instructions, or warnings made by the product manufacturer concerning proper maintenance, storage, and use of the product or the expected useful safe life of the product; and

(e) Any modification or alteration of the product by a user or a third party.

~~(3) The limitations contained in subsection (1), (2), or (5) of this section shall not be applicable to indemnity or contribution actions brought by a manufacturer or seller of a product against a person who is or may be liable to such manufacturer or seller for all or any portion of any judgment rendered against a manufacturer or seller.~~

~~(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, any cause of action or claim which any person may have on July 22, 1978, may be brought not later than two years following such date.~~

(4) If a manufacturer, seller, or lessor of a product expressly warrants that its product can be utilized safely for a period longer than ten years, the period of limitation, after which the presumption created in subsection (3) of this section arises, shall be extended according to such warranty or promise.

(5) The ten-year limitation provided in this section shall not apply if the product liability action involves the manufacture, construction, design, or assembly of medical implants, prosthetics, appliances, or other devices surgically placed on or within the human body. The ten-year limitation provided in this section shall not apply if (a) the manufacturer of a product misrepresents facts about its product or fraudulently conceals information about it and such conduct was a proximate cause of the claimant's death, injury, or damage, (b) the harm was caused by prolonged exposure to a defective product, (c) the injury-causing aspect of the product that existed at the time of delivery was not discoverable by a reasonably prudent person until more than ten years after the time of delivery, or (d) the harm caused within ten years after the time of delivery did not manifest itself until after that time.

(6) In any product liability action covered by this section in which it is claimed by one or more of the defendants that the action is barred by the statute of limitations, the statute of repose, or the expiration of the useful safe life of the product, such issue shall not be bifurcated without the consent of all parties to the action.

~~(5)~~ (7) Any action to recover damages based on injury allegedly resulting from exposure to asbestos composed of chrysotile, amosite, crocidolite, tremolite, anthrophyllite, actinolite, or any combination thereof~~;~~ shall be commenced within four years after the injured person has been informed of discovery of the injury by competent medical authority and that such injury was caused by exposure to asbestos as described ~~herein;~~ in this subsection or within four years after the discovery of facts which would reasonably lead to such discovery, whichever is earlier. No action commenced under this subsection based on the doctrine of strict liability in tort shall be commenced or maintained against any seller of a product which is alleged to contain or possess a defective condition unreasonably dangerous to the buyer, user, or consumer unless such seller is also the manufacturer of such product or the manufacturer of the part thereof claimed to be defective. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to permit an action to be brought based on an injury described in this subsection discovered more than two years prior to August 30, 1981.

(8) The limitations contained in this section shall not be applicable to indemnity or contribution actions brought by a manufacturer or seller of a product against a person who is or may be liable to such manufacturer or seller for all or any portion of any judgment rendered against a manufacturer or seller. A product liability action governed by the Uniform Commercial Code shall follow the limitations in section 2-725, Uniform Commercial Code.

Sec. 2. If any section in this act or any part of any section shall be declared invalid or unconstitutional, such declaration shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of the remaining portions thereof.

Sec. 3. That original section 25-224, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, is repealed.".

Release of ~~judgments~~ a judgment for child support or spousal support or subordination of a lien of a judgment for child support or spousal support must be approved by the court which rendered the judgment unless all such payments are current, in which case a release or subordination document executed by the judgment creditor shall be sufficient to remove or subordinate the lien. A properly executed, notarized release or subordination document, explicitly reciting that all child support payments or spousal support payments are current, shall be prima facie evidence that such payments are in fact current. A copy of the application and a notice of hearing shall be served on the judgment creditor either personally or by registered or certified mail no less than ten days before the date of hearing. If the court finds that the release or subordination is not requested for the purpose of avoiding payment and that the release or subordination will not unduly reduce the security, the court may ~~release~~ issue an order releasing real or personal property from the judgment lien or issue an order subordinating the judgment lien. As a condition for such release or subordination, the court may require the posting of a bond with the clerk in an amount fixed by the court, guaranteeing payment of the judgment;

(5) The court may in any case, upon application or its own motion, after notice and hearing, order a person required to make payments to post sufficient security, bond, or other guarantee with the clerk to insure payment of both current and any delinquent amounts. "Sec. 55. That section 77-2716, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1992, be amended to read as follows:

77-2716. (1) The following adjustments to federal adjusted gross income or, for corporations and fiduciaries, federal taxable income shall be made for interest or dividends received:

(a) There shall be subtracted interest or dividends received by the owner of obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includable in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States;

(b) There shall be subtracted that portion of the total dividends and other income received from a regulated investment company which is attributable to obligations described in subdivision (a) of this subsection as reported to the recipient by the regulated investment company;

(c) There shall be added interest or dividends received by the owner of obligations of the District of Columbia, other states of the United States, or their political subdivisions, authorities, commissions, or instrumentalities to the extent excluded in the computation of gross income for federal income tax purposes except that such interest or dividends shall not be added if received by a corporation which is a regulated investment company;

(d) There shall be added that portion of the total dividends and other income received from a regulated investment company which is attributable to obligations described in subdivision (c) of this subsection and excluded for federal income tax purposes as reported to the recipient by the regulated investment company; and

(e)(i) Any amount subtracted under this subsection shall be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the obligations or securities described in this subsection or the investment in the regulated investment company and by any expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this subsection to the extent that such expenses, including amortizable bond premiums, are deductible in determining federal taxable income.

(ii) Any amount added under this subsection shall be reduced by any expenses incurred in the production of such income to the extent disallowed in the computation of federal taxable income.

(2) There shall be allowed a net operating loss derived from or connected with Nebraska sources computed under rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the Tax Commissioner consistent, to the extent possible under the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967, with the laws of the United States. For a resident individual, the net operating loss computed on the federal income tax return shall be adjusted by the modifications contained in this section. For a nonresident individual or partial-year resident individual, the net operating loss computed on the federal return shall be adjusted by the modifications contained in this section and any carryovers or carrybacks shall be limited to the portion of the loss derived from or connected with Nebraska sources.

(3) There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, the amount of any state income tax refund to the extent such refund was deducted under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, was not allowed in the computation of the tax due under the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967, and is included in federal adjusted gross income.

(4) Federal adjusted gross income shall be modified to exclude the portion of the income or loss received from a small business corporation with an election in effect under subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, that is not derived from or connected with Nebraska sources as determined in section 77-2734.01.

from corporations which are not subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(6) There shall be subtracted from federal taxable income a portion of the income earned by a corporation subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, that is actually taxed by a foreign country or one of its political subdivisions at a rate in excess of the maximum federal tax rate for corporations. The taxpayer may make the computation for each foreign country or for groups of foreign countries. The portion of the taxes that may be deducted shall be computed in the following manner:

(a) The amount of federal taxable income from operations within a foreign taxing jurisdiction shall be reduced by the amount of taxes actually paid to the foreign jurisdiction that are not deductible solely because the foreign tax credit was elected on the federal income tax return;

(b) The amount of after-tax income shall be divided by one minus the maximum tax rate for corporations in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; and

(c) The result of the calculation in subdivision (b) of this subsection shall be subtracted from the amount of federal taxable income used in subdivision (a) of this subsection. The result of such calculation, if greater than zero, shall be subtracted from federal taxable income.

(7) Federal adjusted gross income shall be modified to exclude any amount repaid by the taxpayer for which a reduction in federal tax is allowed under section 1341(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(8) Federal adjusted gross income shall be modified to exclude the amount received by an individual as a qualified federal governmental pension. This modification shall be limited to the maximum excludable social security benefits, reduced by the social security benefits, as defined in section 86(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and any amount of a qualified federal governmental pension which were excluded from gross income. (c) Maximum individual social security benefit shall mean the maximum total amount, as certified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, which could be paid for all months in the calendar year ending in the taxable year of old age insurance under sections 202(a) of the federal Social Security Act, without regard to any reduction, deduction, or offset under section 202(k) or section 203 of the act, to any individual who has attained sixty-five years of age and filed application for the benefit, on the first day of the calendar year; and

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 93037

DATE: May 6, 1993

SUBJECT: Constitutionality of One Provision of LB 757 and Amendment No. 1188 to LB 757 Relating to the Use of Independent Medical Examiners in Workers' Compensation Cases

REQUESTED BY: Senator Chris Abboud, Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Lisa D. Martin-Price, Assistant Attorney General

In your letter dated April 20, 1993, you ask our opinion concerning one provision of LB 757 and Amendment No. 1188 to LB 757 concerning the use of independent medical examiners in workers' compensation cases. Specifically, you question whether these two provisions violate Article I, § 13, of the Nebraska Constitution, which provides that, "{a}ll courts shall be open, and every person, for any injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have a remedy by due course of law, and justice administered without denial or delay."

In your first question, you cite to the following language found on page 48, commencing with line 9, of LB 757: "No petition may be filed with the compensation court regarding the issue of reasonableness and necessity of medical treatment unless a medical finding on such issue has been rendered by an independent medical examiner." You ask whether this requirement violates an injured employee's right to access the courts in violation of Article I, § 13, of the Nebraska Constitution. It is our opinion that this provision does not violate Article I, § 13, as long as it simply requires the independent medical examiner to issue an opinion before a petition may be filed in the Workers' Compensation Court, without regard to what the opinion says.

In this regard, we must note that the provision quoted by you for our analysis is somewhat ambiguous. That is, it can be read to require an opinion by an independent medical examiner that the medical treatment is reasonable and necessary prior to a petition being filed, or it can be read to simply require that an independent medical examiner issue an opinion regarding the reasonableness and necessity of medical treatment, but not necessarily requiring the independent medical examiner's opinion to be that medical treatment is reasonable and necessary as a result of the injury. As long as the intention of the Legislature is that the latter interpretation govern, it is our opinion that this provision does not violate Article I, § 13, of the Nebraska Constitution.

Our opinion is based upon the holding of the Nebraska Supreme Court in Prendergast v. Nelson, 199 Neb. 97, 256 N.W.2d 657 (1977). There, a declaratory judgment action was filed seeking a determination of the constitutionality of the Nebraska Hospital-Medical Liability Act. The defendant contended that the provisions of the Act creating a medical review panel were void because they were unconstitutional. The section of the Act in question, Neb. Rev. Stat. § 44-2840(2) (1976), provides, "{n}o action against a health care provider may be commenced in any court of this state before the claimant's proposed petition has been presented to a medical review panel established pursuant to section 44-2841 and an opinion has been rendered by the panel." As codified, the panel has the duty to express its opinion to the parties as to whether or not the evidence supports the conclusion that the defendant(s) acted or failed to act within the appropriate standards of care, as well as to the issue of damages proximately caused by the failure to act in accordance with such standards. The court noted that the report, or any minority report, of the panel would be admissible as evidence in any action subsequently filed in a court of law by the claimant, but that the report would not be conclusive, in that either party would have the right to call any member of the medical review panel as a witness.

In determining that this statutory requirement did not violate Article I, § 13, of the Constitution of Nebraska, the court stated:

> Article I, section 13, of the Constitution is merely a declaration of a general fundamental principle. It is the primary duty of the courts to safeguard this declaration of rights and remedies. However, it does not in any way imply that the Legislature is without power to impose a special procedure before resort to the courts. Claimants are not denied access to the courts. Those who do not elect otherwise are merely required to follow a certain procedure before submitting their claims to the courts.

Id. at 103.

The court noted that simply requiring the claimant to submit his claim to a medical review panel which renders a finding did not preclude a claimant's access to the courts for a final determination. The court stated:

> The act provides, at the expense of a slight delay in filing the suit in court, a procedure for review to determine from the evidence submitted if there is a basis for the claim. If the panel determines there is a basis for the claim, the claimant obviously is benefited. If it determines there is no basis for it, the claimant is informed of what others think of the merits of his claim. If he disagrees, he still has access to the courts for a vindication of what he thinks his rights may be.

Id. at 106.

With regard to the provision in LB 757 requiring an opinion of an independent medical examiner concerning the reasonableness and necessity of medical treatment, as long as it is not intended that a claimant cannot file a petition with the Workers' Compensation Court unless he has an opinion from an independent medical examiner that medical treatment for the work related injury is reasonable and necessary, it does not violate Article I, § 13, of the Nebraska Constitution.

Next, you ask whether a provision in Amendment No. 1188 to LB 757 is violative of Article I, § 13, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska. The particular provision you question contains the following language:

> (6) If the parties agree to use of a medical examiner, the examiner's findings shall be binding. If the compensation court assigns an independent medical examiner, it shall be a rebuttable presumption that the examiner's findings are correct.

You question whether this provision limits the fact finding role of the court through binding determinations by an examiner. This provision is analogous to agreements providing for binding arbitration. It is our opinion that that portion of subsection (6) of Amendment No. 1188 to LB 757 providing that the independent medical examiner's findings shall be binding if the parties agree to the use of a medical examiner, is not violative of Article I, § 13, of the Nebraska Constitution as long as a dispute has arisen between the parties prior to the parties agreeing to the use of a medical examiner.

For more than a century, the Nebraska Supreme Court has consistently and repeatedly held that agreements to arbitrate entered into before a dispute has arisen are unconstitutional, contrary to public policy, and unenforceable. See, e.g., City of Lincoln v. Soukup, 215 Neb. 732, 736, 340 N.W.2d 420 (1983). This rule was reiterated as recently as December, 1991, in State of Nebraska v. Nebraska Association of Public Employees, 239 Neb. 653, 658, 477 N.W.2d 577 (1991). In Overland Constructors v. Millard School District, 220 Neb. 220, 224-225, 369 N.W.2d 69 (1985), the court analyzed and discussed the rule in some detail.

> We turn to the next question, whether the parties are bound by the determination made by the architect pursuant to an arbitration clause contained in the contract documents. We believe that under the circumstances in this case the parties are not bound. While this court is supportive of parties resolving their differences through arbitration, if possible, we have consistently held that an arbitration agreement entered into before a dispute arises, denying to the parties their right to seek the assistance of the courts, is contrary to public policy and is not enforceable. In a long line of cases beginning with German-American Ins. Co. v. Etherton, 25 Neb. 505, 41 N.W. 406 (1889), and continuing through City of Lincoln v. Soukup, 215 Neb. 732, 340 N.W.2d 420 (1983), we have consistently held that a contract to compel parties to arbitrate future disputes and, thus, to oust the courts of jurisdiction to settle such disputes is against public policy and is void. See, also, National Masonic Accident Association v. Burr, 44 Neb. 256, 62 N.W. 466 (1895) Schrandt v. Young, 62 Neb. 254, 86 N.W. 1085 (1901) Phoenix Ins. Co. v. Zlotky, 66 Neb. 584, 92 N.W. 736 (1902) Wilson & Co., Inc. v. Fremont Cake & Meal Co., 153 Neb. 160, 43 N.W.2d 657 (1950); Heisner v. Jones, 184 Neb. 602, 169 N.W.2d 606 (1969). The School District directs our attention to the cases of Simpson v. Simpson, 194 Neb. 453, 232 N.W.2d 132 (1975), and Knigge v. Knigge, 204 Neb. 421, 282 N.W.2d 581 (1979), in support of its contention that arbitration clauses are enforceable. It neglects, however, to note the significant distinction in both Simpson and Knigge. In each of those cases a dispute had already arisen and the parties agreed to submit their known dispute to arbitration. In such cases we do enforce the decision growing out of the arbitration proceeding. The distinction is whether the agreement to submit to arbitration is entered into before the dispute arises and before the parties know the nature and extent of their dispute or whether it is entered into after the dispute has arisen and at a time when the parties are aware of the nature of the dispute and have agreed to a method of resolving that dispute. In the instant case the agreement to arbitrate was entered into before the dispute arose and is therefore unenforceable. (Emphasis in original.)

From this, it is apparent that it is not violative of Article I, § 13 of the Nebraska Constitution for the parties to agree to the use of a medical examiner, and for the examiner's findings to be binding, as long as the parties agree to the use of a medical examiner after a dispute has arisen concerning an injured worker's right to workers' compensation benefits. While it is not clear from the language of subsection 6 of Amendment 1188 that this provision only comes into effect after a dispute has arisen, if one turns to subsection 3 of Amendment 1188, it appears that the amendment does envision that the use of an independent medical examiner provided for in subsection 6 will only come into play after a dispute has arisen. In this regard, subsection 3 of Amendment 1188 provides in pertinent part: "If the parties to a dispute cannot agree on an independent medical examiner of their own choosing, the compensation court shall assign an independent medical examiner from the list of qualified examiners to render medical findings in any dispute relating to the medical condition of a claimant . . . ." Assuming that this is the interpretation intended by the Legislature, it is our opinion that subsection 6 of Amendment No. 1188 does not violate Article I, § 13 of the Nebraska Constitution.

Sincerely,
DON STENBERG
Attorney General

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 109. Introduced by Haberman, 44.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the advantages and disadvantages of biennial legislative sessions. Issues shall include, but not be limited to, savings in time, money, and volume of legislation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 110. Introduced by General Affairs Committee: Schellpeper, 18, Chairperson; Cudaback, 36; Elmer, 38; Haberman, 44; Hartnett, 45; Hudkins, 21; Robinson, 16; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: The Nebraska Supreme Court ruled in Kwik Shop v. City of Lincoln, 243 Neb. 178,___N.W.___, 1993, on April 9, 1993, that Laws 1989, LB 781, which provided for local control of retail liquor sales, was unconstitutionally vague. The Nebraska Attorney General has subsequently provided an opinion to the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission that LB 183, passed by the Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993, is also unconstitutional, based on the reasoning of the Kwik Shop case. This has resulted in confusion regarding which laws are currently in effect concerning the regulation of retail liquor sales.

This study shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. Examination of court rulings concerning regulation of retail liquor sales;

2. Examination of other states' laws concerning retail liquor sales;

3. Examination of basic policy issues concerning regulation of retail liquor sales;

4. Examination of issues concerning local control of retail liquor sales;

5. Consideration of the appropriate roles of local communities and the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission in regulation of retail liquor sales; and

6. Any other matters necessary or appropriate to a full examination of these issues.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the General Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the General Affairs Committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 111. Introduced by Kristensen, 37; Schimek, 27.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this study is to examine the need to create the position of legal counsel to the Legislature and, if created, the scope of such position. This study shall include a review of both federal and state legislative bodies to determine who represents legislative interests in litigation and the scope of that representation, who advises legislative bodies on institutional policies and procedures, who provides technical assistance regarding legislation, and what other duties and responsibilities are assigned to the position of legal counsel to the Legislature. This study shall also examine the authority and basis under which positions equivalent to that of legal counsel are employed in other jurisdictions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 112. Introduced by Kristensen, 37.

PURPOSE:

The Nebraska Business Corporation Act has not been comprehensively reviewed since 1981. Historically, the act has been reviewed and revised in accordance with the Model Business Corporation Act as drafted by the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association. Since 1981, the model has undergone significant changes which should be examined to determine their appropriateness to Nebraska law and business climate. Among the substantive areas which should be examined are statutes relating to interested director transactions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 113. Introduced by Kristensen, 37.

PURPOSE: To study the feasibility of enhancing Nebraska's vital statistics statutes as such statutes relate to completion and amendment of live, adoptive, and delayed birth certificates, death certificates, and fetal death certificates through the adoption of the National Vital Statistics Act and Model Law. To study in depth those portions of the act which reflect paternity on the live, adoptive, delayed, and legitimated birth certificates.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the Health and Human Services Committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 114. Introduced by Kristensen, 37.

PURPOSE:

Eleven states currently permit their highest court to issue advisory opinions on questions of law including pending legislation. The purpose of this study is to examine these states to determine, among other things, the authority under which advisory opinions are issued, the types of authorized questions, the procedures established to request such opinions, the volume of opinions, and the subject matter of such opinions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 116. Introduced by Crosby, 29.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to examine the state's current practice and policies for printing materials through the Department of Administrative Services print shop. The study shall include: (a) an examination of alternative printing options including contracting with the private sector for printing needs; and (b) a determination of policies which would be most cost-effective, have high quality print, and foster timely production of printed materials.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 117. Introduced by Dierks, 40; Bernard-Stevens, 42; Schellpeper, 18; Hohenstein, 17; Day, 19; Robak, 22; Baack, 47; Bohlke, 33.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine problems involving child abuse and services for children and families at risk of abuse and neglect which are unique to rural Nebraska. The study shall examine issues and recommendations arising from the series of community meetings hosted by members of the Rural Children's Caucus and the Foster Care Review Board, particularly with regard to:

(a) Improving the reporting, investigation, and prosecution of child abuse cases in rural areas;

(b) Development and funding of services for abused children and at risk children and families tailored to the unique circumstances of rural Nebraska; and

(c) Lack of placement for foster children in rural areas.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 118. Introduced by Dierks, 40; Elmer, 38; Schellpeper, 18.

PURPOSE: With the passage of Legislative Bill 588, Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993, Nebraska has assumed responsibility for pesticide regulation. However, the issue of requiring liability insurance and the filing of bonds by chemical applicators was removed from the bill pending further study. Legislative Bill 560, Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993, which specifically addressed aerial applicators, is being held by the Agriculture Committee pending further study. Therefore, the purpose of this resolution is to:

Conduct an interim study to examine the issue of liability insurance and bonding for chemical applicators including the cost and availability of insurance and the breadth of coverage available.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Agriculture Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 119. Introduced by Dierks, 40; Jones, 43; Schellpeper, 18; Hohenstein, 17.

PURPOSE: Because some poultry producers are not fully served by the federal poultry inspection program and have expressed an interest in establishing a state poultry inspection program, the purpose of this resolution is to:

a. Conduct an interim study of the need for a state poultry inspection program; and

b. Determine the advantages of establishing a state inspection program and explore possible sources of program funding.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Agriculture Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

(2) Each future member shall contribute monthly six percent of his or her monthly compensation to the fund. ~~until~~

~~the maximum benefit as limited in subsection (2) of section 24-710 has been earned. Any time the maximum benefit is changed, a future member who has previously earned the maximum benefit as it existed prior to the change shall contribute monthly six percent of his or her monthly compensation to the fund until the maximum benefit as changed and as limited in subsection (2) of section 24-710 has been earned.~~ It shall be the duty of the Director of Administrative Services to make a deduction of six percent on the monthly payroll of each such future member who is a judge of the Supreme Court, a judge of the Court of Appeals, a judge of the district court, a judge of a separate juvenile court, a judge of the county court, a clerk magistrate of the county court who was an associate county judge and a member of the fund at the time of his or her appointment as a clerk magistrate, or a judge of the Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court showing the amount to be deducted and its credit to the fund. This shall be done each month. The Director of Administrative Services and the State Treasurer shall credit the six percent as shown on the payroll ~~and the amounts received from the various counties to the fund~~ and remit the same to the director in charge of the judges retirement system who shall keep an accurate record of the contributions of each judge.

(3) The State Treasurer shall transfer from the General Fund each month an amount equal to the total member contributions for the month and credit such amount to the fund. ~~A Nebraska Retirement Fund for Judges fee of one dollar shall be taxed as costs in each civil cause of action, criminal cause of action, traffic misdemeanor or infraction, and city or village ordinance violation filed in the district courts and the county courts. In county courts a sum shall be charged which is equal to ten percent of each fee provided by sections 33-125, 33-126.02, 33-126.03, and 33-126.06. No judges retirement fee shall be charged for filing a report pursuant to sections 33-126.02 and 33-126.06. When collected by the clerk of the district or county court, such fees shall be paid to the director in charge of the judges retirement system on forms prescribed by the board by the clerk within ten days after the close of each calendar quarter. Such director shall promptly thereafter remit the same to the state treasury. Upon the receipt thereof, the State Treasurer shall credit the same to the fund. No Nebraska Retirement Fund for Judges fee which is uncollectible for any reason shall be waived by a county judge as provided in section 29-2709.~~

(4) All expenditures from the fund shall be authorized by voucher in the manner prescribed in section 24-713. The fund shall be used for the payment of all annuities and other benefits and for the expenses of administration.

(5) The fund shall consist of the total fund as of December 25, 1969, the contributions of members and state matching contributions as provided in this section~~, all supplementary court fees as provided in subsection (3) of this section,~~ and any other required contributions of the state.

(6) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State Treasurer shall transfer to the fund the amount certified by the board as being necessary to pay the cost of any benefits accrued during the fiscal year ending the previous June 30 in excess of member and state matching contributions for that fiscal year and ~~court fees as provided in subsection (3) of this section, if any, for that fiscal year plus~~ any required contributions of the state as provided in subsection (9) of this section.

(7) Benefits under the retirement system to members or to their beneficiaries shall be paid from the fund.

(8) Any member who is making contributions to the fund on December 25, 1969, may, on or before June 30, 1970, elect to become a future member by delivering written notice of such election to the board.

(9) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State Treasurer shall transfer to the fund an amount, determined on the basis of an actuarial valuation as of the previous June 30 and certified by the board, to fully fund the unfunded accrued liabilities of the retirement system as of June 30, 1988, by level payments up to January 1, 2000. Such valuation shall be on the basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved by the board, and kept on file with the board. Any change in the unfunded accrued liabilities due to benefit or assumption changes shall be fully funded over the average expected future service of the active members of the retirement system or by the first day of the twenty-sixth calendar year after the date of the actuarial valuation which first recognized these changes, whichever occurs first. The change in the unfunded accrued liabilities shall be funded by level annual payments which shall be made over the lesser of twenty-five years or the average expected future service of the active members of the retirement system. If the unfunded accrued liability for the retirement system, determined under the entry age actuarial cost method, is zero or less than zero on any actuarial valuation date, then all prior unfunded accrued liability amounts shall be considered fully funded. Effective July 1, 1988, actuarial gains and losses shall be amortized over the expected future service of the active members as part of the annual normal cost.

(10) The state or county shall pick up the member contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on or after January 1, 1985, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code, except that the state or county shall continue to withhold federal income taxes based upon these contributions until the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that, pursuant to section 414(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, these contributions shall not be included as gross income of the member until such time as they are distributed or made available. The state or county shall pay these member contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the member. The state or county shall pick up these contributions by a compensation deduction either through a reduction in the compensation of the member or a combination of a reduction in compensation and offset against a future compensation increase. Member contributions picked up shall be treated for all purposes of sections 24-701 to 24-714 and section 5 of this act in the same manner and to the extent as member contributions made prior to the date picked up.

Sec. 5. For any future member who joins the retirement system established under sections 24-701 to 24-714 and section 5 of this act on or after the operative date of this section who prior to becoming eligible to retire separates from state service as a judge for reasons other than death or disability and has completed less than five years of service shall receive his or her payments which have been made by compensation deductions into the fund plus regular interest earned but shall not be entitled to a retirement annuity as established in section 24-710.

Sec. 7. That original section 24-703, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1992, is repealed.".

2. On page 2, line 22, strike "This" and insert "Sections 1 to 3 of this" and after the period insert "Sections 4, 5, and 7 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1994. The other sections of this act shall become operative on their effective date.".

1. Insert the following new sections:
"Section 1. That section 13-504, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:
13-504. (1) Each governing body shall prepare in writing and file with its secretary or clerk, in the year of its organization and each year thereafter, not later than the first day of August of each year on forms prescribed and furnished by the auditor following consultation with representatives of such governing bodies or as otherwise authorized by state law, a proposed budget statement containing the following information, except as provided by state law:

(a) For the immediate two prior fiscal years, the revenue from all sources, other than revenue received from taxation, allocated to each of the several funds and separately stated as to each such source, and for each fund: The unencumbered cash balance of such fund at the beginning and end of the year; the amount received by taxation allocated to each fund; and the amount of actual expenditure for each fund;

(b) For the current fiscal year, actual and estimated revenue from all sources, allocated to each of the several funds and separately stated as to each such source, and for each fund: The actual unencumbered cash balance available for such fund at the beginning of the year; the amount received from taxation allocated to each fund; and the amount of actual and estimated expenditure, whichever is applicable. Such statement shall contain the cash reserve for each such fund for each fiscal year and shall note whether or not such reserve is encumbered. Such cash reserve projections shall be based upon the actual experience of prior years. The cash reserve shall not exceed fifty percent of the total budget adopted for such fund exclusive of capital outlay items;

(c) For the immediately ensuing fiscal year, an estimate of revenue from all sources, other than revenue to be received from taxation, separately stated as to each such source, to be allocated to each of the several funds, and for each fund: The ~~the~~ actual or estimated unencumbered cash balances, whichever is applicable, to be available at the beginning of the year; the ; amounts proposed to be expended during the year; and ~~plus~~ the amount of cash reserve, based on actual experience of prior years, which cash reserve shall not exceed fifty percent of the total budget adopted exclusive of capital outlay items; and

(d) A uniform summary of the proposed budget statement which shall include a separate total for each fund and a grand total of all funds maintained by the governing body.

(2) Any governing body required by a final order of a court, the State Board of Equalization, or the Tax Commissioner from which no appeal is taken to reimburse property taxes to a taxpayer may make and deliver to the county clerk of the county in which any part of the political subdivision is situated, not later than August 25, an itemized estimate of the amount necessary to be expended to reimburse the property taxes. The taxes shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes are collected and, when collected, shall be paid to the treasurer of the political subdivision and used to cover the reimbursement of the property taxes.

Any governing body which submits an itemized estimate shall establish a property tax reimbursement fund. Taxes collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to such fund to cover the reimbursement of the property taxes.

The authority conferred by this section shall apply only to reimbursements made during fiscal years 1993-94 through 1999-2000.

The amount to be raised from taxation, as determined above, plus the estimated revenue from sources other than taxation and the unencumbered balances shall equal the estimated expenditures, plus the necessary required cash reserve, for the ensuing year.

Sec. 3. That section 13-506, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

13-506. Each governing body, after the filing of the proposed budget statement with its secretary or clerk, shall each year conduct a public hearing on such proposed budget statement and the itemized estimate for reimbursement of property taxes pursuant to subsection (2) of section 13-504. (2) A district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the state board that a new program is required by state or federal law or an existing program mandated by state or federal law has been expanded as a result of changes in state or federal law. For purposes of this subsection, a final order of a court, the State Board of Equalization, or the Tax Commissioner from which no appeal is taken which requires reimbursement by a district of property taxes to a taxpayer shall be considered a new program required by state or federal law but shall not be included as part of the general fund budget of expenditures for purposes of section 79-3814.

(3) The district projects an increase in formula students in the district over the current school year greater than twenty-five students or greater than those listed in the schedule provided in this subsection, whichever is less. Districts shall project increases in formula students on forms prescribed by the department. The state board shall approve, deny, or modify the projected increases.

students in the current school year and multiplied by the district's applicable allowable growth rate. The resulting allowable budget per pupil shall be multiplied by the projected formula students to arrive at the estimated budget needs for the ensuing year. The department shall allow the district to increase its general fund budget of expenditures for the ensuing school year by the amount necessary to fund the estimated budget needs of the district as computed pursuant to this subsection. On or before July 1 of each year, the department shall make needed revisions in the applicable allowable growth rate of districts which have been allowed additional growth pursuant to this subsection to reflect the actual formula students of such district and shall certify such revisions to each district.

(4) Construction, expansion, or alteration of district buildings will cause an increase in building operation and maintenance costs of at least five percent. The department shall document the projected increase in building operation and maintenance costs and may allow a district to exceed its applicable allowable growth percentage by the amount necessary to fund such increased costs. The department shall compute the actual increased costs for the school year and shall, if needed, modify the district's applicable allowable growth rate for the ensuing school year.

(5) A district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the state board that as a result of an order entered into by the Commission of Industrial Relations pursuant to section 48-818 establishing rates of pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment, the district will exceed its applicable allowable growth rate. The department shall compute the amount by which the increase in employee costs exceeds the district's applicable allowable growth rate and shall allow the district to increase its general fund budget of expenditures by such amount.

(6) A district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the state board that it will exceed its applicable allowable growth rate as a result of a contested, but settled, contract dispute, claim, or breach or uninsured risk or as a result of any final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction, requiring or obligating the district to pay such judgment. The department shall compute the amount by which the increased cost of the settlement or judgment exceeds the district's applicable allowable growth rate and shall allow the district to increase its general fund budget of expenditures by such amount.".

(3) One-sixth shall be credited to the Drinking Water Source Quality Fund. All deficiencies of the tax imposed by this section shall accrue interest and be subject to a penalty as provided for sales and use taxes in the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967.

Sec. 12. That section 32-1610, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1992, be amended to read as follows:

32-1610. The Campaign Finance Limitation Cash Fund is hereby created. The fund shall be used by the commission to provide public financing of campaigns pursuant to the Campaign Finance Limitation Act, except that transfers may be made to the General Fund at the direction of the Legislature. The fund shall consist of money appropriated to it by the Legislature, amounts appropriated to it pursuant to section 9-648, and amounts repaid by candidates pursuant to sections 32-1606 and 32-1607. Any money in the fund available for investment shall be invested by the state investment officer pursuant to sections 72-1237 to 72-1276.

Sec. 19. Sections 19 to 23 of this act shall be known and may be cited as the Drinking Water Source Quality Act.

Sec. 20. (1) The Legislature finds that:

(a) Safe drinking water sources are precious resources, the maintenance, protection, and conservation of which are essential to the well-being of the State of Nebraska and its citizens both now and in the future;

(b) The quality of water delivered by Nebraska public water suppliers is highly regulated with mandatory expensive testing on regular schedules for dangerous contaminants; and

(c) The high expense of adequate and meaningful water testing places a heavy burden on the water consumer.

Sec. 21. For purposes of the Drinking Water Source Quality Act:

(1) Drinking water source shall mean ground water which occurs in or moves, filters, or percolates through ground under the surface of the land and surface water which occurs in rivers, streams, and lakes from which it can be taken and treated for consumption;

(2) The approved principal laboratory shall mean the drinking water testing facility certified as meeting the standards and capabilities required by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Program;

(3) Safe drinking water shall mean water for human consumption which meets the standards set forth by the Nebraska Safe Drinking Water Act and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder; and

(4) Drinking water test shall mean prescribed controlled scientific procedures performed by the approved principal laboratory to determine the presence and relative concentration of specified contaminants in water samples submitted by public water suppliers.

Sec. 22. There is hereby created the Drinking Water Source Quality Fund. The fund shall consist of all fees credited to the fund pursuant to the Drinking Water Source Quality Act, any additional money appropriated to the fund by the Legislature, and any gifts, bequests, or other contributions received for credit to the fund. Any money in the fund available for investment shall be invested by the state investment officer pursuant to sections 72-1237 to 72-1276.

Sec. 23. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the Drinking Water Source Quality Fund shall be made available to the Department of Health for the administration of the Nebraska Safe Drinking Water Act. The money shall be used to subsidize the cost of drinking water tests which are required by the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder which are performed by the approved principal laboratory. The purpose of such subsidizing is to provide such tests for modest fees to public water suppliers. If the funds available are not sufficient to so subsidize all drinking water testing, then the subsidy shall apply first to the most costly tests, especially the tests for synthetic organic compounds followed in descending order of cost by the other tests. The results of all drinking water testing shall be tabulated by the testing agency as a water source quality data base indexed by geographical location, contaminants found, and other attributes as may be expedient and desirable with such information to be available to other agencies, organizations, and individuals to whom the information may be helpful for information, education, research, and planning.

(2) Commencing two years after January 1, 1994, money from the fund shall not be made available for use under this section unless the department has prepared and submitted to the Natural Resources Committee of the Legislature written annual reports which outline the actual and planned uses or obligations of money from the fund during both the immediately preceding fiscal year and the forthcoming fiscal year and evaluate the success of efforts undertaken by use of the money.".

RESOLUTION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 128. Introduced by Hillman, 48; Moore, 24.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to examine and review the sources, methods, and levels of funding of remedial-developmental-foundations education at the public postsecondary education level in Nebraska, with particular emphasis on the state's community college system. Costs of remedial-developmental-foundations education may be addressed along with potential areas for cost and funding reductions particularly where there is a duplication of services between the state's primary and secondary education systems and the public postsecondary education systems. The examination and review shall also include a similar analysis related to the sources, methods, and levels of funding and the costs of remedial-developmental-foundations education in correctional services settings.

The study shall include:

a. A review and analysis of the sources, methods, and levels of funding of the various forms, courses, and programs of remedial-developmental-foundations education at the public postsecondary education level in Nebraska. The review and analysis shall be made at the campus level and may include all funding sources but shall specifically highlight state and local funding sources;

b. A review and analysis of how the sources, methods, and levels of funding and other factors act as incentives or disincentives in promoting a reduction in the amount of remedial-developmental-foundations education which is necessary in public postsecondary education in the state. The review and analysis may also address incentives or disincentives to increase articulation between the state's primary and secondary education systems and the public postsecondary education systems in the state which may reduce costs and funding levels along with increasing quality;

c. A review and analysis may be undertaken of the total cost and cost per student of remedial-developmental-foundations education along with the potential areas of cost reduction where funding may be duplicative between the state's primary and secondary education systems and the public postsecondary education systems;

d. A review and analysis of any related areas as deemed appropriate; and

e. A set of specific recommendations regarding any necessary changes in legislation, funding formulas, budgeting methods, appropriations methods, or any other policy areas as may be appropriate in order to further the attainment of a more cost-effective framework for remedial-developmental-foundations education in the state.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Appropriations and the Education Committees of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study, in cooperation with such representatives of the Governor as he chooses to designate, to carry out the purposes of this resolution. The committees shall solicit the input of the Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education and such other interested state agencies, political subdivisions, persons, and groups as they deem necessary and beneficial to carry out the purposes of this resolution. Financial budget, funding, cost, and enrollment information concerning remedial-developmental-foundations education and such other information as deemed necessary by the committees shall be supplied to the committees as requested from the State Department of Education, primary and secondary education institutions, public postsecondary education institutions, state agencies, and political subdivisions in the state.

2. That the committees shall upon the conclusion of the study make a report of their findings, together with their recommendations, to the Legislative Council or the Legislature and the Governor.

Referred to the Executive Board.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 93038

DATE: May 14, 1993

SUBJECT: LB 564; Can fees for retrieval of driver's licenses impounded after conviction of certain traffic infractions constitutionally be placed in a Youth Alcohol Prevention Education Cash Fund?

REQUESTED BY: Senator Connie J. Day
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Dale A. Comer, Assistant Attorney General

You have introduced amendments to LB 564 which would amend that legislation so as to require the impoundment of the motor vehicle operator's licenses of those persons under 21 years of age who are found to have operated a motor vehicle with a percentage of .02 per cent or more of alcohol in their bloodstream. The impoundment would be for a period of thirty days, and would be imposed by a court after the person involved had been found guilty of a traffic infraction based upon driving with the prohibited percentages of alcohol present. After impoundment for thirty days, the offender could retrieve his or her driver's license from the court upon payment of a fee of $50 to the Clerk of the County Court.

Your amendments to LB 564 also propose the creation of the Youth Alcohol Prevention Education Cash Fund, a fund to be administered by the Division on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse of the Department of Public Institutions, and used for regional alcohol education grant programs. The $50 fee paid by offenders for retrieval of their driver's licenses after impoundment would be placed in the Youth Alcohol Prevention Education Cash Fund. In that regard, you have now asked, "{w}ill the deposit of these reinstatement fees {for reinstatement of motor vehicle operator's licenses} to the {Youth Alcohol Prevention Education} cash fund violate Constitutional provisions?" For the reasons stated below, we believe that there are constitutional problems with the amendments you have proposed.

At the outset, we must point out, as we have done previously, that a question on the general constitutionality of a legislative bill will necessarily result in a general response from this office. See Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89028 (April 4, 1989); Op. Att'y Gen. No. 85177 (December 20, 1985). If we are to address specific questions or concerns with a bill, they must be set out in the opinion request. Otherwise, we can only offer our overall observations on the legislation. You have asked for our opinion as to whether your amendments to LB 564 "violate Constitutional provisions" with no indication as to what specific state or federal constitutional provisions you believe might be at issue. We must, therefore, offer a general response to your question in the absence of any description of your specific concerns.

Your proposed amendments to LB 564 would require that a "fee" generated as a part of a criminal prosecution be placed in a fund for youth alcohol prevention education. This situation raises obvious questions under Article VII Section 5 of the Nebraska Constitution which requires that fines, penalties and license monies arising under the general laws of the State must be appropriated exclusively for the use and support of the common schools. Our analysis of the applicable law in this area indicates that there is a problem with your proposal under that constitutional provision.

Article VII, Section 5 of the Nebraska Constitution provides, as is pertinent here:

> Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, all fines, penalties, and license money arising under the general laws of the state, . . . shall belong and be paid over to the counties respectively where the same may be levied or imposed, and all fines, penalties, and license money arising under the rules, bylaws, or ordinances of cities, villages, precincts, or other municipal subdivision less than a county shall belong and be paid over to the same respectively. All such fines, penalties, and license money shall be appropriated exclusively to the use and support of the common schools in the respective subdivisions where the same may accrue, . . .

Several decisions by the Nebraska Supreme Court have set out rules for the application of Article VII, Section 5. This constitutional provision is self-executing, and punitive assessments such as fines and penalties under penal statutes together with license monies must be used for the schools. School District of the City of Omaha v. Adams, 147 Neb. 1060, 26 N.W.2d 24 (1947). On the other hand, compensatory damages or assessments under remedial statutes are not subject to Article VII, Section 5. Id. If money exacted is punitive in character, and not remedial or compensatory, that money is a penalty within the meaning of Article VII, Section 5. School District of McCook v. City of McCook, 163 Neb. 817, 81 N.W.2d 224 (1957). A penal statute is prosecuted for the purpose of punishment, and to also deter others from offending in the same way, while a remedial statute is for the purpose of adjusting the rights of the parties involved as between themselves with respect to the wrong alleged. School District of the City of Omaha v. Adams, supra. It is also clear that court costs which are legitimately compensatory are not penalties within Article VII, Section 5. DeCamp v. City of Lincoln, 202 Neb. 727, 277 N.W.2d 83 (1979). In addition, liquidated damages in favor of a private person, although in the form of a penalty, are not violative of Article VII, Section 5 if the amount provided bears a reasonable relation to the actual damages which might be sustained and which damages are not susceptible to measurement by ordinary pecuniary standards. Abel v. Conover, 170 Neb. 926, 104 N.W.2d 684 (1960).

The factual settings of various Nebraska cases also offer additional guidance as to the application of Article VII, Section 5. For example, in the Adams case cited above, an amount was collected from the estate of certain deceased persons as a statutory penalty for failure to list particular property for taxation. The Court held that the penalty in question did not fall under Article VII, Section 5, because it was remedial and compensatory to the taxing bodies involved. This was true even though the penalty was punitive as to the wrongdoer. In DeCamp v. City of Lincoln, supra, the Court held that court costs collected for parking violations were not fines or penalties under Article VII, Section 5 because the costs were collected by an administrative arm of the municipal court, because the costs were uniform throughout the entire range of offenses, and because the costs actually appeared to be compensatory.

This office has also issued previous opinions dealing with the application of Article VII, Section 5. Most recently, in Op. Att'y Gen. No. 93018 (March 19, 1993), we indicated that a surcharge to be assessed against all convicted criminal defendants could constitutionally be placed into the Victims' Compensation Fund and into the Crime Victim and Witness Assistance Fund. We concluded that the surcharge payments could be characterized as liquidated damages which were compensatory to the victims of uncompensated injury by criminals. In Op. Att'y Gen. No. 21 (February 10, 1981), we stated that a $1 additional court cost assessed against convicted criminal defendants could be placed in a special Law Enforcement Improvement Fund because there was a reasonable relationship between the cost and the maintenance of the law enforcement and criminal justice system. On the other hand, we indicated in the same opinion that placing a portion of certain increased court costs in the state's general fund would likely violate Article VII, Section 5 since those increases could be considered a fine or penalty rather than compensation. Placing court costs in the state's general fund under those circumstances could also violate the separation of powers provision of the state Constitution in that the courts would be acting as tax collectors.

On balance, and in light of the various authorities cited above, we believe that the fee for retrieval of impounded driver's licenses proposed by your amendments to LB 564 involves a penalty which must be used for school purposes. It is clear that the fee would not be compensatory to any governmental bodies or to any victims of criminal violations, nor would it go directly to maintenance of the criminal justice and law enforcement system. On the other hand, it could be fairly stated that the purpose of the retrieval fee, when considered together with the impoundment process, would be to punish improper conduct and to deter others from acting in the same manner. Consequently, we believe that placement of the retrieval fees in the Youth Alcohol Prevention Education Cash Fund, however meritorious, would likely violate Article VII, Section 5 of the Nebraska Constitution.

Sincerely yours,
DON STENBERG

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 129. Introduced by Jones, 43; Preister, 5; Bromm, 23; Wickersham, 49; Hartnett, 45; Coordsen, 32; McKenzie, 34; Beutler, 28; Bohlke, 33.

PURPOSE: To study the current in lieu of tax system used by the Game and Parks Commission and to examine and determine if changes are needed in such system.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Natural Resources Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 130. Introduced by Horgan, 4.

PURPOSE: In 1992, the legislature passed Legislative Resolution 328, which authorized a comprehensive study of the retirement systems administered by the Public Employees Retirement Board. An important and necessary component to such a comprehensive study is an analysis of the administration and composition of the agencies, boards, and commissions authorized to oversee the implementation of the retirement system and funds. This resolution authorizes such an analysis which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

a. A fifty-state comparison of the form, composition, and number of boards, commissions, or other agencies empowered to administer the retirement system or invest the funds of other state retirement systems;

b. A comparison of the duties required of such boards, agencies, and commissions with a particular emphasis on the following issues:

(i) How state retirement policy is formulated;

(ii) The powers and duties vested within each separate state agency, board, and commission; and

(iii) The interaction between the agencies, boards, commissions, and the Legislature relating to retirement legislation and policy; and

c. An analysis of the Public Employees Retirement Board, the Nebraska Investment Council, and the Nebraska Public Employees Retirement Systems, how they compare with other states, and whether the administration and interaction between such entities could be improved through restructuring of the current systems.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Nebraska Retirement Systems Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 131. Introduced by Horgan, 4.

PURPOSE: For years, private industry has utilized the concept of the early retirement incentive in its attempts to downsize and restructure. While such incentives have been offered in small measure, particularly in school districts, the utilization of the incentive for early retirement for public employees in Nebraska is inconsistently and sporadically applied throughout the state. The purpose of this resolution is to examine the concept of incentives for early retirement and its possible implementation and application to retirement systems administered by the Public Employees Retirement Board. This study shall not in any way alter the early retirement incentives currently offered by the state or local political subdivisions. Such study shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

a. An analysis of current early retirement policy in public employment entities throughout the State of Nebraska;

b. An analysis of new and innovative policies in other states which have been implemented and which may apply to Nebraska state systems;

c. An analysis of whether such a policy could be implemented for state systems which do not currently have incentives for early retirement;

d. An analysis of the rationale and goals relating to incentives for early retirement; and

e. An analysis of the potential costs and savings associated with incentives for early retirement.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Nebraska Retirement Systems Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 132. Introduced by Baack, 47.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the potential for developing apprenticeship programs in the State of Nebraska. Other states have developed programs incorporating public and private sector cooperation to include entities such as the State Department of Education and the Department of Labor, as well as community colleges, state colleges, the University of Nebraska, and local high schools.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 133. Introduced by Business and Labor Committee: Abboud, 12, Chairperson; Bromm, 23; Chambers, 11; Dierks, 40; Preister, 5; Schimek, 27; Vrtiska, 1.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine the process used by the Commission of Industrial Relations in its resolution of cases brought under section 48-818, including the type of evidence that is necessary to establish an appropriate array of compared-to employers, pretrial impasse resolution procedures and settlement conferences, appropriate bargaining unit designations of public school employees, and the scheduling of the collective-bargaining process.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Business of Labor Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall seek the cooperation of the Commission of Industrial Relations to this study.

3. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 93039

DATE: May 17, 1993

SUBJECT: Validity of Op. Att'y Gen. No. 206 (Mar. 28, 1984) in View of State v. Gourley; Practice of Lay Midwifery as the Unauthorized Practice of Medicine and Surgery

REQUESTED BY: Senator Don Wesely
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Jan E. Rempe, Assistant Attorney General

You have submitted two opinion requests to this office regarding the practice of lay midwifery in Nebraska. We note that your questions concern lay midwifery, as opposed to nurse midwifery, which is a practice governed by the Nebraska Certified Nurse Midwifery Practice Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 71-1738 to 71-1765 (1990). For purposes of this opinion, "lay midwifery" refers to midwives not certified under sections 71-1738 to 71-1765; not licensed to practice medicine in Nebraska; and not falling within the exceptions in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1,103 (Cum. Supp. 1992), described in further detail below.

In your first opinion request, you have asked whether Opinion of the Attorney General No. 206, dated March 28, 1984, is still the view of this office. That opinion concluded that Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1,103 (1981) and a provision in LB 761, which later became the Nebraska Certified Nurse Midwifery Practice Act, would permit a father who was neither licensed to practice medicine and surgery, nor a certified nurse midwife, to deliver his own child at home in an emergency situation; however, he could not practice obstetrics in this manner in a nonemergency situation. After a review of the current statutes governing this matter, we believe the above-referenced opinion is still valid. See Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 71-1738 to 71-1765 (1990), 71-1,102 (1990), 71-1,103 (Cum. Supp. 1992), 71-102(1) (1990).

In a postscript to your first opinion request, you ask that we review a Lancaster County Court case dealing with certified nurse midwives. We presume you are referring to State v. Gourley, Docket 93F01, Page 8326, in the Lancaster County Court. In that case, the State charged Karen Gourley under Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1764(1) (1990) with practicing as a certified nurse midwife without a current certificate as such under the Nebraska Certified Nurse Midwifery Practice Act. The State argued that Gourley was not certified, but performed the functions of a certified nurse midwife in delivering a child in a nonemergency situation in a private home. Brief for State at 3.

The court's order, entered on April 26, 1993, stated that the language of the statute under which Gourley was charged "only prohibits a person from holding themselves out as a certified nurse midwife when they were not so certified. The complaint is dismissed, the State failing to meet their burden of proof for a bindover." The court's order is limited to interpretation of section 71-1764(1) and a determination of whether the State met its burden of proof under that statute. The order does not interpret other sections of the Nebraska Certified Nurse Midwifery Practice Act, nor does it determine whether actions similar to those taken by Gourley would constitute the unauthorized practice of medicine under sections 71-1,102 and 71-1,103.

Therefore, the disposition of the Gourley case does not affect our answer to your first inquiry. Opinion of the Attorney General No. 206, dated March 28, 1984, is still the opinion of this office.

Your second opinion request asks whether the practice of lay midwifery constitutes the unauthorized practice of medicine under Nebraska law.

Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1,102 (1990) provides in relevant part:

> For the purpose of the Uniform Licensing Law and except as otherwise provided by law, the following classes of persons shall be deemed to be engaged in the practice of medicine and surgery: (1) Persons who . . . publicly profess to assume the duties incident to the practice of . . . obstetrics . . .; (2) persons who prescribe and furnish medicine for . . . any physical . . . condition . . .; (3) > persons holding themselves out to the public as being qualified in the diagnosis or treatment of . . . any physical . . . condition . . . of human beings . . . .

Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1,103 (Cum. Supp. 1992) creates exceptions to the above definition of the practice of medicine and surgery by listing numerous classes of people who shall not be considered to be engaging in the unauthorized practice of medicine. Section 71-1,103 also states that every act or practice of medicine and surgery, as defined in section 71-1,102, not excepted in section 71-1,103 "shall constitute the practice of medicine and surgery and may be performed in this state only by those licensed by law to practice medicine in Nebraska." See also Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-102(1) (1990) ("No person shall engage in the practice of medicine and surgery . . . unless such person has obtained a license from the Department of Health for that purpose.") Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-167 (1990) provides criminal penalties for violations of the Uniform Licensing Law, of which the above statutes are a part.

Due process of law requires criminal statutes to be clear and definite to allow those subject to such statutes to know what conduct will make them liable to punishment and to intelligently choose in advance a lawful course of conduct. State v. Pierson, 239 Neb. 350, 476 N.W.2d 544 (1991). See also Neb. Rev. Stat. § 29-106 (1989) (criminal statutes to be construed according to the plain import of the language used; "no person shall be punished for an offense which is not made penal by the plain import of the words"). Although penal statutes must be strictly construed, they should be given a sensible construction in the context of the object to be accomplished, the evils to be remedied, and the purpose to be served. State v. Kincaid, 235 Neb. 89, 453 N.W.2d 738 (1990). In construing a penal statute, a court will avoid a construction which leads to unjust, unconscionable, or absurd results, and will place a sensible construction upon the statute to effectuate the object of the legislation. Id. "The prohibition against excessive vagueness does not invalidate every statute which a reviewing court believes could have been drafted with greater precision." Pierson, at 353, 476 N.W.2d at 547.

"Midwifery" is the "art or practice of assisting women in childbirth; obstetrics." Webster's Unabridged Dictionary 1140 (2d ed. 1979). A "midwife" is one who "assists at childbirth." Black's Law Dictionary 895 (5th ed. 1979). See also Smith v. State ex rel. Medical Licensing Bd., 459 N.E.2d 401 (Ind. Ct. App. 1984). The "practice of midwifery" is commonly understood to mean "the exercise of, as a profession or occupation, the art or act of assisting at childbirth." State ex rel. Missouri State Bd. of Registration for the Healing Arts v. Southworth, 704 S.W.2d 219, 224 (Mo. 1986). "Practice of midwifery" are "words of common usage, understandable by persons of normal intelligence." Id. at 223.

"'{M}idwife' is a term of common usage and people of common intelligence need not guess at its meaning. . . . Constructions of the terms 'midwife' and 'midwifery' from common usage, legal and non-legal dictionaries, and case law are nearly unanimous in defining midwifery as assisting at childbirth." People v. Rosburg, 805 P.2d 432, 439-40 (Colo. 1991). But see People v. Jihan, 127 Ill. 2d 379, 537 N.E.2d 751 (1989) ("midwifery" could mean assisting at childbirth or actually delivering the child).

"Midwifery" has also been defined as the practice of obstetrics. Webster's Unabridged Dictionary 1140 (2d ed. 1979) (midwifery is obstetrics); Webster's Unabridged Dictionary 1235 (2d ed. 1979) (obstetrics is the branch of medicine dealing with the care and treatment of women during pregnancy, childbirth, and the period immediately following); Southworth, 704 S.W.2d 219 (adopts Webster's definition of midwifery which includes obstetrics); Banti v. State, 163 Tex. Crim. 89, 289 S.W.2d 244 (1956); People v. Arendt, 60 Ill. App. 89 (1894). The practice of assisting pregnant women in giving birth through "natural childbirth," or without the use of drugs, was deemed to be the practice of obstetrics in the context of a naturopathic physician, or drugless healer, in Griffith v. Department of Motor Vehicles, 23 Wash. App. 722, 598 P.2d 1377 (1979).

Construing section 71-1,102 according to the plain import of its language, the practice of lay midwifery--defined as assisting at childbirth and not falling within one of the exceptions listed in section 71-1,103--would constitute the unauthorized practice of medicine and surgery under section 71-1,102(1) because that section defines the practice of medicine and surgery to include "{p}ersons who . . . publicly profess to assume the duties incident to the practice of . . . obstetrics."[1]

The practice of lay midwifery when not excepted under section 71-1,103 would also appear to constitute the unauthorized practice of medicine under sections 71-1,102(2) and (3) if lay midwives "prescribe and furnish medicine for . . . any physical . . . condition" or hold "themselves out to the public as being qualified in the diagnosis or treatment of . . . any physical . . . condition . . . of human beings" (emphasis added). "Physical condition," as used in similar statutes in other states, has been defined to encompass pregnancy. Bowland v. Municipal Court, 134 Cal. Rptr. 630, 556 P.2d 1081 (1976) (statutes prohibiting unlicensed health practice); Smith, 459 N.E.2d 401 (statute defining the practice of medicine).

As noted above, the practice of medicine by lay midwives under sections 71-1,102(1), (2), or (3) when not excepted under section 71-1,103 would be punishable as a misdemeanor under section 71-167.[2]

We believe this construction of the above-cited statutes is necessitated by the plain import of the language used and the obvious legislative purposes of protecting the health, safety, and welfare of Nebraska citizens and insuring that health providers meet minimum standards of competency and proficiency. See Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 71-112.03 (1990) (purpose of each board of examiners); 71-1739 (1990) (purpose of the Nebraska Certified Nurse Midwifery Practice Act).

Despite our interpretation of the relevant statutes, you should note that the Nebraska Legislature's failure to specifically mention midwifery in section 71-1,102, or to define it, could cause section 71-1,102 to be challenged as being unconstitutionally vague should a lay midwife be prosecuted for the unauthorized practice of medicine under this statute. See Jihan, 127 Ill. 2d 379, 537 N.E.2d 751. You may wish to consult the statutory language upheld in People v. Rosburg, 805 P.2d 432, 434 n.1 (1991), as well as consider defining the practice of midwifery.

CONCLUSIONS

(1) Opinion of the Attorney General No. 206, dated March 28, 1984, is still the opinion of this office.

(2) The disposition of State v. Gourley, Docket 93F01, Page 8326 (Lancaster County Court 1993) does not affect our conclusion in (1), above.

(3) The practice of lay midwifery--that is, assisting at childbirth--by persons not certified as nurse midwives under sections 71-1738 to 71-1765, not licensed to practice medicine in Nebraska, and not excepted by section 71-1,103 constitutes the unauthorized practice of medicine, punishable under section 71-167.

[1]But see Leigh v. Board of Registration in Nursing, 395 Mass. 670, 481 N.E.2d 1347 (1985), appeal after remand, 399 Mass. 558, 506 N.E.2d 91 (1987) (in dicta, court said ordinary assistance in normal cases of childbirth is not the practice of medicine; however, one who practices midwifery, uses obstetrical instruments when a physician is unavailable, and prescribes drugs engages in the practice of medicine).

[2]Some cases have referred to vital statistics statutes which mention midwives, such as Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1405 (1990) (physicians and midwives to file statements setting forth congenital deformities with the Bureau of Vital Statistics), as evidence that the legislature intended midwifery to be a distinct profession from the practice of medicine and surgery. Banti, 163 Tex. Crim. 89, 289 S.W.2d 244 (refers to statutes requiring physicians, nurses, and midwives to use prophylactic drops in newborns' eyes and prohibiting midwives from signing certain birth certificates); People v. Hildy, 289 Mich. 536, 286 N.W. 819 (1939) (refers to physicians' and midwives' duty to file birth certificates). However, the Banti court noted that Texas statutes did not include obstetrics within the definition of practicing medicine, as is the case in Nebraska. Similarly, the Hildy case did not cite a statute which defines acts constituting the practice of medicine, as Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-1,102 does. Therefore, these cases can be distinguished from the issue at hand.

Sincerely,
DON STENBERG

AM5222

1. Strike the original sections and all amendments thereto and insert the following new sections:

"Section 1. The Legislature finds that the depositors of Commonwealth Savings Company, State Security Savings, and American Savings Company have filed numerous submissions to indicate that they have sustained financial losses for which they will not be fully reimbursed from the estates of the insolvent institutions. In part, the financial losses are due to the conditions which led to the insolvencies as well as a continued depletion of the resources of the estates since November 3, 1983. The submissions indicate the complexity of the efforts to reimburse the depositors of the institutions despite numerous legislative and administrative attempts. The Legislature also finds that further reimbursement of the depositors' financial losses is warranted.

Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated (1) eleven thousand one hundred dollars from the General Fund for FY1993-94, (2) eleven thousand one hundred dollars from the General Fund for FY1994-95, and if this act is challenged in court and upheld as constitutional, an additional sixteen million four hundred seventy-seven thousand eight hundred dollars from the General Fund to be disbursed in equal amounts over the following three bienniums, for the payment of miscellaneous items of indebtedness in Claim No. 91-310. The claim included in this section shall be paid through Agency 89, Program 536, to Agency 19, Program 28. The funds shall be distributed to all depositors of Commonwealth Savings Company, State Security Savings, and American Savings Company in proportion to the amount of unrecovered loss of guaranteed deposits borne by each depositor.

Sec. 3. The Director of Administrative Services is hereby authorized and directed to draw his or her warrants, upon the funds in the state treasury enumerated in this act, in favor of the beneficiaries named in this act, in an amount to be determined for each person in the class represented by the claim in section 2 of this act. The amount due each beneficiary shall be determined by the Director of Banking and Finance in consultation with the Attorney General. The amounts appropriated in this act shall be in full or partial payment of any and all damages and demands of every character and kind owing by or against the State of Nebraska, its officers, agents, and employees, and their successors and assigns, with respect to each beneficiary in whose favor the appropriations are made. The director shall not deliver a warrant for any item appropriated in this act until a receipt and release for the portion received, releasing the State of Nebraska, its officers, employees, and agents, and their successors and assigns, has been filed by the beneficiary receiving the warrant. Upon presentation of the warrants, the State Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same out of money in the General Fund or out of money in other funds indicated in this act not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 4. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1993.

1. Strike the original sections and all amendments thereto and insert the following new sections:

"Section 1. The Legislature recognizes that:

(1) The state has a responsibility to provide a free and appropriate public education to all persons twenty-one years of age and younger with hearing impairments, including deafness;

(3) The current campus of the Nebraska School for the Deaf encompasses physical facilities that greatly exceed the needs of residential students and that require extensive maintenance and care. LEGISLATIVE BILL 595A. Introduced by Lindsay, 9.

A BILL FOR AN ACT relating to appropriations; to appropriate funds to aid in carrying out the provisions of Legislative Bill 595, Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993; and to declare an emergency.

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 187. Introduced by General Affairs Committee: Schellpeper, 18, Chairperson; Cudaback, 36; Elmer, 38; Haberman, 44; Hartnett, 45; Hudkins, 21; Robinson, 16; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: To examine the license fees, occupation taxes, and hours of operation of retail liquor establishments. Fees and occupation taxes should be examined to determine if they are appropriate in light of the following: (1) The health and safety needs of the public; (2) control of the number of licenses; (3) the number of years since fees and taxes have been changed; (4) tax and fee structures in neighboring states; (5) the value of licenses; (6) the cost of regulation; and (7) the economic needs of licensees. The hours of operation should be examined in light of health and safety needs of the public, law enforcement concerns, regulatory concerns, the relationship with laws of neighboring states, and the economic needs of licensees.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the General Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 188. Introduced by General Affairs Committee: Schellpeper, 18, Chairperson; Cudaback, 36; Elmer, 38; Haberman, 44; Hartnett, 45; Hudkins, 21; Robinson, 16; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: Horseracing in Nebraska has experienced a general decline in attendance and parimutuel handle for the past several years. Competition from dog and horse tracks in other states, a proliferation of casino-type gambling in other states, and the growth of county and city lotteries and charitable gaming in Nebraska, among other things, have had an impact on the profitability of horseracing. Horseracing differs from other activities that involve gambling because it is much more labor-intensive and requires substantial expenditures for agricultural products which provides economic benefits to the state. This study is intended to examine methods of improving the financial viability of horseracing in Nebraska, and shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

a. The impact of other types of gambling in Nebraska on horseracing and the consideration of methods of providing mutual benefit;

b. Strategies for improving the marketing of horseracing;

c. Methods of providing financial benefits for the various racetracks, the horsepersons, and the State Racing Commission; and

d. Any other matters necessary for a thorough examination of this issue.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the General Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 189. Introduced by General Affairs Committee: Schellpeper, 18, Chairperson; Cudaback, 36; Elmer, 38; Haberman, 44; Hartnett, 45; Hudkins, 21; Robinson, 16; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: In 1988, the United States Congress passed the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, 25 U.S.C. 2701 et seq., which sets up a process for negotiation between Indian tribes and the state to establish compacts to regulate the conduct of certain types of gaming on Indian lands. The federal law provides that Class III gaming, which includes lotteries, parimutuel wagering, keno, slot machines, and electronic and video gaming devices, are lawful on Indian lands only if they are located in a state which permits such gaming and conducted in accordance with a tribal-state compact entered into by the tribe and the state. The federal act has generated a great deal of controversy and litigation. There have been concerns regarding whether this process may allow types of games within a state which would not otherwise be allowed by state law. The legislative history of the federal act indicates an intent to establish a balance between the sovereign rights and economic interests of the tribes and the regulatory concerns of the states, but it is unclear where that balance may be reached. The purpose of this study is to examine the state's rights and responsibilities with regard to the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, and shall include, but not be limited to, examination of the following:

a. Legal parameters concerning types of games which may be subject to negotiation for a compact entered into between a tribe and the state;

b. The sovereign rights of Indian tribes and their economic needs;

c. Rulings by federal courts on the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act;

d. Legislation and other activities in other states in relation to this matter; and

e. Any other issues which are necessary for a thorough examination of this matter.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the General Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 190. Introduced by General Affairs Committee: Schellpeper, 18, Chairperson; Cudaback, 36; Elmer, 38; Haberman, 44; Hartnett, 45; Hudkins, 21; Robinson, 16; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: The current system of funding the State Racing Commission is based primarily on admission taxes and daily license fees charged the racetracks. During recent years attendance has decreased and the number of racing days has been reduced, resulting in a reduction in the amount of revenue available to fund the operations of the commission. The commission must continue to carry out its regulatory responsibilities which are intended to insure the integrity of both live racing and simulcasting, even though its funding is decreasing. The purpose of this study is to examine the funding and scope of authority of the State Racing Commission and shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

a. Examining whether use of a portion of parimutuel handle would be appropriate to fund the commission's operations;

b. Examining whether changes in the commission's regulatory duties are needed; and

c. Any other issues necessary for a thorough examination of this matter.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the General Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 191. Introduced by Landis, 46; Wickersham, 49.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to consider rewriting and updating Nebraska's statutes regarding interest rates. Particular attention shall be given to pertinent provisions of Chapter 45, article 1.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 192. Introduced by Witek, 31; Pirsch, 10; Bromm, 23; Hudkins, 21; Fisher, 35.

PURPOSE: To compare and contrast the Rules of the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature with the rules of the legislatures of other states, including, but not limited to, the examination of the methods and options for limiting extended debate or filibusters. While recognizing that there are certain inherent rights and rules needed for legislative debate, these rights should not be used to unnecessarily interfere with or delay legislation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Rules Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 193. Introduced by Abboud, 12; Horgan, 4; Witek, 31; Pedersen, 39; Avery, 3; Hartnett, 45.

PURPOSE: Municipal annexation of neighboring territory is always a difficult and complicated process, particularly when it has the effect of dividing an existing service-delivery public entity, reducing its tax base and thereby adversely impacting its ability to continue providing an adequate level of service to its remaining residents. This is nowhere more serious than in the case of a municipality's annexation of a substantial portion of a rural or suburban fire protection district. Such districts rely heavily on the property tax to finance current operational expenses as well as the large capital expenditures for buildings and heavy equipment necessary to provide adequate fire protection and rescue services. In addition, annexation takes individuals out of the pool of actual and potential volunteers, individuals who are needed to carry on the actual fire suppression and rescue work. The net result may well be a loss of the ability of the remaining district to properly carry out its functions due to a lack of personnel and funds. Annexation can have the effect of cutting into the middle of a fire protection district, leaving some of the residents of the district isolated from the nearest stationhouse or separated from it. This can result in gaps in fire protection coverage and create longer response times to fires or other emergencies. Current dispatching methods do not necessarily utilize the nearest facility but rather the nearest facility within the district. This is exacerbated by the fact that no state-wide system currently exists which provides for cross-jurisdictional responses.

This study shall focus on the impact of municipal annexation on rural and suburban fire protection districts. It shall analyze the effects of such annexation on their tax base, the effect on response times, and on the ability of the remaining district area to provide sufficient volunteers and financial resources to meet local needs. It shall attempt to determine the feasibility of developing a cross-jurisdictional dispatch system and the form such a system might best take. This study shall undertake to determine how best to coordinate existing fire-protection and rescue activities of neighboring municipalities and fire protection districts in order to provide for proper future planning on such things as equipment acquisition, facility location and construction, and debt financing for such acquisitions and purchases in order to make proper use of public finances for those purposes and ensure the protection of the public without waste and duplication. Investigation shall be made into possible arrangements on territories and finances to permit cities and fire protection districts to serve designated areas without regard to municipal boundaries and any future changes due to annexation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Urban Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

Any owner who has two or more vehicles required to be registered under Chapter 60, article 3, may register all such vehicles on a calendar-year basis or on an annual basis for the same registration period beginning in a month chosen by the owner. When electing to establish the same registration period for all such vehicles, the owner shall pay the registration fee and motor vehicle tax on each vehicle for the number of months necessary to extend its current registration period to the registration period under which all such vehicles will be registered. Credit shall be given for registration paid on each vehicle when the vehicle has a later expiration date than that chosen by the owner. RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 201. Introduced by Wesely, 26.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the state regulation of bank card interest rates, costs, and fees.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 202. Introduced by Rasmussen, 20; Wesely, 26.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine programs and services for children and families in Nebraska. The study should include the development of a plan to address the needs of Nebraska's children and their families. The plan shall include, as appropriate, recommendations and proposals of various public and private initiatives and studies underway in Nebraska concerning children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 203. Introduced by Wesely, 26; Byars, 30.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the role of county government in providing human services to the people of Nebraska. Currently, counties have some funding responsibility for developmental disabilities services, substance abuse services, mental health services, aging services, and substance abuse services, as well as total fiscal responsibility for indigent medical care services and general assistance services. Significant state funds and some federal funds are provided for developmental disabilities services, mental health services, aging services, and substance abuse services, but the management of these programs is primarily by the counties or the regions they serve. Indigent medical care services and general assistance services are totally county funded and administered.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 204. Introduced by Wesely, 26.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the need for consumer protection legislation in the physical exercise club industry. The failure of several clubs to open after pre-selling memberships, and the closure of several clubs which had sold long-term memberships indicate a need for consumer protection. In the interest of promoting fair competition within the industry, consumer protection legislation would also be examined as a means of protecting current and future physical exercise clubs from unfair trade practices which ultimately hurt the consumer and the industry's reputation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 205. Introduced by Hartnett, 45; Will, 8; Robinson, 16; Preister, 5; Pedersen, 39; Abboud, 12; Avery, 3; Schimek, 27; Bromm, 23.

PURPOSE: The Urban Affairs Committee 1992 interim study on annexation resulted in serious discussion about the future of the Chalco area located in northwest Sarpy County, near the Interstate 80 corridor, just south of the boundary with Douglas County and the City of Omaha. This area has grown rapidly in recent years, arriving at a current population of over ten thousand people, residing in several adjacent sanitary and improvement districts. Issues have been raised about the future organization of the area as it continues to grow. Under existing state law, no new city can be formed within five miles of an existing city. In consequence, this area cannot organize itself and incorporate as a city. This means that the area must rely on the sanitary and improvement districts and the county to provide the necessary services despite the fact that they are not organized or provided the necessary statutory authority to deal with the situation. Two bills were introduced during the Ninety-third Legislative Session and considered by the Urban Affairs Committee, both aimed at addressing the particular Chalco area problem. Legislative Bill 368 would have authorized the City of Omaha to annex into Sarpy County to bring Chalco within its borders. Legislative Bill 530 would have permitted the Chalco area to incorporate as a first or second class city. The presence of the legislation spurred a great deal of local interest resulting in the formation of a local task force of representatives from Chalco sanitary and improvement districts to study the future of the area. After extensive testimony and discussion of the issues, both by local residents and representatives of neighboring political subdivisions, the committee decided to hold both bills pending a full study of the issues during the 1993 interim period.

This study shall be conducted in cooperation with the existing task force formed by the Chalco area residents. The purpose of the study shall be to explore the existing situation in the Chalco area and how best to address the issue of providing municipal services to the residents of the area. The particular solutions proposed by Legislative Bill 368 and Legislative Bill 530 shall be explored in depth and other potential solutions, including making no changes at all, shall be investigated. The study shall include a review of current development plans and future growth patterns in the area, the current services being provided to residents and how such services are financed, and how other local jurisdictions would be impacted by potential proposals for Chalco's future. The study shall also focus on current sanitary and improvement district and annexation statutes and any potential changes which might be recommended in the light of the Chalco area's history and experience. Emphasis will be placed on the annexation policies of Nebraska's cities as they relate to when a municipality decides to proceed with an annexation, the appropriate size of particular areas which might be the subject of an annexation, and what role the consent of the residents of the area proposed for annexation should play in the process of determining when or if an annexation should take place.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Urban Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 206. Introduced by Urban Affairs Committee: Hartnett, 45, Chairperson; Abboud, 12; Bromm, 23; Preister, 5; Robinson, 16; Schimek, 27; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: One of the oldest and most important institutions of local city and village government is the volunteer fire department. For well over a century, groups of local volunteers have provided fire suppression and emergency response services to their local communities at only a fraction of the cost to taxpayers that would have resulted from the need to implement a paid fire department. Many cities and villages could not afford the cost of their current level of service without the presence of the local pool of volunteers.

Legislation considered by the Urban Affairs Committee in the Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993, has shown the need for a review of existing statutes governing the operation and management of municipal volunteer fire departments and fire protection districts. Over the course of time, numerous pieces of legislation have been adopted for different purposes and to meet particular problems arising at a given moment but without regard to the whole body of statutes governing volunteer departments. This has led to a patchwork of legislation with some inconsistencies and numerous holes. Additionally, many of the statutes are out-dated, having been adopted to address problems which existed under a totally different set of circumstances from those prevailing now. Solutions for 1930's problems are not necessarily relevant to the legal and financial difficulties facing volunteer departments in the 1990's.

This study shall undertake to identify the existing statutes governing volunteer fire departments, whether municipal or in rural or suburban fire protection districts. Comments shall be solicited from volunteer fire departments and interested public officials to identify existing problems with the statutes and those areas which require new or up-dated legislative change. An attempt shall be made to modernize the statutes when appropriate to provide volunteer fire departments with the authority to continue to serve their communities into the next century and to provide them with the financial resources to meet their responsibilities to the general public. Special attention shall be given to the problem of volunteer fire department organization and the legal relationship between a volunteer fire department and the city or fire protection district which it serves. Also, problems of the federal tax status of volunteer fire departments and the contributions which they receive shall be investigated to insure that contributors could make tax-free donations recognized by the federal Internal Revenue Service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Urban Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 207. Introduced by Urban Affairs Committee: Hartnett, 45, Chairperson; Abboud, 12; Bromm, 23; Preister, 5; Robinson, 16; Schimek, 27; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: During the 1993 Legislative Session, the Urban Affairs Committee considered the Municipal Proprietary Function Act which was part of LB 722. The act was later made a part of LB 734 and advanced to final reading by the full Legislature. The act is aimed at separating municipal proprietary functions, utilities such as electric, natural gas, and water, wastewater collection and treatment, solid waste management operations, and hospitals or nursing homes, from the rest of the municipal budgeting and audit processes. The rationale for the legislation was based on the unique nature of such utilities as customer or consumer demand-driven operations. It was argued that such activities do not lend themselves well to the normal budgeting process and that continuing to include them in the regular municipal budget would only serve to distort the whole process.

Consideration of the legislation has raised several issues which were not immediately apparent. In particular, defining some suitable statutory provision for a limit on cash reserves held by a municipal proprietary operation has proven to be complex and difficult to delineate because of the nature of such enterprises. Further, providing suitable public notice and input on the proprietary function budget must take into consideration the need for municipalities to act quickly in meeting customer demand for utility services. Crafting suitable and comprehensive legislation to deal with proprietary function budgeting, finance, and rate-setting issues will require a full review of current statutes and the nature of current proprietary function activities to address the legitimate concerns of all parties involved. Such a review should also inquire into the manner in which the statutes of other states and jurisdictions have dealt with similar problems and concerns and what success they have had under their existing statutory schemes.

This study shall initiate such a review. Special attention shall be devoted to current proprietary function rate setting statutes as they relate to budgeting. The intent of the study is to draft appropriate legislation which will provide full and complete public access to proprietary function financial information, which will provide the public with the opportunity to comment on proprietary function rates and budgets in a meaningful manner at all relevant stages of the process, and which will provide proprietary functions with sufficient flexibility consistent with the public interest to respond efficiently and expeditiously to consumer demands for service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Urban Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 208. Introduced by Urban Affairs Committee: Hartnett, 45, Chairperson; Abboud, 12; Bromm, 23; Preister, 5; Robinson, 16; Schimek, 27; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: The Urban Affairs Committee considered six bills that were introduced and referenced to it in the Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993, which dealt with various aspects of municipal ownership or regulation of natural gas utilities: LB 388, on providing loan funds to finance municipal franchise reviews, LB 508, to deal with various reforms and adjustments to the Municipal Natural Gas Regulation Act, and LB 485, LB 486, LB 487, and LB 581, which dealt with various aspects of municipal condemnation of natural gas utilities. Because of the complexity of the issues involved, their inter-relationship, and the need to develop a working consensus on the solutions to the problems, the committee deferred action pending a fuller review of the general subject of natural gas utilities and their regulation in Nebraska.

This study shall undertake to review current statutes on the granting of municipal franchises to private corporations for the provision of natural gas. The process for granting and reviewing such franchises as well as the appropriate terms upon which such franchises should be granted shall be studied and reviewed. Consideration shall be given to the appropriateness of providing state funds, either as a grant or a loan, to assist municipalities to carry out their responsibilities to review and grant franchises and to whether or not the granting of franchises should be incorporated into the general regulatory process in the Municipal Natural Gas Regulation Act. Additionally, the study shall investigate current statutes and procedures on the condemnation of natural gas utilities by municipalities. Investigation shall be made into the history of such activity in Nebraska and the statutory schemes of other states to determine what changes would be appropriate in the Nebraska context, where there is no general state-level body to regulate the industry. Recommendations or potential legislation shall be prepared to change the condemnation statutes, if necessary, to provide for greater economy, efficiency, and safety for consumers as well as security, certainty, and stability for natural gas providers. The study shall continue the process of reviewing the operation of the Municipal Natural Gas Regulation Act and the existing statutory scheme to recommend appropriate changes and improvements to achieve the purposes of that legislation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Urban Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 209. Introduced by Urban Affairs Committee: Hartnett, 45, Chairperson; Abboud, 12; Bromm, 23; Preister, 5; Robinson, 16; Schimek, 27; Will, 8.

PURPOSE: Of the several standing committees of the Legislature, the Urban Affairs Committee has perhaps the broadest and most diverse subject matter jurisdiction. The committee traditionally has been referenced bills the subject matter of which extends from cemeteries to natural gas regulation to museums. Bills quite often arise from specific problems in specific municipalities in a manner which does not lend itself to early identification or classification as would be the case within the jurisdiction of other committees. More often than not, these issues arise outside of the regular legislative session and to address them adequately and fully in the next session, the Urban Affairs Committee must begin work on them during the interim period.

Recognizing this fact, the Urban Affairs Committee has, in the prior four interim periods, undertaken a general interim study aimed at identifying specific problems prior to the next legislative session to permit more careful review of the legislative solutions before the session begins when time would not be available for the type of analysis which the problem may deserve.

The purpose of this study is to continue the process begun with Legislative Resolution 95 in the 1989 interim period and provide a forum during the interim period for municipalities and their representatives, as well as other interested parties, to present issues which could be the subject of future legislation or to solicit their reaction to proposals which have been presented to the committee for future consideration. The subjects available for committee consideration would extend to any matter relevant to the Urban Affairs Committee's subject matter jurisdiction.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Urban Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 210. Introduced by Wesely, 26.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the fiscal rate of return and impact of the Employment and Investment Growth Act, Laws 1987, LB 775. The study shall include an analysis of the costs associated with and the benefits derived from agreements under the act. The analysis shall consider the design of a fiscal rate-of-return analysis which may be applied to project applications prior to approval in order to meet threshold criteria. The study shall also include an examination of possible changes to the act to enhance its ability to meet its stated and implied goals.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 211. Introduced by Wesely, 26; Hillman, 48.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine the various avenues available to the State of Nebraska which would stimulate the development of our state's economy. The study should include an inventory of the various economic development programs and initiatives now underway in Nebraska by state and local government.

The study should also examine what economic development tools other states are now using to stimulate economic growth and how they might be applicable to Nebraska.

The study should evaluate the various tax incentives, job training programs, financing mechanisms, research and development programs, business assistance programs, and other economic development programs which now exist or could be developed to ascertain their potential impact on Nebraska's economy.

In undertaking this study, the committee should work with the various federal, state, local, and private-sector officials active in economic development concerning the viability, attractiveness, and competitiveness of various economic development alternatives.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a special committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine health care reform issues including the proposed NebraskCare plan of the Governor's Blue Ribbon Coalition on health care. The study shall also examine the recommendations of the Inter-agency Health Care Advisory Committee.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 213. Introduced by Health and Human Services Committee: Wesely, 26, Chairperson; Byars, 30; Day, 19; Dierks, 40; Horgan, 4; Rasmussen, 20; Vrtiska, 1.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to undertake a study of ways to provide for welfare reform in Nebraska. The study shall identify ways to provide individuals and families with temporary support needed for those individuals who are not capable of being self-sufficient. (1) Training and wage subsidy programs;

(2) Job search programs;

(3) Community jobs programs;

(4) Increasing earned income and savings limits by recipients;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 214. Introduced by Health and Human Services Committee: Wesely, 26, Chairperson; Byars, 30; Day, 19; Dierks, 40; Horgan, 4; Rasmussen, 20; Vrtiska, 1.

PURPOSE: The State of Nebraska is affected fiscally and socially by the need for and provision of human service programs and by the health status of its citizens. These human service and health status issues include, but are not limited to, cost containment for health care services, availability of health care providers, health care for the medically indigent, maternal and infant care, mental health, mental retardation and other developmental disabilities, substance abuse, poverty, regulation of new health professions, the comprehensive health insurance pool, rural health care availability, teenage pregnancy, child abuse, adult abuse, medicaid services, fees for licensure, the disabled persons and family support program, hunger, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, sexual abuse of children, the Nebraska Mental Health Commitment Act, and certificate of need. These issues have been reviewed but need continued review by the Legislature to determine the appropriate legislative responses. In addition, the study shall include ways to expand the utilization of mid-level practitioners in Nebraska, the future of the regional centers in Nebraska, and an analysis of the benefits of adding the rehabilitation option to the medicaid program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Health and Human Services Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 215. Introduced by Hall, 7.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine issues relating to the Legislature's current and future computer needs. The study shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

a. An evaluation of the current legislative computer policies and procedures;

b. The identification and evaluation of current resources including personnel, hardware, and software;

c. An evaluation of issues related to providing access to legislative databases; and

d. The development of long-term goals.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the board shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 216. Introduced by Hall, 7.

PURPOSE: Since the process of referencing legislative bills and resolutions has not been studied since 1985 and changes to and additions to the problems confronting the Legislature during recent years have raised questions involving the referencing process and the resulting unequal committee workloads, a comprehensive study should be undertaken to examine the procedure for referencing bills, resolutions, and gubernatorial appointments.

The study shall include the process, method, and procedure for referencing bills, resolutions, and gubernatorial appointments undertaken by the Executive Board of the Legislative Council. The study shall also include workload equalization and any other related issues which could serve to update and improve the referencing process.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the Executive Board shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 217. Introduced by Moore, 24.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to initiate a study regarding a consolidation of all state legal resources into the office of the Attorney General. The study shall include, but shall not be limited to:

a. An identification of the number of state attorneys outside the jurisdiction of the office of the Attorney General, their employing agencies, and the functions they perform; and

b. Assessments of possible efficiencies and attendant cost savings associated with consolidation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 218. Introduced by Appropriations Committee: Moore, 24, Chairperson; Ashford, 6; Avery, 3; Bernard-Stevens, 42; Crosby, 29; Hillman, 48; Hohenstein, 17; Lynch, 13; Wehrbein, 2.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to provide for a comprehensive study of the audit function of state government. The study should encompass the pre-audit and internal audit functions performed by individual state agencies, the pre-audit function performed by the Department of Administrative Services - Accounting Division, the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report audit performed by the Auditor of Public Accounts, and the post-audit function performed by the Auditor of Public Accounts and independent certified public accountant firms.

The pre-audit and internal audit functions are important elements of internal control, while the post-audit function also provides assurances that the state's financial position and results of operations are fairly presented. Together, they represent significant safeguards in protecting the state's assets and providing assurances that the expenditures of the state, which exceeds three billion dollars each year, are made in conformance with state law.

Because of changing technologies and practices, the current audit approaches should be reviewed to determine if they are the most efficient and cost-effective. The study should review the existing practices and determine if changes or modifications should be made.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 219. Introduced by Appropriations Committee: Moore, 24, Chairperson; Ashford, 6; Avery, 3; Bernard-Stevens, 42; Crosby, 29; Hillman, 48; Hohenstein, 17; Lynch, 13; Wehrbein, 2.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to initiate a study of the fiscal impact exhibited by the Nebraska Crime Control Act of 1993 contained in Legislative Bill 627, Ninety-third Legislature, First Session, 1993. The study shall include, but shall not be limited to:

a. Projections of increased inmate populations associated with relevant provisions of the bill;

b. Estimated increases in departmental per diem costs and medical costs; and

c. Identification of costs associated with construction of new correctional facilities and expansion of existing facilities to accommodate significant population increases.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a joint committee consisting of the members of the Appropriations Committee and three members of the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the joint committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study shall be to examine the statutes relating to the authority of the Governor to direct any state department, agency, or institution of state government to furnish the Governor's Policy Research Office with such information, personnel, equipment, and services as are necessary to enable it to carry out its responsibilities and duties pursuant to subsection (3) of section 84-133. The study shall include:

a. A review of the initial legislation and intent granting this authority Laws 1969, LB 1398;

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 93040

DATE: May 18, 1993

SUBJECT: LB 507; Can the Legislature constitutionally establish requirements for future legislation projected to increase inmate population in correctional facilities in Nebraska?

REQUESTED BY: Senator Kate Witek
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Dale A. Comer, Assistant Attorney General

LB 507 is a bill which establishes certain requirements for future legislation projected to increase the inmate population in state correctional facilities in Nebraska. When any legislation enacted after June 30, 1993, is projected to increase the total adult or juvenile population in such correctional institutions, Section 1 of LB 507 would require the Legislature to include estimates of the operating costs resulting from the increased adult or juvenile inmate population in the legislation. The estimates would be based upon fiscal notes prepared by the Legislative Fiscal Analyst with the assistance of the Department of Correctional Services.

Section (3) of LB 507 provides further:

> The Legislature shall provide by specific itemized appropriation, for the fiscal year or years for which it can make valid appropriations, an amount sufficient to meet the cost indicated in the estimate contained in the legislation {projected to increase inmate populations} for such fiscal year or years. The appropriation shall be enacted in the same legislative session in which the legislation is enacted and shall be contained in a bill which does not contain appropriations for other programs.

Section (4) of LB 507 also provides,

> Any legislation enacted after June 30, 1993, which does not include the estimates required by this section and is not accompanied by the required appropriation shall be null and void.

You have now requested our opinion on the constitutionality of LB 507. For the reasons stated below, we believe that LB 507 is unconstitutional under the pertinent provisions of the Nebraska Constitution.

LB 507 clearly purports to place strictures upon future Legislatures with respect to requirements for legislation which would increase the adult and juvenile inmate population in Nebraska's correctional facilities. The general rule concerning such attempts by one legislature to bind or restrict succeeding legislatures is set out in 82 C.J.S. Statutes § 9:

> One legislature cannot bind a succeeding legislature or restrict or limit the power of its successors to enact legislation, except as to valid contracts entered into by it, and as to rights which have actually vested under its acts, and no action by one branch of the legislature can bind a subsequent session of the same branch.

This statement of the rule is amply supported by cases from a number of jurisdictions. See Newton v. State, 375 So.2d 1245 (Ala. Crim. App. 1979); Maine State Housing Authority v. Depositors Trust Company, 278 A.2d 699 (Me. 1971); Frost v. State, 172 N.W.2d 575 (Iowa 1969); Village of North Atlanta v. Cook; 219 Ga. 316, 133 S.E.2d 585 (1963); Atlas v. Wayne County, 281 Mich. 596, 275 N.W. 507 (1937); Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co. v. City of Villisca, 220 Iowa 238, 261 N.W. 423 (1935); Harsha v. City of Detroit 261 Mich. 586, 246 N.W. 849 (1933). As stated in the Cook case from Georgia, the rule is as follows:

> One Legislature cannot lawfully provide that, whenever a subsequent Legislature enacts a statute with reference to a given subject, such statute shall embrace certain specified provisions. It cannot tie the hands of its successors, or impose upon them conditions with reference to subjects upon which they have equal power to legislate.

Village of North Atlanta v. Cook, 219 Ga. at 320, 321, 133 S.E.2d at 589. In the Maine State Housing Authority case, supra, the court also specifically indicated that one legislature cannot impose a legal obligation to appropriate money on succeeding legislatures.

There are no Nebraska cases which specifically adopt the general rule stated above. However, the general rule appears to be grounded upon the constitutional power of the Legislature to legislate. Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co. v. City of Villisca, supra. Article III, Section 1 of the Nebraska Constitution vests the legislative authority of the state in the Legislature, and it is clear that Legislature has plenary authority limited only by the state and federal constitutions. Orleans Education Association v. the School District of Orleans in Harlan County, 193 Neb. 675, 229 N.W.2d 172 (1975). Given the Nebraska Constitution and Nebraska law concerning the authority of the Legislature, we believe that the Nebraska Supreme Court would adopt the general rule stated above with respect to the authority of one legislature to bind succeeding legislatures.

We would also note that the Nebraska Supreme Court did indirectly consider the general rule discussed above in State ex rel. Douglas v. Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund, 204 Neb. 445, 283 N.W.2d 12 (1979). That case involved a challenge to the constitutionality of the statutes creating the Nebraska Mortgage Finance Fund, and one argument advanced by opponents of that legislation was that the statutes at issue impermissibly restricted the discretion of future legislatures to revise, amend or repeal the Act in question. The Nebraska Supreme Court stated that the Act did not restrict future legislatures from changing the law. Obviously, had the general rule discussed above not had some application in Nebraska, there would have been no need to discuss the impact of the legislation upon future legislatures, and the Court could have simply rejected that argument out of hand.

Consequently, based upon the authorities cited above, we believe that LB 507 is unconstitutional as legislation which would improperly attempt to bind or restrict the authority of future legislatures to pass legislation which might impact the inmate population in correctional facilities in Nebraska.

Sincerely yours,
DON STENBERG
Attorney General

WHEREAS, Nebraska proudly claims a heritage rich in trails being the site of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, the Pony Express, the Sidney-Deadwood Trail, the Mormon Trail, and the Oregon Trail; and

WHEREAS, the Mormon and Oregon Trails made possible one of the most significant migrations in the history of the North American continent, and indeed, of the world; and

WHEREAS, the American Hiking Society has proposed to identify a coast-to-coast network of trails across the United States, from Cape Henlopen State Park in Delaware to Point Reyes National Seashore in California, measuring four thousand eight hundred thirty-five miles, traversing thirteen states, and called the American Discovery Trail; and

WHEREAS, the American Discovery Trail route uses existing hiking trails whenever possible and low-volume country roads, avoiding private land; and

WHEREAS, in October, 1992 Congress designated the American Discovery Trail as a study trail to determine the feasibility and desirability of its designation as a national trail which includes a route across Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, if the study so authorized by Congress finds that the American Discovery Trail should traverse Nebraska, its route would include Omaha, Lincoln, David City, Columbus, Central City, Kearney, Cozad, Gothenburg, North Platte, and Ogallala, as well as other communities, a route featuring numerous historical, cultural, and recreational sites unique to Nebraska.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

"Section 1. That section 9-629.02, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

9-629.02. (1) If a racetrack licensed pursuant to Chapter 2, article 12, is located in a county and such county or a city or village within such county conducts a lottery pursuant to the Nebraska County and City Lottery Act, two percent of the gross proceeds from such lottery shall be credited to the Thoroughbred Racing Assistance Fund. If the two percent of the gross proceeds credited to the fund is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final order from which no appeal is taken, the Department of Revenue shall remit the proceeds to the State Treasurer for a credit as follows:

(a) One percent shall be credited to the General Fund;

(b) One-half of one percent shall be credited to the Campaign Finance Limitation Cash Fund; and

(c) One-half of one percent shall be credited to the Drinking Water Source Quality Fund.

(2) The Thoroughbred Racing Assistance Fund is hereby created. The fund shall be used to supplement purses for live thoroughbred racing in Nebraska. Twenty-five percent of the fund shall be distributed as purse supplements and breeder and stallion awards for Nebraska-bred horses as defined and registered pursuant to section 2-1213 at the racetrack where the funds were generated. The State Racing Commission shall distribute money in the fund to the licensed racetracks based proportionately on the percentage of the live race handle of the immediately preceding year. Any money in the fund available for investment shall be invested by the state investment officer pursuant to sections 72-1237 to 72-1276.

Sec. 4. Sections 4 to 8 of this act shall be known and may be cited as the Drinking Water Source Quality Act.

Sec. 5. The Legislature finds that:

(1) Safe drinking water sources are precious resources, the maintenance, protection, and conservation of which are essential to the well-being of the State of Nebraska and its citizens both now and in the future;

(2) The quality of water delivered by Nebraska public water suppliers is highly regulated with mandatory expensive testing on regular schedules for dangerous contaminants; and

(3) The high expense of adequate and meaningful water testing places a heavy burden on the water consumer.

Sec. 6. For purposes of the Drinking Water Source Quality Act:

(1) Approved principal laboratory shall mean the drinking water testing facility certified as meeting the standards and capabilities required by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Program;

(2) Drinking water source shall mean ground water which occurs in or moves, filters, or percolates through ground under the surface of the land and surface water which occurs in rivers, streams, and lakes from which it can be taken and treated for consumption;

(3) Drinking water test shall mean prescribed controlled scientific procedures performed by the approved principal laboratory to determine the presence and relative concentration of specified contaminants in water samples submitted by public water suppliers; and

(4) Safe drinking water shall mean water for human consumption which meets the standards set forth by the Nebraska Safe Drinking Water Act and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Sec. 7. There is hereby created the Drinking Water Source Quality Fund. The fund shall consist of all fees credited to the fund pursuant to the Drinking Water Source Quality Act, any additional money appropriated to the fund by the Legislature, and any gifts, bequests, or other contributions received for credit to the fund. Any money in the fund available for investment shall be invested by the state investment officer pursuant to sections 72-1237 to 72-1276.

Sec. 8. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the Drinking Water Source Quality Fund shall be made available to the Department of Health for the administration of the Nebraska Safe Drinking Water Act. The money shall be used to subsidize the cost of drinking water tests which are required by the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder which are performed by the approved principal laboratory. The purpose of such subsidizing is to provide such tests for modest fees to public water suppliers. If the funds available are not sufficient to so subsidize all drinking water testing, then the subsidy shall apply first to the most costly tests, especially the tests for synthetic organic compounds followed in descending order of cost by the other tests. The results of all drinking water testing shall be tabulated by the testing agency as a water source quality data base indexed by geographical location, contaminants found, and such other attributes as may be expedient and desirable, with such information to be available to other agencies, organizations, and individuals to whom the information may be helpful for information, education, research, and planning.

(2) Commencing two years after January 1, 1994, money from the fund shall not be made available for use under this section unless the department has prepared and submitted to the Natural Resources Committee of the Legislature written annual reports which outline the actual and planned uses or obligations of money from the fund during both the immediately preceding fiscal year and the forthcoming fiscal year and evaluate the success of efforts undertaken by use of the money.".

2. Correct the operative date and repealer provisions so that sections 1 and 4 to 8 added by this amendment become operative on their effective date with the emergency clause.

3. Renumber the remaining sections and correct internal references accordingly.

29-2204. (1) Except as provided in subsection ~~(2)~~ (3) of this section, in all cases when any person is convicted of any offense by this code declared criminal and made punishable by imprisonment in the Department of Correctional Services adult correctional facility, the court shall declare in its sentence for what period of time, within the respective periods prescribed by law, such convict shall be imprisoned at hard labor in the Department of Correctional Services adult correctional facility and shall determine and declare in its sentence whether any such convict shall be kept in solitary confinement in the cells of the Department of Correctional Services adult correctional facility, without labor, and, if so, for what period of time.

(2)(a) Commencing July 1, 1996, when the court is of the opinion that imprisonment may be appropriate, but that a brief and intensive period of incarceration may serve the interests of society by promoting the rehabilitation of the offender and by deterring the offender from engaging in further criminal activity, the court may commit an offender to the Department of Correctional Services for a period not exceeding one hundred eighty days for placement in a regimented inmate discipline unit followed by one year of intense parole supervision. The court may consider such commitment if the offender (i) has been found guilty of a nonviolent crime, (ii) is seventeen years of age or older but younger than twenty-five years and has no physical or mental handicap that precludes strenuous physical activity, and (iii) has never before been sentenced to a period of incarceration for a felony offense in this or any other state or federal jurisdiction.

(c) If the offender for any reason fails to complete the program of regimented inmate discipline, the offender shall immediately be returned to the sentencing court for resentencing on the original conviction. Credit shall be given for time actually served in the program.

(d) All costs incurred during the period the offender is held in a regimented inmate discipline unit shall be the responsibility of the state, and the county shall be liable only for the cost of returning him or her to the appropriate court for resentencing or such other disposition as the court may then deem appropriate.

(3) Whenever the defendant was under eighteen years of age at the time he or she committed the crime for which he or she was convicted, the court may in its discretion, instead of imposing the penalty provided for the crime, make such disposition of the defendant as the court deems proper under the Nebraska Juvenile Code.

Sec. 23. (1) There is hereby established a task force consisting of the following members:

The investigation shall include, but not be limited to, an assessment of mandatory minimum sentencing, drug-free zones, boot camps, elimination of probation and parole, and the increase of penalties for certain crimes. The task force shall also review the recommendations of the Governor's Task Force on Prison Alternatives, including the role of community corrections, intensive probation, and parole and increased availability of education and treatment.

Sec. 24. Sections 1 to 22 and 26 of this act shall become operative three calendar months after the adjournment of this legislative session. The other sections of this act shall become operative on their effective date.

For any offense classified as a handicapped parking infraction, a handicapped parking citation may be issued by any peace officer or by any person designated by ordinance by a city or village to exercise the authority to issue a citation for any handicapped parking infraction. Such authorization shall be carried out in the manner specified in sections 3 and 4 of this act.

Sec. 2. Any person found guilty of a handicapped parking infraction shall be fined (1) not more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, (2) not more than two hundred dollars for a second offense within a one-year period, and (3) not more than three hundred dollars for a third or subsequent offense within a one-year period.

NOTICE OF COMMITTEE HEARING
Revenue

Governor Appointment Wednesday, June 2, 1993 12:00 noon
Mona Moje - Nebraska Agricultural Land Valuation Advisory Board

(Signed) Jerome Warner, Chairperson

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 26, 1993

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

LB 507 was received in my office on May 24, 1993. The bill was signed by me on May 26, 1993 and delivered to the Secretary of State.

The concept embodied in LB 507 is not new. Similar legislation has been introduced in each of the past two legislative sessions. The concept has been endorsed by the National Conference of State Legislature, and the state of Tennessee has already adopted similar legislation. The proposal was one of several recommendations recently issued by the Governor's Task Force on Prison Alternatives, and was also recommended by a task force formed by my predecessor.

Policy decisions on criminal justice issues in recent years have unquestionably resulted in an increase in our prison population. We have been tough on crime -- and for sound reasons.

Taking criminals off the street through more arrests and longer sentences places greater demands on our correctional system. We are currently operating at 153% of capacity.

Our investment in the operation of the prison system must keep pace with our criminal justice policy. Otherwise, we will continue to face an overcrowded system that can breed an entirely new set of problems, including the possibility of intervention by the federal courts.

For that reason, I believe sound fiscal management requires the Legislature to provide adequate funding when changes in criminal justice policy are made. LB 507 accomplishes this objective by requiring an assessment of fiscal impact and an appropriation of dollars to meet the needs of policy changes when they are made.

The fiscal analysis provides the basis for an appropriation to cover increased operating costs resulting from new criminal legislation. This is, in my view, a reasonable approach to fiscal responsibility.

The Legislature may want to consider other policy areas where a similar approach might be useful. There are numerous instances where a policy change is made and funding is not provided. The program is either not implemented or inadequately financed, but the statutory obligation remains. The approach of tying policy implementation with the necessary resources is sound fiscal management.

Concern has been expressed that LB 507 unconstitutionally binds the action of future legislatures. I do not share that concern; however, the matter may well be decided in court. I have signed LB 507 because fiscal responsibility dictates that we should proceed to identify -- and pay for -- the costs of our policy decisions.

Sincerely,

(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

The Department of Social Services shall implement a point-of-sale verification system for pharmaceuticals for medical assistance recipients.

(2) The department shall undertake efforts to the extent possible to provide for managed care for medical assistance recipients in all areas of the state. The purpose of such managed care efforts shall be to provide medical assistance recipients those services which are needed in a prudent and nonfraudulent manner.

(3) It is the intent of the Legislature that the management of the medical assistance program through managed care, point-of-sale for drugs, and other cost containment initiatives shall result in additional savings for the 1994-1995 biennial budget of at least one million seven hundred thousand dollars.

Sec. 7. The Director of Social Services shall report to the Governor and the Legislature on initiatives for welfare reform in Nebraska. The report shall identify ways to provide individuals and families with temporary support needed for those individuals who are not capable of being self-sufficient. ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 93041

DATE: May 27, 1993

SUBJECT: LB 632 and AM1909: Creation of Handicapped Parking Civil Violation

REQUESTED BY: Senator Scott Moore
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Jan E. Rempe, Assistant Attorney General

LB 632 (1993), as amended by AM1909 (1993), creates a "handicapped parking civil violation" for the violation of any statute or ordinance regulating the use of parking spaces designated for handicapped or disabled persons. LB 632, § 1. The bill allows peace officers to issue citations for alleged violations, but also grants cities and villages the authority to designate by ordinance "any person" to issue such citations. Id. Commission of such a violation is classified as a civil matter and is punishable by monetary penalty. AM1909, §§ 2, 3.

LB 632 and AM1909 set forth detailed procedures regarding the manner in which alleged violations are handled. After the alleged violator is served with a citation, the county attorney or other legally authorized person either files a complaint regarding the violation or chooses not to do so. AM1909, § 7. The alleged violator then appears in court to admit or deny the allegations of the complaint. If the allegations are admitted, the court enters judgment for the state and imposes a civil sanction. If the allegations are denied, the court sets the matter for an informal hearing without a jury. Id.

At this informal hearing, the state must prove the alleged violation by a preponderance of the evidence, and the rules of evidence generally do not apply. The alleged violator may be represented by counsel. Id. Although not explicitly outlined in the bill, we assume that the alleged violator would have the rights to confront and cross-examine witnesses called to testify against him or her and to present evidence on his or her own behalf. The court may dismiss the allegation or impose a civil sanction which conforms with the range provided in section 3 of AM1909. Id. Any party may appeal the judgment of the court to the Nebraska Court of Appeals. AM1909, § 8.

You have requested our opinion regarding the constitutionality of (1) classifying the above-described violations as civil matters, and (2) allowing municipalities to enact ordinances which designate that certain civilians may issue citations for alleged violations of the proposed law.

You are especially concerned that these provisions might violate principles of due process. For the reasons outlined below, we believe the Legislature has the authority to classify offenses as civil or criminal and to authorize municipalities to designate civilian personnel who may issue citations for handicapped parking civil violations.

The Legislature has plenary legislative authority, which is limited only by the Nebraska and U.S. Constitutions. The state constitution is not a grant of power like the federal constitution, but is instead a limitation of power. State ex rel. Creighton Univ. v. Smith, 217 Neb. 682, 353 N.W.2d 267 (1984); Lenstrom v. Thone, 209 Neb. 783, 311 N.W.2d 884 (1981); Consumers Coal Co. v. City of Lincoln, 109 Neb. 51, 189 N.W. 643 (1922).

> We look . . . in the Constitution of the state to ascertain if any limitations have been imposed upon the complete powers with which the legislative department of the state is vested in its creation. . . . The law-making power of the state recognizes no restraints, and is bound by none, except such as are imposed by the Constitution.

Consumers, 109 Neb. at 64-65, 189 N.W. at 648 (emphasis deleted). Thus, the Legislature may legislate on any subject not inhibited by the state or federal constitutions, and restrictions on this legislative power will not be inferred unless the restriction is clearly implied. Creighton, 217 Neb. at 688, 353 N.W.2d at 271; Lenstrom, 209 Neb. at 789-90, 311 N.W.2d at 888.

We find nothing in the state or federal constitutions which would inhibit or restrict the Legislature in classifying cases involving handicapped parking violations as civil matters and in authorizing municipalities to designate those civilian personnel who may issue citations for such violations. Specifically, these provisions do not appear to violate the principles of procedural or substantive due process.

The Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution prohibits states from depriving "any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law." A nearly identical provision appears in article I, section 3, of the Nebraska Constitution. "Procedural" due process means that the state can take life, liberty, or property only when certain procedures are followed, and "substantive" due process prevents certain types of state action regardless of the procedures that are followed or available. Weimer v. Amen, 870 F.2d 1400 (8th Cir. 1989). See also Rein v. Johnson, 149 Neb. 67, 30 N.W.2d 548 (1947), cert. denied, 335 U.S. 814 (1948) (due process is satisfied with regard to legislation if the legislature has power to act; that power is not exercised in an arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonably discriminatory manner; and the act has a reasonable relationship to a proper legislative purpose).

Procedural due process is "a flexible concept calling for such procedural protections as are appropriate in a particular situation." Bosselman, Inc. v. State, 230 Neb. 471, 475, 432 N.W.2d 226, 229 (1988). "'Due process has been held to require that adjudication be preceded by notice and an opportunity to be heard which is fair in view of the circumstances and conditions existent at the time.'"

Howard v. City of Lincoln, 243 Neb. 5, 13, 497 N.W.2d 53, 58 (1993) (quoting Kirshen v. Kirshen, 227 Neb. 479, 481, 418 N.W.2d 558, 560 (1988)). Substantive due process, on the other hand, involves state action which shocks the conscience or otherwise offends our judicial notions of fairness. The conduct involved must be "'offensive to human dignity.'" Weimer, 870 F.2d at 1405 (quoting New v. Minneapolis, 792 F.2d 724, 726 (8th Cir. 1986)).

Assuming that the interests involved in receiving a citation for a handicapped parking civil violation are significant enough to invoke due process protections, the procedural protections provided under LB 632, as amended by AM1909, seem constitutionally adequate. As described above, the proposed law provides for notice of alleged violations and pending court dates, as well as the opportunity to be heard in court. The alleged violator may be heard in both a preliminary hearing where he or she admits or denies the allegations, and in a later informal hearing--with counsel if desired--where the state is required to prove the violation by a preponderance of the evidence. Further, any party may appeal the lower court's judgment to the Nebraska Court of Appeals.

Similarly, classifying handicapped parking violations as civil matters and authorizing cities and villages to designate by ordinance persons who have the authority to issue citations do not shock the conscience. These provisions are not the type of "abusive governmental action completely prohibited by due process." Weimer, 870 F.2d at 1406.

Our conclusions are supported by general case law concerning a legislature's power to classify offenses as civil or criminal and a municipality's power to supplement its police protection with specially designated personnel.

It is within a legislature's power to define and classify public offenses as civil or criminal and to prescribe appropriate punishments. Adams v. City of Pocatello, 91 Idaho 99, 416 P.2d 46 (1966) (legislature's function to enact police regulations governing citizen conduct and corresponding penalties to be enforced by the executive branch for violations); Anderson v. Commercial Credit Co., 110 Mont. 333, 101 P.2d 367 (1940) (laws providing penalties like civil fines usually sustained as being within legislature's power); State v. Pettit, 233 Neb. 436, 445 N.W.2d 890 (1989) (legislature has power to define crimes and punishment within constitutional boundaries); 16 C.J.S. Constitutional Law § 114, at 383 (1984).

Subject to the powers vested in it by state constitutional provisions and statutes, a city may supplement the police protection it offers by authorizing private persons to perform some of its police functions. People v. Perry, 27 Ill. App. 3d 230, 327 N.E.2d 167 (1975) (upheld city ordinance which allowed appointment of special police persons for guarding individual buildings, premises, persons, or property; ordinance fell within city's obligation to protect people and property; reasonable for city to deputize individuals to perform limited functions in order to improve safety for all); Frank v. Wabash R.R. Co., 295 S.W.2d 16 (Mo. 1956); K-Mart Corp. v. St. Louis County, 672 S.W.2d 127 (Mo.

Ct. App. 1984); Caronia v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 6 N.J. Super. 275, 71 A.2d 135 (App. Div. 1950) (upheld statute which allowed municipality to appoint special police persons for limited and special purpose of escorting school children across street); State v. Clark, 10 Ohio App. 3d, 462 N.E.2d 436 (1983) (municipality may confer upon auxiliary police such powers as are necessary to discharge assigned duties); Surry v. City of Seattle, 14 Wash. 2d 350, 128 P.2d 322 (1942) (city ordinance allowed appointment of private persons as special police to serve without city compensation); 16A Eugene McQuillin, The Law of Municipal Corporations § 45.06.10, at 32 (3d ed. 1992); 3 C. Dallas Sands & Michael E. Libonati, Local Government Law § 18.03, at 18-10 (1982).

Since LB 632 and AM1909 would explicitly vest cities and villages with the authority to enact ordinances designating who may issue citations for handicapped parking civil violations, it would obviously be within those municipalities' powers to appoint private persons for that limited purpose. See Charles S. Rhyne, The Law of Local Government Operations § 19.1, at 447 (1980) (municipalities can exercise only those powers conferred by the legislature).

Conclusions

The Nebraska Legislature may constitutionally classify handicapped parking violations as civil matters and may authorize municipalities to provide by ordinance that certain civilians may perform the limited function of issuing citations for such violations.

Although you did not specifically ask about the standard by which the state must prove its case in handicapped parking violation cases, we would like to take this opportunity to comment on the "preponderance of the evidence" standard provided in section 7(4) of AM1909. While we have concluded that the Legislature may label the violations at issue as civil matters, it should be noted that the Nebraska Supreme Court has held that traffic infractions are criminal offenses for purposes of the double jeopardy provision in article I, section 12, of the Nebraska Constitution, "notwithstanding the legislative labeling of a traffic infraction {as} a civil offense." State v. Knoles, 199 Neb. 211, 215, 256 N.W.2d 873, 875 (1977). See also State v. Clayton, 584 P.2d 1111 (Alaska 1978) (prosecution for traffic infraction is quasi-criminal proceeding to which some criminal procedures, like issuance of warrants, apply). But see United States v. Ward, 448 U.S. 242 (1980), reh'g denied, 448 U.S. 916 (1980) (case involving assessment of monetary penalty under federal act was not criminal within the meaning of the Fifth Amendment's guarantee against compulsory self-incrimination); State v. Anton, 463 A.2d 703 (Me. 1983) (traffic infraction proceedings not criminal prosecutions to which right to jury trial applies).

As noted above, courts have varied in designating which criminal procedures or standards, if any, are applicable to seemingly civil matters. However, the criminal degree of persuasion, "beyond a reasonable doubt," generally has been held inapplicable to civil actions--including actions for statutory penalties--unless such civil cases involve the drastic impairment of liberty and reputation. McCormick on Evidence § 341, at 964 (Edward W. Cleary, ed., 3d ed. 1984) (citing civil cases involving designation of mentally disordered sex offenders as examples of drastic impairment of liberty and reputation); 9 John H. Wigmore, Evidence § 2498, at 421-22 (James H. Chadbourn, rev., 1981). See also 31A C.J.S. Evidence § 103, at 167 (1964) (burden of proof is a matter of policy; not objectionable to convert burden of proof to a statutory rule of substantive law; state has virtually unrestricted power to change rules of evidence regarding burden of proof); 16 C.J.S. Constitutional Law § 129, at 416 (1984) (legislature may regulate burden of proof and the extent of proof required).

Since the civil sanctions authorized in the bill are fairly modest and are not a drastic impairment of liberty and reputation, the "preponderance of the evidence" standard in the proposed bill is probably correct. However, you should be aware that certain criminal procedures may attach to handicapped parking violation proceedings, regardless of the "civil" label the Legislature attaches to those proceedings.

Sincerely,
DON STENBERG

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion No. 93043

DATE: June 1, 1993

SUBJECT: State Boat Act

REQUESTED BY: Senator Jan McKenzie
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Don Stenberg, Attorney General
Linda L. Willard, Assistant Attorney General

You have inquired about the definition of "waters of this state" as defined in the State Boat Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 37-1201 through 37-1274 (1988 and 1992 Cum. Supp.). Specifically, you ask if the definition of "waters of this state," as provided in the State Boat Act, includes waters contained by structures, earthen or of other material, created by a private individual, on private property for private use, and secondly, whether the requirement for numbering and registration includes motorboats and vessels used on private property. Our answer to both of your questions is yes.

The State Boat Act defines "waters of this state" to mean "any waters within the territorial limits of Nebraska" (Neb. Rev. Stat. § 37-1206 (1988)). In Kuester v. State, 191 Neb. 680, 217 N.W.2d 180 (1974), the plaintiff sought to have the State Boat Act declared unconstitutional in its application to certain property owned by him. The plaintiff in Kuester owned property on which was situated a lake wholly located within the confines of the property and accessible only over roads owned and controlled by the plaintiff. The State Boat Act as it existed in 1974 was in all relevant respects the same as the current State Boat Act. In Kuester, the Nebraska Supreme Court stated:

> Implicit in the trial court's order is a finding that the State Boat Act, . . . was applicable to the use and operation of boats upon the plaintiff's privately owned lake. This we believe is correct. An examination of the Act shows that it was clearly the legislative intention to apply it to the operation of boats upon private as well as public waters. Section 81-815.02 (4), R. R. S. 1943, defines waters of the state as "any waters within the territorial limits of Nebraska." The purpose of the Act as well as the use of similar language in related legislation indicates rather clearly the intention of the legislature. Any other construction would largely defeat the legislative purposes. The right of an owner to use his property is subject to reasonable regulations, restrictions, and control by the State in the legislative exercise of the police power of the State.

191 Neb. at 685, 217 N.W.2d at 183 (citations omitted). Section 81-815.02(4) referenced in the above citation is identical to § 37-1206 of the current State Boat Act.

Therefore, based on the Nebraska Supreme Court holding in Kuester, it is our determination that under the State Boat Act, as it is currently written, "waters of this state" include all waters of the state whether public or private or whether contained by structures and created by private individuals on private property for private use.

Neb. Rev. Stat. § 37-1211 (1988) states that with the exceptions noted "every motorboat on the waters of this state shall be numbered. No person shall operate or give permission for the operation of any vessel on such waters unless the vessel is numbered" as set out in the statute, and the certificate of number is in full force and effect and the number is displayed and legible. These statutes currently provide no exception for motorboats or vessels operated on waters situated on private property. Therefore, it is our determination that, based on the definition of "waters of this state," any motorboat or vessel operated on private or public property must comply with the requirements for numbering and registration contained in the State Boat Act.

Sincerely,
DON STENBERG
Attorney General

be entitled to retire and receive an annuity as provided by law. The right to retire at the age of fifty years with twenty-five years of service or more shall be at the option of the officer but such retirement shall be mandatory upon the officer attaining the age of sixty years.

(5) Payment of any benefit provided under sections 81-2014 to ~~81-2034~~ 81-2036 may not be deferred later than the sixtieth day after the end of the year in which the officer has both attained at least age seventy and one-half years and terminated his or her employment with the Nebraska State Patrol.

~~(5)~~ (6) The effective date of retirement payments shall be the first day of the month following (a) the date a member qualifies for retirement as provided in this section or (b) the date upon which a member's request for retirement is received on an application form provided by the system, whichever is later. An application may be filed no more than ninety days in advance of qualifying for retirement.

Sec. 16. That section 81-2026, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1992, be amended to read as follows:

81-2026. (1) Any officer qualified for an annuity as provided in section 81-2025 for reasons other than disability shall be entitled to receive a monthly annuity for the remainder of the officer's life. The amount of the annuity shall be a percentage of the officer's final average monthly compensation. For retirement on or after the fifty-fifth birthday of the member or on or after the fiftieth birthday of a member who has been in the employ of the state for twenty-five years, as calculated in section 81-2033, the percentage shall be three percent multiplied by the number of years of service, as calculated in section 81-2033, except that the percentage shall never be greater than seventy-five percent.

For retirement pursuant to subsection (2) of section 81-2025 on or after the fiftieth birthday of the member but prior to the fifty-fifth birthday of the member who has been in the employ of the state for less than twenty-five years, as calculated in section 81-2033, the annuity which would apply if the member were age fifty-five at the date of retirement shall be reduced by five-ninths of one percent for each month by which the early retirement date precedes age fifty-five or for each month by which the early retirement date precedes the date upon which the member has served for twenty-five years, whichever is earlier. Any officer who has completed thirty years of service with the Nebraska State Patrol shall have retirement benefits computed as if the officer had reached age fifty-five.

For purposes of this computation, final average monthly compensation shall mean the sum of the officer's total compensation during the final three years of service as an officer divided by thirty-six, and for any officer employed on or before January 4, 1979, the officer's total compensation shall include payments received for unused vacation and sick leave and compensatory time accumulated during the final three years of service.

(2) Any officer qualified for an annuity as provided in section 81-2025 for reasons of disability shall be entitled to receive a monthly annuity for the remainder of the period of disablement as provided in sections 81-2028 to 81-2030. The amount of the annuity shall be fifty percent of the officer's monthly compensation at the date of disablement if the officer has completed seventeen or fewer years of service. If the officer has completed more than seventeen years of service, the amount of the annuity shall be three percent of the final monthly compensation at the date of disablement multiplied by the total years of service but not to exceed seventy-five percent of the final average monthly compensation as defined in subsection (1) of this section. The date of disablement shall be the date on which the benefits as provided in section 81-2028 have been exhausted.

(3) Upon the death of an officer after retirement for reasons other than disability, the officer's surviving spouse, if married to the officer on the date of retirement, shall continue to receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's annuity for the remainder of the surviving spouse's life or until the surviving spouse remarries. If the surviving spouse has a dependent child or children under the age of nineteen years in his or her care, the benefit shall be one hundred percent of the amount of such officer's annuity until such time as the youngest such dependent child attains the age of nineteen years, after which time the benefit shall be reduced to seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's annuity. If there is no surviving spouse living at the date of the officer's death, the officer's child or children, if any, shall continue to receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's annuity until such time as the youngest such child attains the age of nineteen years. If there is more than one such child under the age of nineteen years at such time, the amount thereof shall be divided equally among such children under such age and, as they attain the age of nineteen years, only the other child or children under such age shall participate therein. If there is no surviving spouse or no child under the age of nineteen years at the date of the officer's death, the amount of annuities such officer has received under sections 81-2014 to 81-2036 shall be computed. If such amount is less than the contributions to the State Patrol Retirement Fund made by such officer, plus regular interest, the difference shall be paid to the officer's designated beneficiary or estate. Upon the death of an officer after retirement for reasons of disability, benefits shall be provided as if the officer had retired for reasons other than disability. Upon the death of an officer before retirement, benefits shall be provided as if the officer had retired for reasons of disability on the date of such officer's death as follows: (a) To the surviving spouse and dependent child or children under the age of nineteen years in such spouse's care, the benefit shall be one hundred percent of the amount of such officer's annuity until such time as the youngest dependent child attains the age of nineteen years after which time the benefit shall be reduced to seventy-five percent of the officer's annuity for the remainder of his or her life or until he or she remarries; (b) if there is no spouse living at the date of the officer's death, his or her child or children, if any, shall continue to receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's annuity until such time as the youngest child attains the age of nineteen years; (c) if there is more than one child under the age of nineteen years at the date of the officer's death, the benefit shall be divided equally among such children and, as they attain the age of nineteen years, only the child or children under the age of nineteen years shall participate therein; and (d) if there is no child or children under the age of nineteen years living at the date of the officer's death, the surviving spouse shall receive seventy-five percent of the amount of such officer's annuity for the remainder of his or her life or until he or she remarries. If no benefits are paid to a surviving spouse or dependent children, benefits will be paid as described in subsection (1) of section 81-2031.

(4) Any benefits provided in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section shall apply only to retirements, disabilities, and deaths occurring on or after September 2, 1977. No benefits being paid under the system on September 2, 1977, shall be modified, in any way, by the enactment of Laws 1977, LB 347.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 81-2014 to 81-2036, the annual benefit payable under such sections shall not at any time exceed the lesser of (a) ninety thousand dollars, as adjusted for cost-of-living adjustments announced by the Internal Revenue Service for each calendar year in which the adjustment is announced, actuarially reduced to reflect distributions prior to age sixty-two, or (b) one hundred percent of the member's average annual compensation for the three consecutive calendar years of service during which the member received his or her highest compensation and was an active member in the Nebraska State Patrol Retirement System. The maximum amount shall be adjusted, when necessary, as follows: (i) When the annual benefit is payable under this system to a member in a form other than a straight life annuity or the joint and survivor annuity described by subsections (1) and (3) of this section, the maximum amount shall be adjusted to the equivalent of a straight life annuity beginning at the same age on the basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved by the board, and kept on file with the board; and (ii) when the annual benefit is payable under this system to a member who has less than ten years of service under the system, the maximum amount shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the member's number of years of service under the system and the denominator of which is ten.

Sec. 17. That section 81-2033, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

79-4,207. (1) Each school board, after making a determination that an actual or potential environmental hazard or accessibility barrier exists within the school buildings or grounds under its control, may make and deliver to the county clerk of such county in which any part of the school district is situated, not later than August 25, an itemized estimate of the amounts necessary to be expended for the abatement of such environmental hazard or accessibility barrier elimination in its school buildings or grounds. Each school board shall conduct a public hearing on the itemized estimate prior to presenting such estimate to the county clerk. Notice of the place and time of such hearing shall, at least five days prior to the date set for hearing, be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the school district or be sent by direct mailing to each resident within the district.

(2) The school board shall designate the particular environmental hazard abatement project or accessibility barrier elimination project for which the tax levy provided for by this section will be expended, the period of years, which shall not exceed ten years, for which the tax will be levied for such project, and the amount of the levy for each year thereof. Each levy for a project which is authorized by this section may be imposed for such duration as shall be specified by the school board notwithstanding the contemporaneous existence or

The combined rate for both levies in the high school district, to be determined by such board, shall not exceed five and one-fifth cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable value.

(5) Each school board which submits an itemized estimate shall establish an environmental hazard abatement and accessibility barrier elimination project fund. Taxes collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to such fund to cover the project costs. Such estimates may be presented to the county clerk and taxes levied accordingly. The Director of Health shall, by January 1, 1993, 1995, 1997, and 1999, deliver a report to the Legislature estimating the amount of hazardous materials which remain in the public schools of the state.

(c) Accessibility barrier elimination shall include, but not be limited to, inspection for and removal of accessibility barriers, maintenance to reduce, lessen, put an end to, diminish, control, dispose of, or eliminate accessibility barriers, related restoration or replacement of facilities or property, any related architectural and engineering services, and any other action to eliminate accessibility barriers in the school buildings or grounds under the school board's control; and

(d) Environmental hazard shall mean any contamination of the air, water, or land surface or subsurface caused by any substance adversely affecting human health or safety if such substance has been declared hazardous by a federal or state statute, rule, or regulation.

~~(7)~~ (8) Accessibility barrier elimination project costs shall include, but not be limited to, inspection, maintenance, accounting, emergency services, consultation, or any other action to reduce or eliminate accessibility barriers.

~~(8)~~ (9) For the purpose of paying amounts necessary for the abatement of environmental hazards and accessibility barrier elimination, the school board may borrow money and issue bonds and other evidences of indebtedness of the district, which bonds and other evidences of indebtedness shall be secured by and payable from an irrevocable pledge by the district of amounts received in respect of the tax levy provided for by this section and any other funds of the district available therefor. MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

June 4, 1993

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

Engrossed Legislative Bill LB 739 was received in my office on June 1, 1993. The bill was signed by me on June 4, 1993, and delivered to the Secretary of State.

LB 739 provides for a legislative procedure in the event the Northern Line of Chicago & NorthWestern, or a subsequent owner, no longer provides railroad service to our citizens. Our first and foremost goal is to have an active, operating railroad on this route. LB 739 is a long range policy bill. It does not replace or preempt our efforts to secure continued services on the Northern Line.

The Northern Line has provided transportation services for Nebraska for over 100 years. We are hopeful that services will continue. Nebraska shippers are currently negotiating with C&NW for the purchase of the Northern Line; we actively support them and hope for their success. We do not want that line abandoned.

If the ICC permits C&NW to abandon the railroad, trail groups are positioned to negotiate with C&NW for the corridor, with the intent to donate it to the state. The Legislature has passed this bill so that procedures will be in place to accept the donation.

The National Trails Act has provided states with the ability to preserve an abandoned corridor for future transportation use, while making the corridor available for interim trail use. This bill seems to facilitate the best solution available to preserve the option for reinstituting rail service should abandonment occur. In the interim, recreational and economic benefits of a trail system would be made available, where feasible. Where not feasible, adjacent landowners could make use of the right of way.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

These bills were signed by me on June 4, 1993, and delivered to the Secretary of State.

MOTION - Reconsider Final Passage of LB 389

Mr. Beutler moved to reconsider the final vote on LB 389.

Laid over.

RESOLUTION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 273. Introduced by Hillman, 48; Baack, 47; Wickersham, 49.

WHEREAS, the Natural Resources Committee of the United States House of Representatives has introduced the Natural Resources Budget Reconciliation Act for Fiscal Year 1994 which in part creates a federal irrigation water surcharge. The surcharge applies to individuals or nonfederal entities that receive delivery of water (including water delivered by exchange) which is stored in or transported through federal reclamation projects or project facilities or projects or project facilities constructed by the Secretary of the Army that meet the conditions specified in paragraph (1) or (2) of section 212(a) of the Reclamation Reform Act of 1982 (Public Law 97-293, 43 U.S.C. 390), except for facilities of the Central Valley Project, California (as that project is defined by title XXXIV Public Law 102-575). The surcharge is in addition to any and all other charges currently paid for water service or repayment. Surcharges assessed and collected are not to be credited to other debts or charges owed; and

WHEREAS, a fund will be established in the Treasury of the United States known as the "Natural Resources Restoration Fund". The appropriations will be for the benefit of fish and wildlife resources, including habitat, affected by the construction or operation of the projects referred to above; and

WHEREAS, the Natural Resources Budget Reconciliation Act claims the construction and operation of federal reclamation projects have had various effects on streams, habitat, and water quality and that these projects have caused adverse effects on fish and wildlife resources; and

WHEREAS, irrigation systems in Nebraska have created wetlands and streams, contributed to wildlife habitat, and increased the population of wildlife, deer, pheasants, ducks, and geese; and

WHEREAS, the federal reclamation program has been operating successfully for over ninety years, and hundreds of water projects have been built by the Bureau of Reclamation in seventeen western states; and

WHEREAS, the Natural Resources Budget Reconciliation Act is poorly crafted and amounts to a new tax in the form of a surcharge on irrigators in these seventeen western states; and

WHEREAS, the revenue from this surcharge will not reduce the deficit but will be set aside for fish and wildlife programs; and

WHEREAS, the surcharges assessed and collected must be sufficient to yield at least ten million dollars annually in the years 1994, 1995, and 1996 and at least fifteen million dollars annually thereafter; and

WHEREAS, the proposed surcharge ranges from thirty-five cents to two dollars an acre-foot. The approximate amount of acre-feet of water delivered in Nebraska by the reclamation projects in 1990 and 1991 and the approximate amount of money surcharged at fifty cents and one dollar an acre-foot is as follows: (1) 1990: 854,000 acre-feet x fifty cents = $427,000 and 854,000 acre-feet x one dollar = $854,000; and (2) 1991: 1,150,000 acre-feet x fifty cents = $575,000 and 1,150,000 acre-feet x one dollar = $1,150,000; and

WHEREAS, there is concern about the cavalier attitude toward irrigators who are operating at the margin. In its supporting documentation, the Clinton administration admits that no consideration was given to the users' ability to pay and that the "surcharge should be assessed even if the users' payment capacity is marginal"; and

WHEREAS, there is a lack of information as to the efficient use and recharging of underground and surface water to adequately encourage more efficient use of water resources by the beneficiaries of federal reclamation projects; and

WHEREAS, a United States Department of the Interior representative concedes that the surcharge will not be uniformly applied and that questions remain about the legality of imposing a surcharge on districts that currently have long-term repayment contracts with the federal government.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Legislature expresses its opposition to the Natural Resources Budget Reconciliation Act.

2. That a copy of this resolution be sent to United States Senator Bob Kerry, United States Senator J. James Exon, Congressman Douglas Bereuter, Congressman Peter Hoagland, and Congressman William E. Barrett.

3. That the Legislature requests the assistance of Nebraska's United States Senators and Representatives in defeating any attempt to implement a surcharge for individuals or nonfederal entities who receive water from federal reclamation projects or certain United States Army Corps of Engineers projects.

Laid over.

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

With this letter, I am returning LB 541 and LB 330, and reducing or striking specific appropriations and related items. An attachment lists each of the reductions. The amount of general fund vetoes total nearly $6 million over the next biennium.

As a result of our cooperative efforts during last fall's special session where we cut nearly $100 million, we are able to avoid drastic cuts. You have worked hard to enact a balanced and responsible budget that meets the minimum reserve requirement for the ensuing biennium. However, as Governor, it remains my constitutional duty to scrutinize your work one more time for the most efficiency possible.

My review of your proposed budget primarily considers our collective responsibility to carefully guard taxpayer dollars and to plan to prudently manage the state budget two years from now. No economic miracle is likely to save us from the harsh fiscal realities we all expect will lie ahead. Our constituents expect government to tax fairly and spend wisely. It is wise to continue the painful process of trimming government to a size that taxpayers can support. This gradual process, avoiding peaks and valleys in patterns of both spending and taxation, makes future impacts less difficult to manage. My vetoes do not eliminate the need for more hard choices next biennium. But they do continue our efforts to control the rate of growth.

My recommendation for the University of Nebraska system leaves a total increase of $12.3 million in General Fund dollars for the coming biennium. I have allowed for this increase above the current year's appropriation because of the existence of additional dollars which have become available because of this body's frugal approach to the budget. I have followed a similar approach for the State Colleges and the Community Colleges.

A reduction of $8,834 has been made for the Department of Water Resources for FY 94 to do an evapotranspiration study. These are funds earmarked to pay the costs for a study of water losses along the North Platter river. The study is done and paid for; the costs were not included in the Governor's recommendation, and the Department of Water Resources can use vacancy savings in this year's budget to reimburse the other partners in the study, if necessary. Some may argue this is a small amount, however, I have taken the approach that every dollar is important; and no amount will go unreviewed.

The Governor's health insurance bill was introduced prior to the ratification of the health insurance portion of the bargaining contract. The Law Enforcement Bargaining Unit and the state have not reached a salary agreement for the next biennium. This issue was appealed to the Special Master, and following that ruling, appealed further to the Commission on Industrial Relations. While the state and bargaining unit did not come to agreement on salaries, they did reach agreement on health insurance coverage. The Legislature funded the health insurance at the Governor's originally recommended level and did not adjust for the agreed-upon new rates for the next biennium, which results in a $495,889 net savings from those general funds budgeted.

I have reduced by $80,000 the annual increase in appropriations to the Department of Health for health care facility survey and licensing to encourage the maximum efficiency in this federally mandated activity. The $100,000 appropriation remaining still exceeds my original recommendation by $50,000 per year.

The veto I recommend in the Governor's budget is to ensure that permanent positions are not created in the Governor's Office and will result in the current arrangement with the Department of Environmental Quality and Policy Research Office remaining as is. The intent language concerning the Office of Children and Family and the language dealing with the Low-Level Radioactive Waste Advisor is also stricken in an effort to reflect my intent on these programs.

Finally, LB 541 transfers $50,000 both years from State Patrol's Public Safety Cash Fund (drug seizure money) to the Crime Commission. The State Patrol has many documented needs for the Public Safety Cash Fund, and I believe this sets a bad precedent for future transfers from this fund.

Again, thank you for your hard work and cooperation this session. I urge you to sustain these vetoes.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol

Dear Madam President and Senators:

Today I signed and delivered to the Secretary of State LB 643, a bill designed to produce a comprehensive study of alternatives for educating Nebraska students with hearing impairments, including deafness.

It is vital that all Nebraska children have an opportunity for high performance learning. The final version of LB 643 shows sensitivity to state's deaf community. It does not preordain any one solution and it takes into account the cultural and other unique needs of these students.

The issues of continued quality, accessibility and cost-effectiveness of the state and local school district programs (including ESU and cooperative programs) available to these young Nebraskans have arisen repeatedly over the past ten years. They are serious issues. Because the issues have not been faced forthrightly or conclusively in the past, the deaf community has been caused needless uncertainty and anxiety. By the same token, significant opportunities for savings and/or improved services may have been missed. It is essential, therefore, that the LB 643 study committee and the State Board of Education come up with a sound plan: one that is grounded in budget realities and the need for effective services and which promotes necessary change in a compassionate manner.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson

June 10, 1993

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol Building
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

I am returning LB 145 and LB 145A without my signature and with my objections.

The bill requires that a birth certificate be presented to an examiner for each driver's license applicant under age 18. If there is no birth certificate, the applicant must present other reliable proof of identity and an affidavit from their parent or guardian explaining why no birth certificate is available.

Although the bill is intended to help locate missing children, the procedures to be followed by the Department of Motor Vehicles in implementing the bill do not provide for the necessary tracking system. Information used for tracking purposes will be on a separate document rather than the license application itself. This requires additional paperwork and leads to a greater possibility for error when the information is transferred to electronic records.

The applicant, regardless of age, is currently required to present one of several types of identification and proof of birth date, including a birth certificate. Although the bill limits those under 18 to a certified birth certificate for identification and proof of birth date, it also allows a parent or guardian to avoid this step by submitting an affidavit. There are no grounds for an examiner to accept or reject the explanation of why a birth certificate is not available; thus the ease with which an individual can bypass the birth certificate requirement is increased.

Although the bill was introduced for a worthy purpose, I do not believe the legislation will accomplish the desired objective. Instead, the bill requires additional paperwork and could increase instances of fraudulent acquisition of a driver's license.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

ENROLLED RESOLUTION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 74. Introduced by Withem, 14; Hartnett, 45; Lynch, 13; Hall, 7.

WHEREAS, Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina are sovereign and independent states, members of the United Nations, and participating states of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe; and

WHEREAS, the leaders of Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have committed themselves to practice tolerance and to live together in peace with neighboring states in keeping with the Charter of the United Nations and to promote human rights and democracy pursuant to the Helsinki Final Act; and

WHEREAS, the people of Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have been and remain the target of armed aggression by Serbia and Serbian-backed forces; and

WHEREAS, the loss of life and human suffering in Bosnia-Hercegovina has reached an unprecedented scale in post-World War II Europe; and

WHEREAS, the war and "ethnic cleansing" in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have uprooted more than one and one-half million people, contributing to the largest refugee problem in Europe since World War II; and

WHEREAS, the people of Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have been subjected to organized, systematic, and premeditated war crimes and genocide, including willful killings, rape, forced impregnation, abuse of civilians in detention centers, deliberate attacks on noncombatants including women and children, "ethnic cleansing" through forcible expulsion and deportation of civilians, and torture of prisoners; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations Security Council has reaffirmed that persons who commit or order the commission of grave breaches of the

Geneva Conventions are individually responsible with respect to such breaches; and

WHEREAS, the International Committee of the Red Cross and other international humanitarian organizations have not been granted unimpeded and continuous access to all camps, prisons, and detention centers in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina as called for by the United Nations Security Council; and

WHEREAS, efforts by United Nations humanitarian organizations and others to secure the effective and unimpeded delivery of humanitarian supplies to all victims of the war in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have reportedly been blocked; and

WHEREAS, numerous diplomatic efforts to achieve a peaceful solution to the war in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have failed to bring about a cessation of hostilities; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations Security Council has demanded that neighboring states respect the territorial integrity of Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina; and

WHEREAS, irregular forces have failed to disband, disarm, or place their weapons under effective international monitoring; and

WHEREAS, article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations provides for the right of individual and collective self-defense if an armed attack occurs against a member state; and

WHEREAS, the right of Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina to defend themselves against attack by old Yugoslavian communist forces and Serbian Cetniks has been thwarted by the existing international arms embargo; and

WHEREAS, incursions of the airspace of Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina by hostile military aircraft continue to occur in violation of the establishment of a "no-fly" zone by the United Nations Security Council; and

WHEREAS, United Nations Security Council resolutions on a "no-fly" zone, the transfer of all heavy weapons to international control, the delivery of humanitarian assistance, and access to all camps, prisons, and detention centers in Bosnia-Hercegovina have not been fully implemented or enforced; and

WHEREAS, the Croatian Cultural Society of Omaha has been active in maintaining the culture of Croatian Americans; and

WHEREAS, the Croatian Cultural Society has contacted, locally, the St. Martin de Porres Center, for Omaha to be placed on the list as a resettlement site for refugees from Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina, but to no avail.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the United States recognizes that Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina have the right to self-defense as provided under article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations. The United States should encourage the lifting of the international arms embargo as it applies to Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina, thus enabling Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina to uphold the right of self-defense.

2. That the United States should assemble a multinational coalition to:

(a) Ensure that irregular forces in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina either withdraw or be disbanded and disarmed with their weapons placed under effective international monitoring;

(b) Ensure the immediate, effective, and unimpeded delivery of humanitarian aid to all civilian populations in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina in keeping with international commitments; and

(c) Ensure unimpeded access to all camps, prisons, and detention centers in Bosnia-Hercegovina by the International Committee of the Red Cross and other international humanitarian organizations and facilitate the release of all detainees from such facilities.

3. That the Legislature believes that the preservation and respect for human life should cause people to look beyond cultural and political differences in an effort to peacefully resolve this conflict. The Legislature condemns all forces which have committed serious war crimes against humanity and encourages the hostilities to cease and the continuation of diplomatic efforts to resolve the conflict.

4. That the Legislature encourages the United States to:

(a) Seek an increase in the number of refugees from Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina permitted to enter the United States and other European countries; and

(b) Work to ensure that those responsible for war crimes and crimes against humanity in Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina are held accountable by an international criminal tribunal.

5. That the Legislature strongly encourages the appropriate federal and private agencies to include the Croatian Cultural Society of Omaha in the resettlement of those refugees seeking asylum in the United States.

6. That the Legislature encourages physicians and hospitals in Nebraska, especially in Omaha because of its Croatian population, to become involved in a humanitarian way to help the victims of war from Croatia and Bosnia-Hercegovina which can be accomplished by becoming involved in the International Organization for Migration, a nonprofit organization aimed at secondary treatment of victims of war and violence.

7. That the Legislature encourages individuals, businesses, and church organizations to also help in a humanitarian effort by sponsoring victims in the form of monetary contributions for payment of medical care.

8. That the Clerk of the Legislature shall transmit copies of this resolution to Nebraska's congressional delegation and the Croatian Cultural Society.

WHEREAS, President Clinton has proposed a broad based energy tax on all forms of energy known as the British Thermal Unit (BTU) tax; and

WHEREAS, Nebraska farmers are unfairly disadvantaged by such a tax in that they are heavy users of energy, and further, cannot pass on or recoup such increased costs in the sale of their products; and

WHEREAS, based on information gathered by the Governor's Impact Nebraska Meeting, held on March 12, 1993, the annual cost of the BTU tax may range from twenty-five cents per acre for ranch land to as high as five dollars per acre for an irrigated farm; and

WHEREAS, such tax may have a disproportionate impact on Nebraskans; and

WHEREAS, Nebraskans are willing to do their fair share to strengthen America and expand its economy, the BTU tax can do nothing but produce a negative effect on economic growth and job creations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That while the Legislature supports the President in his stated goal to reduce the national debt, that such attempts should include additional spending cuts, and that the BTU tax, if proposed, should be structured in such a form as to avoid a depressing and degrading effect on Nebraska agriculture.

2. That the Clerk of the Legislature send copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Honorable Leon Panetta, Director of the Budget, and to the members of the Nebraska congressional delegation.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

Today I signed and delivered to the Secretary of State LB 239.

Nebraska's community colleges have updated their Role and Mission in line with the Comprehensive Plan of the Coordinating Commission for Postsecondary Education and have taken steps to address difficult circumstances facing the continued viability of Western Nebraska Community College. The changes in LB 239, if property implemented, can help communicate the purpose of the community colleges to the public and can prepare WNCC in particular to meet the challenges of the future.

Nevertheless, I feel compelled to express a word of caution in both of those instances. It is my clear understanding that the Role and Mission updating and clarifications were not intended to signal a change of roles or priorities for the community colleges. Therefore, those changes may not be construed as building a mandate for state reimbursement or subsidy of the costs of what is now termed "foundations education" and which includes remedial education programs. Likewise, it is my clear understanding that the newly authorized construction in the Western Community College Area in Scottsbluff and Sidney will be limited to remodeling and/or construction of "applied technology" (vocational-technical) classroom and laboratory space. Administrative, foundations education, and student services space therefore must be kept to an absolute minimum.

I note that the Legislature plans to examine a number of role and mission and program delivery issues in depth in the interim prior to the next legislative session. LR 125 and LR 128 appear particularly timely and well-focused in that regard, and I pledge this administration's assistance in that process.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

June 10, 1993

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

Today I signed and delivered to the Secretary of State LB 632, a bill which creates the offense of handicapped parking infraction and allows municipalities to pass ordinances to designate citizens to issue citations.

The bill has merit in that it provides for enforcement of accessible parking for individuals with disabilities. In too many instances law enforcement officers are too busy to enforce handicapped parking laws. Not only that, law enforcement is not able to recoup the costs for enforcement. Thus the law is not enforced and violators continue to abuse the law. The bill's aim is to preserve handicap parking places for people with disabilities, those that need them.

The conditions or parameters for which a person who is designated as a peace officer - such as training provisions, responsibilities, and liability - need to be addressed. The process for notification when a person receives a citation needs work also. Placing a ticket on the vehicle, where it can be blown away, is not enough. This is particularly true when the individual must appear in court within three days, and any person failing to appear can be charged with a Class III misdemeanor.

Although I have concerns about these issues, the sponsor of the bill has assured me that he will work with affected interests to address them before the 1994 session. Therefore, I sign the bill with the expectation that these issues will be addressed in the next regular session of the legislature.

Sincerely,
(Signed) E. Benjamin Nelson
Governor

June 10, 1993

LB 429 was received in my office on June 8, 1993. The bill was signed by me on June 10, 1993 and delivered to the Secretary of State. Nevertheless, I have strong reservations about the expanded scope of practice by the optometrists without requiring additional education, training and supervision.

To address my concerns regarding appropriate education, training and supervision, I have asked Dr. Mark Horton, Director, Department of Health to study the issues and bring all parties together for the purpose of making recommendations in the 1994 session of the Legislature. I have received assurances that the ophthalmologists and optometrists will work together and revisit this issue during the interim.

I am unequivocally opposed to allowing optometrists to use certain agents in the treatment of glaucoma. Nonetheless, with proper training and supervision, some optometrists could and should be able to prescribe pharmaceutical agents for pain, infection and inflammation.

Sincerely,

June 10, 1993

Madam President, Mr. Speaker
and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, NE 68509

Dear Madam President and Senators:

Today I signed LB 839 and delivered it to the Secretary of State.

LB 839 provides for a "common levy" for Class I - Class VI school systems, effective for the 1995-96 school year. It also provides a mechanism for releasing apportionment and in-lieu-of-tax funds from state school lands, based on an appraisal rate of 80% for apportionment. Finally -- and this was the original purpose of the bill -- it deletes obsolete tuition provisions for certain students residing on federal and state lands.

I am sensitive to the outrage caused by the process that was used to advance the common levy. Nevertheless, in the final analysis, issues must be decided on their merit, and Governors, like batters, do not get to select how the pitch comes across the plate.

The needs of rural Nebraska, particularly our more sparsely populated regions, are truly unique. They must not be addressed in a vacuum through the mere operation of mechanical formulas and inflexible principles. The Rural Development Commission, for instance, has exemplified the search for new solutions to previously intractable problems, and the creation of new opportunities where none were thought to exist.

As the result of a school reorganization compromise first enacted in 1990 with LB 259, the common levy will be the established policy for all other elementary education systems in Nebraska as of next month. Thus, the two-year study period preceding implementation of the common levy for Class VI systems provides the opportunity to study the likely effects based on reliable fiscal data that are not available at this time. More importantly, the intervening period will allow serious study of innovative rural assistance ideas such as a "population sparsity" factor and the recognition of necessary transportation expenses in the state aid formula, to cite but two. I urge the Legislature to study these issues thoroughly, and I pledge my support in the critical examination of the Class VI common levy and the search for more equitable ways of addressing the educational needs of Nebraska's rural students.

Sincerely,

Dear Madam President and Senators:

With this letter, I am returning LB 152A with line-item reductions in the appropriations contained in the bill.

The line-item veto reduces the state general fund appropriation for FY 1993-94 and FY 1994-95 to $100,000 and $300,000, respectively. The resultant funding for the non-state affiliated family practice residency programs provided for in LB 152 becomes equivalent to the funding for the student loans contained in the Rural Health Opportunities Act, or LB 505, that also became law this session.
