

January 17, 1995

or with a motion to recess. Now if that were defeated, theoretically, you could come back with a motion to adjourn, and so on, and so on. Now I think under any standard that you'd want to look at, that tactic really should not be condoned, and the Chair should be able to control that kind of a tactic. Perhaps this isn't...this isn't a very complicated proposal. I don't know that there is much more that I can say about it from the meetings we had, the Rules Committee had on it. So I would simply leave it with that explanation and urge the body to adopt rule change 14.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Bromm. The Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, members of the Legislature, again this is a rule that comes into being because of what I did. I am the one who had made a motion to recess, then a motion to adjourn, and then a motion to recess. But I want you to look at the rule. It is a brief one, and the title of Section 9 is "Motion to Adjourn", but it doesn't say "Motion to Recess". So the existing language says a motion to adjourn shall be in order except, but it doesn't say anything about when a motion to recess is in order. But you cannot make a motion to adjourn while a member is speaking. When a motion to adjourn or recess has been defeated, you cannot make a motion to adjourn. But it does not say you cannot make a motion to recess while a member is speaking. It does not say you cannot make a motion to recess when a motion to adjourn or recess has just been defeated. It doesn't say that a motion to recess cannot be made after the Final Reading of a bill and during roll call thereon. So let me ask a question of Senator Bromm.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Bromm

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bromm, do we recognize the motion to recess? Is that a recognized motion?

SENATOR BROMM: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where do we find the prohibition against a motion to recess while a member is speaking?

SENATOR BROMM: I don't think it is in there and I think that's a very good point. It probably should be added: A motion to adjourn or recess shall be in order except, and so on.