

cosponsored. By the way, Senator...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: "Chambraro".

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...Chambers, Chambers,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. (Laughter.)

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...the first sign of aging, I'm told, I'm told is a loss of memory, and the second is, what were we talking about?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's why I'll never forget your name, no matter what else I forget. (Laughter.)

SENATOR COORDSEN: No, you're right on target, because in Nebraska certainly as all over the world, various groups of people have dances that are representative of their heritage. And while it would probably be more appropriate to have a separate amendment doing what you would desire to do, which I don't disagree with, this one, quite frankly, says "an", so it is of no negative value, no negative connotation on any other ethnic dance. It's just a fine, fine thing to do for the square dance people, but I certainly would support any effort to recognize any other group's preference, even a foxtrot. And as a sly old fox, I think that probably might be your preference in recognition.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laughter.) I don't mind the sly, but the old is cutting a little close.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Not that I think...not to make you believe I don't think this is really important, but I was going to stand up and voluntarily sing, you know, (sings in Czech!) if we could get Wesely and maybe Senator Witek to demonstrate the dance, so we'd know exactly what we're talking about here, the state polka, or whatever it is.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Lynch. Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. I was very pleased when I heard Senator Withem, in his remarks, say that there was Czechs in the system. (Laughter.) I rise
