

SENATOR AVERY: They call you about everything once in awhile.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I know that, but we are not going to go into that.

SENATOR AVERY: On this subject, I don't believe so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you. Now I'd like to ask Senator Elmer a question. Senator Elmer, what did you mean...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...when you used the word "fisher" in line 18?

SENATOR ELMER: Taken in context with the rest of the...the rest of the language...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, line 19.

SENATOR ELMER: ...in that area, the rest of the language in that section, it would mean an individual engaging in the activity of trying to catch fish.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But you don't include the bird or any other animal whose proper designation is fisher, you are not including them?

SENATOR ELMER: As I've said before, I am unaware of any animal that's proper name is fisher.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You don't believe what Senator Janssen just tried to make you aware of. If you see...

SENATOR ELMER: Oh, I believe him, but I said I have not been aware of (interruption)...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If I show it to you in writing in a book, will you accept it?

SENATOR ELMER: Of course.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, just a minute. We have another creature, and this is the one that I had in mind, and it was
