limits are, I would have to do some checking to find out. And I think there is research and I think there is good science that would say that. I just don't have the specific numbers.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. It's just...it has become a more acute issue with me as you and I have sat through this EMF issue and we have studies that tell us well, it's three or four times higher than is recommended and then you get down to the question, well is three or four times higher at that level detrimental to health in any way and there are conflicting opinions about it.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: I will continue this discussion later, Senator, thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Are there items for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: There are, Mr. President. I have received a reference report for a gubernatorial appointee.
