say it is.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay. Is...is this what former Senator Rasmussen was hired for then?

SENATOR WESELY: No, no.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay.

SENATOR WESELY: She's over in the Governor's Office to coordinate children and family policy.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay. So this will be another...another person hired half...part-time.

SENATOR WESELY: Right, in the Department of Education.

SENATOR PIRSCH: And then that person will need a full-time support person.

SENATOR WESELY: Secretary, yes, Senator.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay. And part of this A bill is traveling around, which I imagine would be expensive. That's about $11,000 and...

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah, that's to visit and see that what they say is true when they want to be accreited like that.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Sure. Yeah, so that's part of the fiscal note. So what would be the fiscal note now then?

SENATOR WESELY: I gave...thank you. Fiscal note would be 40,867 for next year, and 31,953 the following year.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Thirty-one thousand then would really be the ongoing?

SENATOR WESELY: I would...yes, I would think that's correct.

SENATOR PIRSCH: The ongoing cost.

SENATOR WESELY: About 30,000 a year.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay.
