

February 21, 1995 LB 830

ASSISTANT CLERK: 25 ayes, 1 nay on the adoption of Senator Chambers' amendment.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chambers amendment is adopted. Mr. Clerk, are there further amendments?

ASSISTANT CLERK: The next amendment that I have is offered by Senator Wickersham. It's found in the Journal on page 780.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chair recognizes Senator Bohlke to open on the amendment.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Madam President, I wish to pass over.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The amendment will be passed over.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Madam President, the next amendment I have is offered by Senator Will.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Will. Is there anyone to open on the amendment for Senator Will? Senator Withem.

SPEAKER WITHEM: I forgot Senator Will had authorized me to use this amendment in any way I saw fit, and I will pass it over.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The amendment will be passed over.

ASSISTANT CLERK: The next amendment that I have is offered by Senator Coordsen. (Coordsen amendment, AM0463, may be found on page 780 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Coordsen, to open on the amendment.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Madam President and members of the body. This amendment is printed in the Journal on page 780. And if you will turn, if you are interested at least, if you'll turn to page 11, and it provides the noticing of area applications in that section for the...who the city or joint entity filing an area application shall notice. It seemed to me that there were some important people left out of the noticing of the proposed designated blighted and substandard area, which is a definition that I dearly love. Reminds me one time I spoke to a group of people, I told them I was just a poor farmer, and the guy in the front row said, yeah, George, I've been by your
